Readings in Family and Human Development Mize,1997      Contemporary Readings in Family and Human Development Jackie Mize,Jacquelyn Mize,1988      Readings in Family Theory Thomas R. Chibucos,Randall W. Leite,David L. Weis,2005 Readings in Family Theory is an anthology of classic and contemporary articles that provides a context for student learning by demonstrating how theory fits into the overall process of scientific research on families The book provokes student interest in theory by providing examples of the scholarly application of family theory to compare how people use similar processes in everyday life Using this contextual orientation the selected readings examine nine prevalent theoretical perspectives from both family and human development sciences      Essential Readings in Health Behavior Mark Edberg,2010-10-22 Health Behavior Education Promotion      Readings in Human Development Bradley B. Glanville,1976 Family and Human Development Across Cultures Cigdem Kagitibasi,2014-03-05 The culmination of 15 years of research by a Turkish psychologist who was educated in the West this volume examines both the theoretical and practical aspects of cross cultural psychology It takes a contextual developmental functional approach linking the child family and society as they are embedded in culture A refreshingly different view the author presents a portrait of human development from the other side from the perspective of the majority world In a world seemingly dominated by American psychology she proposes the cross cultural orientation as a corrective to the culture boundedness of much of Euro American psychology Analyzing human development in context while avoiding the pitfalls of extreme relativism this work studies development with an inclusive holistic and ecological perspective focusing on the development of the self and of competence In so doing it also attempts to combine cultural contextualism with universalistic standards and psychological processes It proposes a theory of family change which challenges some commonly held modernization assumptions and links theory and application while examining the role of psychology in inducing social change      Encyclopedia of Human Development Neil J. Salkind,2006 Publisher description      Marriage and Family in the Modern World: Readings Ruth Shonle Cavan,1974      Introduction to Family Processes Denise Ann Bodman,Bethany Bustamante Van Vleet,Randal D. Day,2022-05-02 Introduction to Family Processes Diverse Families Common Ties serves to provide an explanation of the complex workings of inner family life The text primarily focuses on family processes and dynamics the inside of families as opposed to sociological trends political topics or the individual psychological approach The text further presents the research underlying these processes and effectively presents ways to increase the positive aspects of family life This edition has been updated to include current research and contemporary topics The text has been divided into four parts Foundations Building and Establishing Families Maintaining Families and Change Turbulence Gains Losses While the research methods chapter still provides an introductory examination of family science research it now includes an expanded discussion on research design methods and advances in the area A new chapter titled Forgiveness Kindness Hope and Gratitude has been incorporated to amplify positive family processes and highlight emerging research This edition provides added emphasis on diverse families e g race ethnicity family structure LGBTQIA ability culture and family formation and each chapter includes a new Discussions in Diversity section related to that chapter The authors have consciously included an epilogue as a way of reflecting on what they have learned along with what they hope to learn in the future Aimed at courses related to family studies and family dynamics this text provides a comprehensive review of family processes Whether it is used for undergraduate or graduate classes professional growth or personal enrichment the text assists readers in enhancing the positive aspects of family life avoiding undesirable aspects and more effectively managing the challenges and obstacles families face that cannot be avoided Thus the text holds an appeal for people who live or will live in families as well as those who want to work with families
