him greater notoriety Hooker's views on justification the perseverance of faith and the relationship of the Church of Rome to the reformed Church of England were widely reported and texts of the tracts were extensively circulated in manuscript. Thanks to the meticulous editing of Laetitia Yeandle Curator of Manuscripts at the Folger Shakespeare Library the contemporary impact of these debates can now be appreciated for the first time. These tracts provide a unique perspective on the turbulent world of late Elizabethan theology. In addition they lay the doctrinal foundations of the Laws of Ecclesiastical Polity itself and with the excellent commentary of Egil Grislis Professor of Theology at the University of Manitoba in Winnipeg enable us to trace the intellectual formation of sixteenth century England's most innovative and provocative theologian. The volume includes a newly discovered letter three newly attributed sermon fragments and analysis by P F Forte of Hooker's distinctive preaching style.

Scribal Habits in Early Greek New Testament Papyri James Ronald Royse, 2008 This book investigates the scribal habits of P45 P46 P47 P66 P72 and P75 the six most extensive early New Testament manuscripts. All the singular readings in these six papyri are studied along with all the corrections.

Lire Les Images, Voir Les Textes Louise Maurer, Roger Hillman, 2006 The essays in this volume are situated in French and Australian contexts and focus on texts linking language and visual images. There is an emerging debate in universities concerning the interpretation of images whether in the field of aesthetics politics or technology. The contributors focus on images ranging from photography to maps films paintings and computer games. In addition they consider relations between genders and nations as understood in particular historical or semiological contexts. Geographic and disciplinary boundaries are consciously transgressed and blurred so that a new interdisciplinary dialogue between written texts and visual arts emerges.

Ce recueil d'essais situés dans le contexte des changements franco-australiens a pour objet les liens entre images et langage sur le plan du discours. L'interprétation visuelle fait l'objet d'un débat majeur dans les universités que ce soit dans le domaine de l'esthétique, du politique ou de la technologie. Les contributions analysent des images allant de la photographie aux jeux multimédia en passant par les cartes, le cinéma et la peinture. Par ailleurs, elles interrogent les relations tant au niveau de l'individu que des nations dans des contextes historiques et semiologiques spécifiques. Les contributeurs traversent les frontières disciplinaires et géographiques de façon à susciter un nouveau dialogue interdisciplinaire entre textes et arts visuels.
