From Scratch Tembi Locke, 2020-02-04 Now a limited Netflix series starring Zoe Saldaña This Reese Witherspoon Book Club Pick and New York Times bestseller is a captivating story of love lost and found Kirkus Reviews set in the lush Sicilian countryside where one woman discovers the healing powers of food family and unexpected grace in her darkest hours It was love at first sight when actress Tembi met professional chef Saro on a street in Florence There was just one problem Saro's traditional Sicilian family did not approve of his marrying a black American woman. However, the couple, heartbroken but undeterred, forged on. They built a happy life in Los Angeles with fulfilling careers, deep friendships, and the love of their lives: a baby girl they adopted at birth. Eventually, they reconciled with Saro's family just as he faced a formidable cancer that would consume all their dreams. From Scratch chronicles three summers Tembi spends in Sicily with her daughter Zoela as she begins to piece together a life without her husband in his tiny hometown hamlet of farmers. Where once Tembi was estranged from Saro's family, now she finds solace and nourishment, literally and spiritually, at her mother-in-law's table. In the Sicilian countryside, she discovers the healing gifts of simple, fresh food, the embrace of a close-knit community, and timeless traditions and wisdom that light a path forward. All along the way, she reflects on her and Saro's romance, an incredible love story that leaps off the pages. In Sicily, it is said that every story begins with a marriage or a death. In Tembi Locke's case, it is both. Locke's raw and heartfelt memoir will uplift readers suffering from the loss of their own loved ones. Publishers Weekly but her story is also about love, finding a home, and chasing flavor as an act of remembrance. From Scratch is for anyone who has dared to reach for big love, fought for what mattered most, and those who needed a powerful reminder that life is delicious. MLA International Bibliography of Books and Articles on the Modern Languages and Literatures, 2008

Edinburgh History of Reading Mary Hammond, 2020-04-02. Reveals the experience of reading in many cultures and across the ages. Covers reading practices from China in the 6th century BCE to Britain in the 18th century. Employs a range of methodologies from close textual analysis to quantitative data on book ownership. Examines a wide range of texts and ways of reading them from English poetry and funeral elegies to translated books in Peru. Challenges period-based models of readership history. Early Readers presents a number of innovative ways through which we might capture or infer traces of readers in cultures where most evidence has been lost. It begins by investigating what a close analysis of extant texts from 6th century BCE China can tell us about contemporary reading practices, explores the reading of medieval European women and their male medical practitioner counterparts, traces readers across New Spain, Peru, the Ottoman Empire, and the Iberian world between 1500 and 1800, and ends with an analysis of the surprisingly enduring practice of reading aloud. Children of the Jacaranda Tree Sahar Delijani, 2013-06-18. New York Times bestselling author Khaled Hosseini says, "Set in post-revolutionary Iran, Sahar Delijani's gripping novel is a blistering indictment of tyranny, a poignant tribute to those who bear the scars of it, and a celebration of the human heart's eternal yearning for freedom." Neda is born in Iran's Evin Prison, where her mother is allowed to nurse her for a few months before an anonymous guard appears at the cell door one day and simply takes her away. In another part of the city, three-year-old Omid witnesses the arrests of his political activist parents from his perch at their kitchen table, yogurt dripping from his fingertips. More than twenty years after the violent, bloody purge that took place inside Tehran's prisons, Sheida learns that her father was one of those executed, that the silent void firmly planted between her and her mother all these years was not just the sad loss that comes with death, but the anguish and the horror of murder These are the Children of the Jacaranda Tree Set in post revolutionary Iran from 1983 to 2011 this stunning debut novel follows a group of mothers fathers children and lovers some related by blood others brought together by the tide of history that washes over their lives Finally years later it is the next generation that is left with the burden of the past and their country s tenuous future as a new wave of protest and political strife begins Heartbreakingly heroic Publishers Weekly Children of the Jacaranda Tree is an evocative portrait of three generations of men and women inspired by love and poetry burning with idealism chasing dreams of justice and freedom Written in Sahar Delijani s spellbinding prose capturing the intimate side of revolution in a country where the weight of history is all around it is a moving tribute to anyone who has ever answered its call

Lyrical Iowa ,2004 Middle Eastern Gothics Karen Grumberg,2022-12-15 The chapters in this study cover the four major Middle Eastern languages Arabic Hebrew Persian and Turkish and are authored by experts in these literatures who read and engage with these texts in their original languages Their intimate knowledge of the linguistic and cultural contexts of the works they analyse provides readers access to nuances in the texts and ultimately to a more profound understanding of them This is the first cohesive collection addressing the Gothic in the geographic linguistic context of the Middle East region There has been increased interest not only in global iterations of the Gothic but also in Middle Eastern writing particularly when it intersects with the Gothic i e Frankenstein in Baghdad The Introduction of the volume offers a new theorisation of Gothic literature proposing the transnational region as a frame for reading literary texts that cross national and linguistic boundaries

Affective Worlds John Hughes,2011 Offers an original approach to a number of nineteenth century authors in terms of what are seen as the constitutive affective dynamics of their work The author also draws on themes of ethical subjectivity in the work of Stanley Cavell and Gilles Deleuze to provide essential reading for those involved in nineteenth century literature
