Readers' Guide to Periodical Literature, 1910 Readers' Guide to Periodical Literature Anna Lorraine Guthrie, Bertha Tannehill, Neltje Marie Tannehill Shimer, 1910

Portraits of Medieval Europe, 800-1400 Christian Raffensperger, Erin Thomas Dailey, 2024-03-28 This volume provides a collection of imagined lives individuals who no matter their position on the social hierarchy were crucial to the development of medieval Europe and the modern period that followed Based on primary source materials and the latest historical research these literary accounts of otherwise unsourced or under sourced individuals are written by leading scholars in the field The book's approach transcends the limitations of both historical narrative and literary fiction offering a research informed presentation of real people that is enriched by informed speculation and creative storytelling This enriched presentation of the lives of these individuals offers the quickest route to understanding medieval culture society and intellectual thought Crucially the book treats the whole of Europe broadly defined both conventional areas of study such as England and France and also lesser studied but no less important areas such as eastern Europe Iberia and the Balkans The reader of Portraits of Medieval Europe encounters the diversity present in the European past the resulting portraits unique personal and engaging offer not only a wide geographical scope but also perspective on the formation of European society in its fullest form This book is accessible and engaging for students new to medieval history as well as those wishing to expand their knowledge of medieval society

Empire's Wake Mark Quigley, 2012-12-10 Shedding new light on the rich intellectual and political milieux shaping the divergent legacies of Joyce and Yeats Empire's Wake traces how a distinct postcolonial modernism emerged within Irish literature in the late 1920s to contest and extend key aspects of modernist thought and aesthetic innovation at the very moment that the high modernist literary canon was consolidating its influence and prestige By framing its explorations of postcolonial narrative form against the backdrop of distinct historical moments from the Irish Free State to the Celtic Tiger era the book charts the different phases of 20th century postcoloniality in ways that clarify how the comparatively early emergence of the postcolonial in Ireland illuminates the formal shifts accompanying the transition from an age of empire to one of globalization Bringing together new perspectives on Beckett and Joyce with analyses of the critically neglected works of Sean O Faol in Frank McCourt and the Blasket autobiographers Empire's Wake challenges the notion of a singular global modernism and argues for the importance of critically integrating the local and the international dimensions of modernist aesthetics
