Mind Over Media Essays On Film And Television:

Mind Over Media Jennifer Stone, 1988 Essays on film and television by noted Berkeley California writer and radio personality Jennifer Stone Second Takes Andrew Repasky McElhinney, 2013-11-05 Second Takes presents the history of English language cinema by focusing on cinematic remakes and on how cinema has been replaced by new forms of media. Remakes with their innate plurality offer the most substance for concentrated cultural analysis of how movies reflect and shape American culture. Analyzing the archetypes that recur in this culture reveals how movies are an increasingly dangerous surrogate for the actual. Close readings are presented of such works as popular favorites as Cronenberg's Crash, Disney's The Parent Trap, Ferrara's Bad Lieutenant, Hitchcock's Psycho, Kubrick's A Clockwork Orange, Lynch's Twin Peaks, the film and Welles' The Magnificent Ambersons, while unearthing pictures ripe for rediscovery such as One More Tomorrow, Strange Illusion, and Andy Warhol's Vinyl. Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here.

Mind Over Media Mark Von Wodtke, 1993 Bonnie Sherr Klein's 'Not a Love Story' Rebecca Sullivan, 2014-08-14 Bonnie Sherr Klein's Not a Love Story provocatively examines the first Canadian film to explore pornography's role in society from a feminist perspective. Directed by Bonnie Sherr Klein for Studio D, the National Film Board's women's unit, the film featured both Klein and Lindalee Tracey, an activist performance artist and stripper, as they toured the seamier fringes of pornography and sex work in Montreal, Toronto, New York, and San Francisco. Censored in Ontario upon its release in 1981, Not a Love Story collided with the escalating Porn Wars that contributed to the tearing apart of the second wave feminist movement. Using interviews with members of the crew and extensive archival research into the production process, Rebecca Sullivan delves into the creation and reception of Not a Love Story to explore the issues of censorship, sexual labour, and performance and documentary practice that the film raised. An insightful analysis not just of the film itself but of the issues which surround feminist analyses of pornography as a genre, Bonnie Sherr Klein's Not a Love Story offers a fresh assessment of Canada's women's movement and the politics of feminist filmmaking during a volatile era. Onthebus, 1989 African American Women and Sexuality in the Cinema Norma Manatu, 2014-01-10 The representation of African American women is an important issue in the overall study of how women are portrayed in film and has received serious attention in recent years. Traditionally, women of color, particularly African American women, have been at the margins of studies of women's on-screen depictions or excluded altogether. This work focuses exclusively on the sexual objectification of African American women in film from the 1980s to the early 2000s. Critics of the negative sexual imagery have long speculated that control by African American filmmakers would change how African American women are depicted. This work examines sixteen films made by males, both white and black, to see how the imagery might change with the race of the filmmaker. Four dimensions are given special attention: the diversity of the women's roles and relationships with men; the sexual attitudes of the African American female characters; their attitudes towards men; and their nonverbal and verbal sexual behaviors. This work also examines the role culture has played in perpetuating the images how film influences viewers perception of African American women and their sexuality and how the imagery polarizes women by functioning as a regulator of their sexual behaviors based on cultural definitions of the feminine Contemporary Authors Autobiography Lyn Andrews,1998-07-31 Each volume presents about 20 autobiographical essays written exclusively for the series allowing your students to approach each author s life from a highly personal vantage point A unique resource for studies on the memoir each essay is illustrated with photographs supplied by the author and followed with a complete bibliographic listing of works Every volume also provides a cumulative subject index to the more than 450 entrants in the series thus far Recently featured authors include Rita Dove Sandra McPherson Elie Wiesel and many others The Female Teacher on Television Andrew L. Grunzke,Rebecca Z.

Grunzke,2025-06-12 This edited volume examines the ways in which the representation of female teachers on television has developed from the advent of the medium up to the present day Despite the widely feminized nature of the teaching profession the first depictions of female teachers on television did not occur until over a century later Contributors analyze a variety of programs spanning time periods audiences and genre to provide insight into the past present and future trajectory of increasingly multidimensional portrayals of female teachers Scholars of television media gender women s and cultural studies will find this book of particular interest Who's who in U.S. Writers, Editors & Poets ,1992 Sequoia ,1991 teachers and teaching are easy to take for granted precisely because they are so accessible and pervasive Our lives are intertextual in the way lived experiences overlap with the stories of others presented to us through mass media It is this set of connected narratives that we bring into classrooms and into discussions of educational policy In this day and time with public education under siege by forces eager to deprofessionalize teaching and transfer public funds to benefit private enterprises we ignore the dominant discourse about education and the patterns of representation that typify educator characters at our peril This edited volume offers a fresh take on educator characters in popular culture and also includes important essays about media texts that have not been addressed adequately in the literature previously The 15 chapters cover diverse forms from literary classics to iconic teacher movies to popular television to rock n roll Topics explored include pedagogy through the lenses of gender sexuality race disability politics narrative archetypes curriculum teaching strategies and liberatory praxis The various perspectives represented in this volume come from scholars and practitioners of education at all levels of schooling This book is especially timely in an era when public education in the United States is under assault from conservative political forces and undervalued by the general public Contributors are Steve Benton Naeemah Clark Kristy Liles Crawley Elizabeth Currin Mary M Dalton Jill Ewing Flynn Chad E Harris Gary Kenton Mark A Lewis Ian Parker Renga Stephanie Schroeder Roslin Smith Jeff Spanke and Andrew Wirth
