Ads, Fads, and Consumer Culture Arthur Asa

Berger, 2011-04-16 Now in its fourth edition Ads Fads and Consumer Culture deals with the impact of advertising upon American character and culture. It offers a definition of advertising, explains the way advertising agencies work, discusses the functions of advertising and provides a psycho-cultural perspective on advertising. Among the topics it deals with are the role of brands in selling products and the problem of self-alienation and its relation to consumption. It also analyzes consumer cultures, places advertising in the communication process and considers the use of sexuality in advertising, political advertising and marketing theory. The marketing discussion deals with the Values and Lifestyle Typology VALS and the Claritas typology. The chapters analyzing print advertisements and television commercials are distinctive features of the book. For print advertising it provides a list of topics to consider in analyzing print advertising and then provides a detailed analysis of a fascinating Fido perfume advertisement that shows a Polynesian woman with a snake around her neck. It provides a semiotic, psychoanalytic, sociological, Marxist, mythic and Feminist analysis of this advertisement. For television commercials it analyzes the famous Macintosh 1984 commercials in a number of different ways as well. In the last chapter it speculates about the role of advertising in selling drugs to people, children and advertising and the problems advertising agencies have in getting people's attention. It also offers a glossary to terms used in the book and an annotated bibliography.

A Fallen Idol Is Still a God Elizabeth Allen, 2006-10-26 A Fallen Idol Is Still a God elucidates the historical distinctiveness and significance of the seminal nineteenth-century Russian poet, playwright and novelist Mikhail Iurevich Lermontov 1814-1841. It does so by demonstrating that Lermontov's works illustrate the condition of living in an epoch of transition. Lermontov's particular epoch was that of post-Romanticism, a time when the twilight of Romanticism was dimming but the dawn of Realism had yet to appear. Through close and comparative readings, the book explores the singular metaphysical, psychological, ethical and aesthetic ambiguities and ambivalences that mark Lermontov's works and tellingly reflect the transition out of Romanticism and the nature of post-Romanticism. Overall, the book reveals that although confined to his transitional epoch, Lermontov did not succumb to it; instead, he probed its character and evoked its historical import. And the book concludes that Lermontov's works have resonance for our transitional era in the early twenty-first century as well.

Subjectivities, Identities, and Education after Neoliberalism Abraham P. DeLeon, 2019-03-21 In this book DeLeon presents a critique of neoliberalism and present times through a metaphor of social collapse and considers what remains once the dust has settled for a different kind of person to emerge. Engaging a variety of social, political and educational theories along with pop culture and literature, DeLeon positions humanity at the edges of collapse and what will emerge after the fall. Engaging academic and fictional alternatives, he imagines future possibilities through a new kind of person that rises from the rubble. Questioning the foundations of empiricism, standardization and reproducible results that reject new forms of social and political projects from materializing, DeLeon discusses the potentials of the imagination and the ways in which it can produce alternative possibilities for our collective future when unleashed and combined with fictional narratives. Moving across multiple intellectual philosophical artistic and historical traditions he constructs a radical interdisciplinary vision that challenges us to think about transforming our collective future s one in which we construct a new kind of person ready to tackle the challenges of a potentially liberatory future and what this might entail      Strategic Design Thinking Natalie W. Nixon,2015-10-22 Who can design For too long that question has highlighted the supposed division between right brain dominant creative types and left brain dominant analytical types Such a division is not practical for preparing students to become innovative contributors to the complex world of design Strategic Design Thinking guides readers to cultivate hybrid thinking whether their background is design finance or any discipline in between This book is an introduction to an integrative approach using the lens of design thinking as a way to see the world The focus is on process instead of solution and on connecting disparate ideas instead of getting bogged down by silos of specialization Through this book students will be introduced to design management strategic design service design and experience design      Marketing and American Consumer Culture Arthur Asa Berger,2016-12-15 This book offers a cultural studies approach to marketing and advertising and shows readers how scholars from different academic disciplines make sense of marketing s role in American culture and society It is written in an accessible style and has numerous drawings by the author to give it more visual interest

