Living More Human(e)ly? Rebecca Leong, 2025-04-22 Does it really matter who one chooses to marry and how one makes a choice as to who to marry or is it basically true that you always marry the wrong person Was Jane Austen right in her portrayals of couples marrying for love for comfort or for both What about arranged marriages Does the one exist How about soulmates Will getting involved in casual sex or hook up culture affect one's chances of eventually realizing happy lifelong monogamy Are promoters of purity culture basically right that their approach will help lead to happy lasting marriages Can there be a way forward through the culture wars Are dating apps any good Virtue ethics is sometimes drawn upon for a dependable approach to couple relationships But what does this approach consist of and which virtues as there are potentially very many should one focus on particularly when navigating dating culture in contemporary contexts What light might theology history and the human sciences including sociology and psychology shed on these matters Rebecca Leong offers findings from wide ranging interdisciplinary studies that address these questions and more in the process developing a five fold ethic and further building blocks for better approaches to dating in contemporary contexts

Women Shaping Theology Mary Ann Hinsdale, 2006 In the 2004 Madeleva Lecture Mary Ann Hinsdale uses the lens of her own life experience to tell the story of how visionary and prophetic women set in motion the important institutional structures that have allowed women to shape Catholic theology in North America over the past fifty years She pays particular attention to issues and problems facing women theologians in the Catholic Church today such as the implications of the changing demographics of women theologians women's impact on the theological establishment the reception of feminism and feminist theology by the hierarchy and the unmet intercultural challenges posed by those on the margins as well as women theologians response to them Coming at the beginning of a new papacy Hinsdale's compelling narrative is especially timely for a consideration of the future of women in the Catholic Church
