General George C. Kenney
THE MACARTHUR
I KNOW

When two men have joined forces in time of difficulty and defeat, and have together met danger, outlasted criticism, and pushed aside every human obstacle on the hard road back, they know each other. That adversity is the great revealer of character has never been more convincingly demonstrated than in this book, the intimate portrait of Douglas MacArthur by a man who shared defeat and victory with him from 1942 to 1945.

Today, when a raging dispute over MacArthur's dismissal consumes the nation, Americans want to know more about him than legend, propaganda, and journalistic sketches can satisfy.

To
Gen. Hugh Dwyer
With sincere regards
George C. Kenney

Halsted,2024-02-07 Thinking about the end times isn t supposed to terrify you Christians rightly turn to the Bible to make sense of our times But so often we get the wrong answers because we ask the wrong questions In The End of the World as You Know It Matthew L Halsted challenges common end times assumptions and points us back to Scripture Each chapter reevaluates a popular question in light of the Bible's own concerns Will Christians be raptured What is the mark of the beast When we let Scripture direct our questions we get better and more hopeful answers The Bible was written for us but not to us We must bridge the gap between Scripture's ancient context and our own Reading end times texts in their ancient context helps us understand our present and future And when we do we find that God's word brings peace not fear and confusion Trust Me, I Know What I'm Doing Bill Fawcett, 2012-12-04 Hindsight hurts The British Parliament passes the Stamp Act having the American colonies pay for their own defense which instead starts a revolution In 1929 President Herbert Hoover decides to let the economy fix itself and the Great Depression gets greater Nixon tapes everything he says in the Oval Office believing it will all be of great historical value He turns out to be right when those same tapes cost him his presidency Charles the First cuts a deal with the Irish to fight Parliament that instead loses him public support and later his head Along with 100 Mistakes that Changed the World Trust Me I Know What I'm Doing proves once again that when global leaders drop the ball the whole world shakes With a hundred more bombshell blunders from Pickett's Charge to the Lewinski scandal this compendium takes a fascinating look at some of history's greatest turns for the worse 50 American Revolutions You're Not Supposed to Know Michael Zezima, 2005-09-01 Since when was it unpatriotic to dissent Why is it un-American to question our government's policies And how did the Far Right manage to claim the flag exclusively for itself A book that the country desperately needs 50 American Revolutions is a concise quick guide to the people and events in our country's history that progressives and anyone not impressed by the radical Right's warped version of patriotism can be proud of Author Mickey Z begins with Thomas Paine's revolutionary manifesto Common Sense written anonymously as a pamphlet in January 1776 and read by every member of Congress and goes on to highlight the most notable people and events in the history of the United States right through to the families of 9/11 victims in the group Peaceful Tomorrows questioning the connection between the events of that day and the United States subsequent acts of aggression in Iraq In addition to concise essays on everything and everyone from the Bill of Rights to disability rights Coxey's Army to Public Enemy Mickey also highlights important milestones along the timeline of the book making for a complete picture of US history good with bad As with Russ Kick's ultra popular 50 Things You're Not Supposed To Know 50 American Revolutions is perfectly sized for handbags and coat pockets it's the same size as a CD it's a tremendous gift for anyone whose idea of patriotism needs some revision How to Know the Will of God Wayne O'Donnell, 2020-12-22 This book is about how to know God's will through the scriptures and wisdom instead of by supposedly hearing God's voice All my books can be read online for free at <http://wayneodonnell.com> Freely you have received freely give Mt 10:8 This booklet is included in and comprises several sections in my book Paul's Decision Making in Acts Anti Charismatic Pro Jewish Commentary on Acts In 1980 Garry Friesen wrote Decision Making and the Will of God a book that debunked the traditional view that God leads by inward impressions into His perfect specific will But Bible teachers continue teach prayer is a two way conversation churches continue to question pastoral candidates about their call to the ministry and Christians continue to try to discern God's inner voice to make decisions. Maybe it would help if we had more scholarly journal articles on the topic. Grudem categorized the articles published in three refereed evangelical journals for the last five years before 2000: Westminster Theological Journal, Trinity Journal, and the Journal of the Evangelical Theological Society. Not counting book reviews, there were 257 scholarly articles on all topics. But regarding God's guidance in our daily lives, zero articles. Yet some understanding of God's guidance affects every Christian every day of his or her life. Either Garry Friesen is right on that topic or he's wrong. We should expect to see many more scholars contributing articles and books supporting and developing their viewpoints. Christians in the book of Acts made their decisions by the Word and Wisdom, not by listening for inward impressions. I would love to read an exposition of the Book of Acts that showed Paul, the other apostles, and their co-workers making most of their decisions by listening for inward impressions, but it would require reading that doctrine into the text rather than expositing it out of the text. Friesen, in order to arrive at the conclusion of the traditional approach to decision making, it is necessary to water down the biblical examples and spice up the biblical teaching. Examples like in Acts are watered down to be less miraculous than they really are so we can think we're doing them too. Biblical teaching like in the epistles must be spiced up to be more specific than it really is. For example, a promise to Israel to guide you continually. Is 58:11 doesn't actually say anything about Christians being guided by inward impressions. Paul made most of his decisions by the Word and Wisdom, not by inward impressions, and only rarely by direct revelation, even though he was the apostle on the cutting edge of Jesus' mission to bring the gospel to the Gentiles. Most of Paul's decisions in Acts can be explained. 17 principles he followed.
