Metaphors of Mind Brad Pasanek, 2015-07 Promoting critical and creative anachronism Metaphors of Mind redefines the notion of an archive in the age of Amazon and Google Books

Nurturing a Daoist-Inspired Classroom Pedagogy Through the Contemplative Lenses of Teacher Diaries David McLachlan Jeffrey, 2024-08-01 The harmonizing influence of ancient Daoist philosophy is of much relevance to the world in which we live today and this is especially so in the field of global education Among the growing numbers of contemporary teachers and scholars who nurture Daoist wisdom in their classrooms this book takes the unique pathway of considering its applications through the contemplative lenses of teacher diaries Its South African born author has taught academic English for over three decades in Japan the Middle East and the People's Republic of China Since early childhood he has infused his fascination for Daoist wisdom with his enjoyment of writing diaries and in ways that derive insights into the compassionate frugal and humble foundations of Daoist inspired pedagogies within contemporary classroom environments This book presents Daoist wisdom in terms of it being the Supreme Ultimate of all ways It introduces the classical Daoist texts of the Laozi the Zhuangzi and the Liezi and shares a short historical overview of Daoism with its growing global influence As such it emphasizes that Daoist inspired pedagogies encourage a delicate balance between intuitive insights and intellectual analysis and in ways that are not antagonistic toward each other but which dance together as one In this regard the role of meditation during the undertaking of diaries is specifically highlighted concerning its propensity to bring one into the present moment pacify racing thoughts and transcend the ego It also shows how a meditative state of mind that accompanies the reading writing and analysis of the diary entries contributes to deeper self discernment along with unique intuitive insights related to oneself as a teacher and the classroom environment In addition this book describes how the Wordsmith Tools Program and the Book of Changes can be used as additional approaches to analyzing thought patterns within the diary entries and how these also nurture inward contemplations and the intuitive insights that accompany them Thereafter considerations based on the applications of core Daoist principles for classroom pedagogies are filtered through the contemplative lenses of teacher diaries These principles are the unintentional integrity of de the complementary duality of yin yang the cosmic vitality of qi the self so ness of ziran the unforceful spontaneity of wuwei and the unblemished purity of pu This book illustrates through its diary lenses how these six Daoist principles can be nurtured in ways that contribute to a scholarliness that is grounded in an equal appreciation for the logical applications of intelligence along with the uniqueness of intuitive creativity which cannot be explicitly taught but which spontaneously arises from within the deep reservoirs of intuitive wisdom which exist within the true selves of everyone In addition this book shares pearls of Daoist wisdom for teachers from within the poetic chapters of the Laozi as well as within the amusingly enlightening stories in the Zhuangzi and the Liezi such that their ancient teachings can be applied to Daoist inspired pedagogies and nurtured in ways that unite the joyfulness and scholarly efficacy of both teaching and learning It is shown how doing so enhances a sense of awe wonder openness and contemplative oneness within the classroom environment making it a happier more contented and more meaningful place for both teachers and students No One

Like Him John S. Feinberg,2006-04-26 Many contemporary theologians claim that the classical picture of God painted by Augustine and Aquinas is both outmoded and unbiblical But rather than abandoning the traditional view completely John Feinberg seeks a reconstructed model one that reflects the ongoing advances in human understanding of God s revelation while recognizing the unchanging nature of God and His Word Feinberg begins by exploring the contemporary concepts of God particularly the openness and process views and then studies God s being nature and acts all to articulate a mediating understanding of God not just as the King but the King who cares Part of the Foundations of Evangelical Theology series

