French Feminism Reader Kelly Oliver, 2000-05-10 French Feminism Reader is a collection of essays representing the authors and issues from French theory most influential in the American context The book is designed for use in courses and it includes illuminating introductions to the work of each author These introductions include biographical information influences and intellectual context major themes in the author's work as a whole and specific introductions to the selections in this volume The contributors represent the two trends in French theory that have proven most useful to American feminists social theory and psychoanalytic theory Both of these trends move away from any traditional discussions of nature toward discussions of socially constructed notions of sex sexuality and gender roles While feminists interested in social theory focus on the ways in which social institutions shape these notions feminists interested in psychoanalytic theory focus on cultural representations of sex sexuality and gender roles and the ways that they affect the psyche This collection includes selections by Simone de Beauvoir Christine Delphy Colette Guillaumin Monique Wittig Michele Le Doeuff Julia Kristeva Luce Irigaray and Helene Cixous

Knowing and Not Knowing Claudia Lapping, Tamara Bibby, 2018-02-02 The social world is saturated with powerful formations of knowledge that colonise individual and institutional identities Some knowledge emerges as legitimised and authoritative other knowledge is resisted or repressed Psychosocial approaches highlight the unstable basis of knowledge learning and research of knowing and not knowing How do we come to formulate knowledge in the ways that we do Are there other possible ways of knowing that are too difficult or unsettling for us to begin to explore Do we need the authority of legitimised institutions and regularized methods to build secure knowledge What might it mean to build insecure edifices of knowledge How might we trouble notions of knowledge in processes of teaching learning and research This collection addresses these questions drawing on a range of psychoanalytic and social theory from Bion Freud and Lacan to Derrida Kristeva and Žižek Showcasing work from North America Europe and Japan contributors explore writing as a practice that can stabilise or unsettle subjectivities the unconscious relations between school practices subjectivities educational spaces and ideologies implications of the productive energies and the deadening inwardness associated with mourning and melancholia for formal and informal learning and the authority we invest in apparently rigid or ephemeral institutional spaces Strongly empirical as well as theoretical in approach this collection will be of interest to students and academics seeking ways to resist normative orders of legitimacy and coherence in education and research This book was originally published as a special issue of Pedagogy Culture Society The Stranger's Voice Carol L. Schnabl Schweitzer,2010 especially those who have sensed that the denial of the mother's voice has played a critical role in their own self alienation and its melancholy moods will discover that this book has much to offer them as well Donald Capps Princeton Theological Seminary Book Jacket Theory for Classics Louise Hitchcock,2008-01-10 This student's guide is a clear and concise handbook to the key connections between Classical Studies and critical theory in the twentieth century Louise Hitchcock looks at the way Classics has been engaged across a number of disciplines Beginning with four foundational figures Freud Marx Nietzsche and Saussure Hitchcock goes on to provide guided introductions of the major theoretical thinkers of the past century from Adorno to Williams Each entry offers biographical theoretical and bibliographical information along with a discussion of each figure's relevance to Classical Studies and suggestions for future research Theory for Classics adapted from Theory for Religious Studies by William E Deal and Timothy K Beal is a brisk thoughtful provocative and engaging title which will be an essential first volume for anyone interested in the intersection between theory and classical studies today Feminism Beyond Modernism Elizabeth A. Flynn,2002 Stuckness in the Fiction of Mervyn Peake Alice Mills,2005-01-01 Mervyn Peake has been acclaimed as an author of fantasy and as an illustrator but as yet has received little attention from literary critics This book is the first to analyse all of Peake's works of fiction including his two picture story books and novella as well as the Gormenghast series and Mr Pye Alice Mills pinpoints the fictional quirks that render Mervyn Peake such a memorable fantasy writer examining his literary works from Jungian Freudian Kristevan and post Jungian perspectives Stuckness in the Fiction of Mervyn Peake will be of interest to fantasy lovers and students of fantasy as a genre as well as those exploring the psychoanalysis of literary texts Sex and Gender in Medieval and Renaissance Texts Barbara K. Gold,Paul Allen Miller,Charles Platter,1997-03-13 This collection reclaims a vast body of long neglected Latin texts from the Middle Ages and the Renaissance and examines how they represent the feminine and the female body The authors explore the ideological values explicitly encoded by the feminine in these texts other less articulated values implied by the feminine and the role of the classical tradition in communicating those values The examination of women both as subjects and as rhetorical constructions in Medieval and Renaissance Latin literature sheds light on the larger dialogue about feminism occurring throughout the humanities In addition the inclusion of a new body of texts and the rescue of others from their present isolation will expand the reach of classical and humanist scholarship Traditional studies of Latin literature end around the beginning of the fifth century C E despite the fact that Latin continued to be the dominant literary and intellectual language until at least the latter half of the sixteenth century Thus most classicists ignore over one thousand years of the Latin literary tradition Few non classicists read Latin comfortably and fewer still have a detailed understanding of the history of classical Latin literature Nevertheless a knowledge of this history was assumed by most Neo Latin writers as well as their contemporaries who wrote in the vernacular This collection supplies tools to examine more completely the construction and application of gender in both Latin and vernacular texts of the Middle Ages and the Renaissance
