

A photograph of a modern architectural courtyard. On the left, a series of white, square columns recede into the distance, creating a strong sense of perspective. The floor is made of large, light-colored stone tiles. In the background, a building with large, rectangular windows is visible. The sky is a clear, pale blue. The overall aesthetic is clean and minimalist.

Porphyrios Associates Recent Work A New Architecture Monograph:

Porphyrios Associates Demetri Porphyrios, 2016-10-11 A celebration of new traditional buildings by a renowned classicist In this monograph the firm's recent work is showcased highlighting new residential cultural academic and religious projects Throughout the work what stands out is the architectural virtuosity that marries the very best of classical architecture and modern design The Architecture of James Stirling and His Partners James Gowan and Michael Wilford Geoffrey Howard Baker, 2011 Sir James Stirling was one of the greatest British architects of the twentieth century This book provides a comprehensive critical survey of Stirling's work charting the development of his ideas over four turbulent architectural decades Using archival material analytical examination of key buildings and extensive interviews with Stirling's partners the book sheds new light on Stirling's philosophy working method and design strategy and the atelier structure of his office Thomas Gordon Smith and the Rebirth of Classical Architecture Richard John, 2001 For the past two decades

Thomas Gordon Smith has played a central role in the revival of classicism in contemporary architecture in America His conviction in the enduring relevance of this tradition to contemporary life has resulted in buildings which in terms of materials and function are just as much a product of the modern world as a high tech office building but in addition to admirably fulfilling the job for which they were intended they also have the rare quality of engaging us intellectually This extensively illustrated monograph presents Thomas Gordon Smith's buildings and projects for the first time A biographical essay explores the polymathic range of his other activities including his influential role as an educator commentator on Vitruvius historian of the Greek Revival painter of frescoes and designer and collector of furniture Porphyrios

Associates Recent Work Paolo Portoghesi, 1999 Demetri Porphyrios is an international architect based in London equally well known for his urban design buildings and writings The work presented here all completed within the past five years ranges from urban projects to office institutional and college buildings and includes an extension to the old town of Spetses in Greece a hotel resort in Mount Sinai office buildings in Birmingham U K and new college buildings at Magdalen College Oxford and Selwyn College Cambridge All Porphyrios's work is characterized by an unerring instinct for appropriate materials generally indigenous and natural harmonious proportions and contextual sensitivity The Roman Forum David Watkin, 2012-06-01 One of the most visited sites in Italy the Roman Forum is also one of the best known wonders of the Roman world Watkin examines the roles of the ancient remains while revealing what the standing structures embody including the medieval Renaissance and Baroque churches as well as the nearby monuments that have important histories of their own Subject Guide to Books in Print, 1997 Demetri Porphyrios Demetri Porphyrios, 1992-12-15 Demetri Porphyrios work as an architect is closely related to his ideas as a theorist He believes that architecture must be firmly grounded once again in technology and the craft of building and in the principle of firmness commodity and delight The projects assembled in this volume range from his early didactic pavilions and houses to the more recent urban projects and large scale buildings such as the Belvedere Village the Patermost Offices and new Quadrangle at Magdalen College Oxford
