Reading Modern Fiction Winifred Lynskey,1962 The Literary News,1883

Reading Frames in Modern Fiction Mary Anne Caws,2014-07-14 Mary Ann Caws presents in detail an important feature of modern literary narrative the setting apart of passages that stand out from the flow of the prose larger than life scenes that seem to hold the essence of the work Originally published in 1985 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

Reading Texts, Reading Lives Daniel Morris,Helen Maxson,2012-06-14 Our culture attempts to separate competing ideological factions by denying relationships between multiple perspectives and influences outside of one s own narrow interpretive community The distinguished essayists in this volume find Daniel R Schwarz s pluralistic self questioning approach to what he calls reading texts and reading lives quite relevant to the current historical moment and political situation A legendary scholar of modernist literature Schwarz s critical principles are a healthy corrective to cultural hubris The essayists treat works ranging from fictions by Joyce Conrad Morrison and Woolf to the poetry of Yeats to Holocaust literature to the environmental writings of Wendell Berry to the photographs of Lee Friedlander The authors focus on different works but they follow Schwarz in stressing formal elements most often associated with traditional realism while keeping an eye on historical and author centered approaches The essayists also follow Schwarz in their emphasis on narrative cohesion and in how they look for signs of agency among characters who possess the will to alter their fate even in a seemingly random universe such as the one depicted by Conrad Readers with eyes to ethics and aesthetics they follow Schwarz in encouraging a values centered approach that leaves room for the reader to address the ways in which reading a text correlates to the reader s ability to find meaning and value in experience outside the text Like Schwarz the essays look for intentionality of authorial meaning rather than something called an author function as well as for the relationship between lived experience and the imagined world of the literary work rather than the endless semiotic play of an ultimately indecipherable text Twentieth Century American Literature Warren French,1980-11-01 Colorado Libraries ,1926

English Journal ,1923 Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1967 Includes Part 1 Number 2 Books and Pamphlets Including Serials and Contributions to Periodicals July December