Ordinary Mind as the Way Mario Poceski,2007-04-13 Under the leadership of Mazu Daoyi 709 788 and his numerous disciples the Hongzhou School emerged as the dominant tradition of Chan Zen Buddhism in China during the middle part of the Tang dynasty 618 907 Mario Poceski offers a systematic examination of the Hongzhou School s momentous growth and rise to preeminence as the bearer of Chan orthodoxy and analyzes its doctrines against the backdrop of the intellectual and religious milieus of Tang China Poceski demonstrates that the Hongzhou School represented the first emergence of an empire wide Chan tradition that had strongholds throughout China and replaced the various fragmented Schools of early Chan with an inclusive orthodoxy Poceski s study is based on the earliest strata of permanent sources rather than on the later apocryphal encounter dialogue stories regularly used to construe widely accepted but historically unwarranted interpretations about the nature of Chan in the Tang dynasty He challenges the traditional and popularly accepted view of the Hongzhou School as a revolutionary movement that rejected mainstream mores and teachings charting a new path for Chan s independent growth as a unique Buddhist tradition This view he argues rests on a misreading of key elements of the Hongzhou School s history Rather than acting as an unorthodox movement the Hongzhou School s success was actually based largely on its ability to mediate tensions between traditionalist and iconoclastic tendencies Going beyond conventional romanticized interpretations that highlight the radical character of the Hongzhou School Poceski shows that there was much greater continuity between early and classical Chan and between the Hongzhou School and the rest of Tang Buddhism than previously thought The Routledge Companion to Virtue Ethics Lorraine Besser,Michael Slote,2015-02-20 Virtue ethics is on the move both in Anglo American philosophy and in the rest of the world This volume uniquely emphasizes non Western varieties of virtue ethics at the same time that it includes work in the many different fields or areas of philosophy where virtue ethics has recently spread its wings Just as significantly several chapters make comparisons between virtue ethics and other ways of approaching ethics or political philosophy or show how virtue ethics can be applied to real world problems Novel Minds R. Tierney-Hynes,2015-12-11 Eighteenth century philosophy owes much to the early novel Using the figure of the romance reader this book tells a new story of eighteenth century reading The impressionable mind and mutable identity of the romance reader haunt eighteenth century definitions of the self and the seductions of fiction insist on making an appearance in philosophy Reason and Morality Joanna Overing, 2003-12-16 First Published in 1985 What is the place of reason and conversely of the unreasonable the contradictory the emotional and the chaotic in social life What is the nature of general human rationality Are there such things as incommensurable world views How efficacious are typologies or modes of thought or cognitive styles These are some of the controversies addressed by the contributors to this volume which draws together papers from the 1984 Malinowski Centennial Conference of the ASA The Iconic Imagination Douglas Hedley, 2016-02-25 Is it merely an accident of English etymology that imagination is cognate with image Despite the iconoclasm shared to a greater or lesser extent by all Abrahamic faiths theism tends to assert a link between beauty goodness and truth all of which are viewed as Divine attributes Douglas Hedley argues that religious ideas can be presented in a sensory form especially in aesthetic works Drawing explicitly on a Platonic metaphysics of the image as a bearer of transcendence The Iconic Imagination shows the singular capacity and power of images to represent the transcendent in the traditions of Christianity Judaism Hinduism and Islam In opposition to cold abstraction and narrow asceticism Hedley shows that the image furnishes a vision of the eternal through the visible and temporal The Three Genres and the Interpretation of Lyric William Elford Rogers, 2014-07-14 William Elford Rogers proposes a genre theory that will clarify what we mean when we speak of literary works as dramatic epic or lyric Focusing on lyric poetry this book maintains that the broad genre concepts need not be discarded but can be preserved by a new interpretive model that gives us conceptual knowledge not about works but about interpretation Originally published in 1983 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 A Companion to the Anthropology of Religion Janice Boddy, Michael Lambek, 2015-12-14 A Companion to the Anthropology of Religion presents a collection of original ethnographically informed essays that explore the variety of beliefs practices and religious experiences in the contemporary world and asks how to think about religion as a subject of anthropological inquiry Presents a collection of original ethnographically informed essays exploring the wide variety of beliefs practices and religious experiences in the contemporary world Explores a broad range of topics including the perspectivism debate the rise of religious nationalism reflections on religion and new media religion and politics and ideas of self and gender in relation to religious belief Includes examples drawn from different religious traditions and from several regions of the world Features newly commissioned articles reflecting the most up to date research and critical thinking in the field written by an international team of leading scholars Adds immeasurably to our understanding of the complex relationships between religion culture society and the individual in today s world Theological Works: The true Christian religion Emanuel Swedenborg,1907 pt. 1-2. Upasama Khanda and Nirvána Khanda ,1898 Feminist Metaphysics Charlotte Witt,2010-11-25 The present volume is an exciting new collection of original essays by outstanding feminist theorists including Sally Haslanger Marilyn Frye and Linda Alcoff Feminist Metaphysics is the first collection of articles addressing metaphysical issues from a feminist perspective The essays cover central feminist topics including the ontology of sex and gender persons identity and subjectivity and the relations among experience ideology and reality Many of the papers combine cutting edge feminist theory with contemporary metaphysics and the philosophy of language The volume is also distinctive in including articles representing both analytic and continental perspectives on metaphysics The essays are philosophically sophisticated and are primarily intended for a professional audience of philosophers and feminist theorists

