Managing Teacher Workload:

Managing Teacher Workload Sara Bubb, 2004 This book deserves to be the standard introduction to teachers' abilities to achieve a work life balance. It reflects the challenges and the changes facing teachers dealing effectively with both the big picture and the fine details that matter most. Dr Mary Bousted, General Secretary Association of Teachers and Lecturers

Managing Teacher Workload Sara Bubb, Peter Earley, 2004-09-27 By showing you what you can do to assess, manage and reduce the time you spend on school work, this book will help you achieve a better work life balance. Managing Teacher Workload: A Whole-School Approach to Finding the Balance Nansi Ellis, 2016-08-30 It is acknowledged that the quality of teaching is the critical factor in raising standards of learning. And yet teachers' workload has rocketed in recent years, leaving morale for many at rock bottom. Recent DfE analysis shows that primary teachers work around 60 hours a week and school leaders even longer. This is not sustainable. Teachers need an end to excessive working hours. Edited by Nansi Ellis, assistant general secretary at leading teaching union ATL. Managing Teacher Workload brings together leading educationalists to discuss real practical ways to solve the biggest problem in the profession. Contributors include Mary Bousted, General Secretary ATL; Emma Knights, Chief Executive of the National Governors' Association (NGA); Heath Monk, Executive Director of the Schools of King Edward VI in Birmingham; former CEO of the Future Leaders Trust, Julian Stanley; chief executive Education Support Partnership, Mary Myatt; Joe Pardoe, Lee Card, Toby French, Judith Vaughan, Collette Bradford. Managing Teacher Workload Nansi Ellis, 2016 Managing Teachers as Professionals in Schools Hugh Busher, Rene Saran, 2013-04-15 This text examines the challenges facing education managers as the introduction of the National Curriculum, a number of Education Acts and the reorganization of management have altered the concepts of teacher professionalism and their statutory duties. Teachers Time Management for the Digital and Green Age Fabrice Serodes, 2025-09-08 This timely and essential study examines how the twin transitions of digitalisation and ecological responsibility are reshaping the foundations of contemporary education. The book explores the systemic shifts in school organisation, professional roles and working conditions, positioning itself at the intersection of educational management, sustainability and technological change. It identifies persistent structural barriers that have been a hindrance to the implementation in recent years, ranging from inadequate infrastructure to institutional resistance. It also highlights innovative practices that have emerged through cross-disciplinary collaboration and pedagogical experimentation. Furthermore, it offers solutions that will help overcome the obstacles. Drawing on extensive empirical research and actual case studies, it captures the pressures placed on educators, particularly during crises, and the potential for renewal. A central focus lies in rethinking time use, task coordination and teacher well-being, advocating for adaptive strategies and institutional support. In alignment with the European Union's strategic agenda, the book calls for an education system that is not only future-ready but also equitable, humane and resilient.
