Popular Art in Afghanistan Micheline Centlivres-Dumont, 1976 Popular art in Afghanistan: paintings on trucks, mosques and tea-houses Micheline Centlivres-Dumont, 1976 Grove Encyclopedia of Islamic Art & Architecture: Three-Volume Set Jonathan Bloom, Sheila Blair, 2009-05-14 The Grove Encyclopedia of Islamic Art and Architecture deals with all aspects of Islamic art and architecture ranging from the Middle East to Central Asia to Southeast Asia and Africa. The volumes cover all subject areas in Islamic art including artists, rulers, writers, architecture, ceramics, sculpture, metalwork, painting, calligraphy, textiles, and more. The Grove Encyclopedia of Islamic Art and Architecture provides unparalleled scope and depth on this rapidly growing area of interest. It offers fully updated articles and bibliography as well as more than 500 plans, maps, diagrams, illustrations, and colour plates. Similar in scope and design to The Grove Encyclopedia of Decorative Arts, this three volume reference work contains articles of various lengths in alphabetical order. The shorter, more factual articles, none shorter than 50 words, are combined with larger multi-section articles tracing the development of the art forms in various geographical locations.

South Asian Folklore Peter Claus, Sarah Diamond, Margaret Mills, 2020-10-28 With 600 signed, alphabetically organized articles covering the entirety of folklore in South Asia, this new resource includes countries and regions, ethnic groups, religious concepts and practices, artistic genres, holidays and traditions, and many other concepts. A preface introduces the material while a comprehensive index, cross references, and black and white illustrations round out the work. The focus on south Asia includes Afghanistan, Bangladesh, India, Pakistan, and Sri Lanka, with short survey articles on Tibet, Bhutan, Sikkim, and various diaspora communities. This unique reference will be invaluable for collections serving students, scholars, and the general public.

Culture and Customs of Afghanistan Hafizullah Emadi, 2005-06-30 Afghanistan has been at the crossroads of many cultures and civilizations, occupying a unique place in the cultural geography of Central Asia. Invading tribes and armies passed through ancient Afghanistan and left their imprint on the culture, customs, and way of life there. In recent history, Afghanistan has been the focus of international attention since the Soviet invasion and occupation of 1979–1989, the brutal civil war that ensued, and the subsequent U.S. invasion to topple the Taliban regime. As the country struggles to stabilize and rebuild, this volume is the first to reveal the people and ways of life that have been in flux for so long. Emadi brings an insider's knowledge and authority to the accessible narrative. Students and general readers will find a clear explanation of the land, people, economy, social stratification, and history as context for the chapters that follow. In the chapter on Religion and Religious Thought, the predominant Islamic religion is largely intertwined with political events that have brought Afghanistan such attention. The lesser known literature and the arts are brought to light next. A strong Architecture, Housing, and Settlements chapter highlights many styles unfamiliar to most Westerners. Coverage of Afghan cooking and cuisine brings a more intimate understanding of the culture. The chapter on Family, Women, and Gender will draw readers in with its survey of how the family works, what is expected of women, and what courtship, marriage, childrearing, and education are like today A standout of the Festivals and Leisure Activities chapter is the vivid rendering of the sport called Buzkashi where men on horseback vie to move an animal carcass across a field to a goal A final chapter on Lifestyles Media and Education describes the urban vs rural lifestyles the state of communications and the prospects for schooling post Taliban A country map glossary resource guide and photos complement the text Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World (2 vols.) Susan Sinclair,2012-04-03 Following the tradition and style of the acclaimed Index Islamicus the editors have created this new Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World The editors have surveyed and annotated a wide range of books and articles from collected volumes and journals published in all European languages except Turkish between 1906 and 2011 This comprehensive bibliography is an indispensable tool for everyone involved in the study of material culture in Muslim societies A Bibliography Of Afghanistan K. S. McLachlan,2019-09-11 This up to date comprehensive thematically indexed bibliography devoted to Afghanistan now and yesterday will help readers to efficiently find their way in the massive secondary literature available Following the pattern established by one of its major data sources viz the acclaimed Index Islamicus both journal articles and book publications are included and expertly indexed An indispensable entry for all those taking professional or personal interest in a nation so much the focus of attention today