American Renaissance F. O. Matthiessen,1968-12-31 This book is a facsimile reprint and may contain imperfections such as marks notations marginalia and flawed pages Meditation and Culture Halvor Eifring,2015-09-24 Behind the stereotype of a solitary meditator closing his eyes to the world meditation always takes place in close interaction with the surrounding culture Meditation and Culture The Interplay of Practice and Context explores cases in which the relation between meditative practice and cultural context is particularly complex The internationally renowned contributors discuss practices that travel from one culture to another or are surrounded by competing cultures They explore cultures that bring together competing practices or that are themselves mosaics of elements of different origins They seek to answer the question What is the relationship between meditation and culture The effects of meditation may arise from its symbolic value within larger webs of cultural meaning as in the contextual view that still dominates cultural and religious studies They may also be psychobiological responses to the practice itself the cultural context merely acting as a catalyst for processes originating in the body and mind of the practitioner Meditation and Culture gives no single definitive explanation but taken together the different viewpoints presented point to the complexity of the relationship Moral Vision and Tradition Antonio S. Cua,2018-03-02 This volume offers a comprehensive philosophical study of Confucian ethics its basic insights and its relevance to contemporary Western moral philosophy Distinguished writer and philosopher A S Cua presents fourteen essays which deal with various probl Conquest of Body Polona Tratnik,2017-05-26 This book reflects on the phenomenon of biotechnology and how it affects the body and discusses a number of related issues including visualization mediation and epistemology The author offers a compelling thesis arguing that the exploration of the human body has one ultimate aim to gain knowledge of it and to conquer it Exploration of body has an intrinsic link to power since knowledge is constitutive for the power over the body Ultimately the conquest of body means the power to intervene into life processes The book breaks new ground with its study of body visualizations from the Renaissance drawings to the medical imaging In particular it investigates their complex mediality It also considers the extension and the reach of biopower that is now possible thanks to a wide range of engineering applications The author originally questions the research approach by rethinking the relationship between mental and sensual examination She takes into consideration the epistemological problem of the two modes of exploration obtaining knowledge from empirical exploration and projecting that knowledge to the object of exploration Poet in Place and Time Mary Paniccia Carden,Jane Falk,2024-05-15 Poet in Place and Time Critical Essays on Joanne Kyger addresses the work of poet Joanne Kyger from a variety of approaches from her first book The Tapestry and the Web 1965 to her last major work On Time 2015 situating her within various movements of 20th century American poetry

Readings in Later Chinese Philosophy Justin Tiwald,Bryan W. Van Norden,2014-09-03 An exceptional contribution to the teaching and study of Chinese thought this anthology provides fifty eight selections arranged chronologically in five main sections Han Thought Chinese Buddhism Neo Confucianism Late Imperial Confucianism and the Twentieth Century The editors have selected writings that have been influential that are philosophically engaging and that can be understood as elements of an ongoing dialogue particularly on issues regarding ethical cultivation human nature virtue government and the underlying structure of the universe Within those topics issues of contemporary interest such as Chinese ideas about gender and the experiences of women are brought to light Introductions to each main section provide an overview of the period while brief headnotes to selections highlight key points The translations are the works of many distinguished scholars and were chosen for their accuracy and accessibility especially for students general readers and scholars who do not read Chinese Special effort has been made to maintain consistency of key terms across translations Also included are a glossary bibliography index of names and an index locorum of The Four Books Mind Is Flat Nick Chater,2018-08-07 In a radical reinterpretation of how the mind works an eminent behavioral scientist reveals the illusion of mental depth Psychologists and neuroscientists struggle with how best to interpret human motivation and decision making The assumption is that below a mental surface of conscious awareness lies a deep and complex set of inner beliefs values and desires that govern our thoughts ideas and actions and that to know this depth is to know ourselves In this profoundly original book behavioral scientist Nick Chater contends just the opposite rather than being the plaything of unconscious currents the brain generates behaviors in the moment based entirely on our past experiences Engaging the reader with eye opening experiments and visual examples the author first demolishes our intuitive sense of how our mind works then argues for a positive interpretation of the brain as a ceaseless and creative improviser