Disability and Social Movements Rachel Carling-Jenkins,2016-05-23 This book provides the reader with a ground breaking understanding of disability and social movements By describing how disability is philosophically historically and theoretically positioned Carling Jenkins is able to then examine disability relationally through an evaluation of the contributions of groups engaged in similar human rights struggles The book locates disability rights as a new social movement and provides an explanation for why disability has been divided rather than united in Australia Finally it investigates whether the recent campaign to implement a national disability insurance scheme represents a re emergence of the movement It will be of interest to all scholars and students of both disability studies and social movements      Pamuk's Istanbul Pallavi Narayan,2022-04-28 This book reconstructs Istanbul through the prism of Orhan Pamuk s fiction It navigates the multiple selves and layers of Istanbul to present how the city has shaped the writings of Pamuk and has in turn been shaped by it Through everyday objects and architecture it shows how Pamuk transforms the city into a living museum where different objects converse along with characters to present a rich tapestry across space and time Further the monograph explores the formation of communal and literary identity within and around nation building narratives informed by capitalism and modernization The book also examines how Pamuk uses the postmodern city to move beyond its postmodern confines and utilizes the theories and universes of Bakhtin Benjamin and Foucault to open up his fiction and radically challenge the idea of the novel The volume will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of literature literary theory museum studies architecture and cultural studies and especially appeal to readers of Orhan Pamuk      Finding Kluska Jennifer Reid,2015-09-30 The Mi kmaq of eastern Canada were among the first indigenous North Americans to encounter colonial Europeans As early as the mid sixteenth century they were trading with French fishers and by the mid seventeenth century large numbers of Mi kmaq had converted to Catholicism Mi kmaw Catholicism is perhaps best exemplified by the community's regard for the figure of Saint Anne the grandmother of Jesus Every year for a week coinciding with the saint's feast day of July 26 Mi kmaw peoples from communities throughout Quebec and eastern Canada gather on the small island of Potlotek off the coast of Nova Scotia It is however far from a conventional Catholic celebration In fact it expresses a complex relationship between the Mi kmaq Saint Anne a series of eighteenth century treaties and a cultural hero named Kluskap Finding Kluskap brings together years of historical research and learning among Mi kmaw peoples on Cape Breton Island Nova Scotia The author's long term relationship with Mi kmaw friends and colleagues provides a unique vantage point for scholarship one shaped not only by personal relationships but also by the cultural intellectual and historical situations that inform postcolonial peoples The picture that emerges when Saint Anne Kluskap and the mission are considered in concert with one another is one of the sacred life as a site of adjudication for both the meaning and efficacy of religion and the impact of modern history on contemporary indigenous religion

The Community of the Weak Hans-Peter Geiser, 2013-03-28 Social postmodernism and systematic theology can be considered the new pair in some of the most creative discussions on the future of theological method on a global scale Both in the academy and in the public square as well as in the manifold local and pastoral moments of ministry and community social activism the social the postmodern and the theological intermingle in engaging and border crossing ways The Community of the Weak presents a new kind of jazzy fundamental theology with a postmodern touch using jazz as a metaphor writing ethnographically messy texts out of the personal windows of lived experiences combining fragments of autobiography with theological reconstruction A comparative perspective on North American and European developments in contemporary systematic theology serves as a hermeneutical horizon to juxtapose two continents in their very different contexts The author proposes a systematic and fundamental theology that is more jazzy global and narrative deeply embedded in pastoral ministry to tell its postmodern story Nietzsche as Postmodernist Clayton Koelb,1990-09-11 The contributors discuss the current debate about what philosophy is how it works and how Nietzsche's thought clarifies or complicates its understanding They represent a wide range of views and practices some aggressively postmodern in their approach some profoundly skeptical about postmodernism Although the issue of postmodernism is the central focus the essays also touch on many other areas of interest to readers of Nietzsche Cultural Studies Theorists on Power, Psyche and Society Arthur Asa Berger,2022-10-17 This book offers a cultural studies analysis of politics in the broadest understanding of the term dealing with the ideas of more than 50 thinkers from Aristotle to Pierre Bourdieu It argues that power manifests itself in all human relationships and is not confined to governmental matters It considers topics such as ideas people have about raising children imprinting children with culture specific beliefs and the importance of place belief systems codes of behavior cultural imperatives certain historical figures and historical periods among others Cultural Perspectives on Millennials Arthur Asa Berger,2017-11-07 This book provides a cultural studies analysis of Millennials and their impact on American culture and society Beginning with an introduction that touches upon which part of the population is described as Millennial the book also explores the Millennial psyche marketing to Millennials Millennials purchasing preferences gender and sexuality among Millennials and Millennials and their relation to postmodernism among other things Cultural Perspectives on Millennials is designed for students taking courses in cultural studies sociology American studies and related fields It is written in an accessible style and makes use of numerous quotations from writers and thinkers who have written about Millennials It is illustrated by the author Criminological Theory Werner J. language of instruction and a state in which English is entirely dominant to examine the multiple and often contradictory natures forces and manifestations of language ideologies The book is a practical useful way of seriously engaging with alternative ways of thinking doing and learning academic English literacies Translingualism work has concentrated on critiquing monolingual and multilingual notions of language but it is only beginning to examine translingual enactments in writing programs and classrooms Focusing on language representations and practices at both the macro and micro levels author Nancy Bou Ayash places the study and teaching of university level writing in the context of the globalization and pluralization of English es and other languages Individual chapters feature various studies that Bou Ayash brings together to address how students act as agents in marshaling their language practices and resources and shows a deliberate translingual intervention that complicates and enriches students assumptions about language and writing Her findings about writing programs instructors and students are detailed multidimensional and complex A substantial contribution to growing translingual scholarship in the field of composition studies Toward Translingual Realities in Composition offers insights into how writing teacher scholars and writing program administrators can more productively intervene in local postmonolingual tensions and contradictions at the level of language representations and practices through actively and persistently reworking the design and enactment of their curricula pedagogies assessments teacher training programs and campus wide partnerships
