desperately required to stop the slaughter of the population and vital industries Thus was conceived 9 Group of the Royal Air Force charged with the air defense of the entire region This book relates how the Group was formed and the immense difficulties involved due to shortages of suitable aircraft guns and operational infrastructure Fought mostly at night during a period when night fighter tactics were in their infancy and inexperienced aircrew were having to fly over difficult mountainous terrain and in appalling weather conditions resulting in a high casualty rate Eventually things improved and the Squadrons within 9 Group started to bring down significant numbers of raiding bombers whether they approached from the East or took advantage of neutral Ireland s street lights to guide them via the Irish Sea to their intended targets
