screenwriting and movie making icon Ernest Lehman penned some of the most memorable scenes to ever grace the silver screen Hailed by Vanity Fair as perhaps the greatest screenwriter in history Lehman's work on films such as North by Northwest The King and I Sabrina West Side Story and The Sound of Music helped define a generation of movie making But while his talent took center stage the public knew little of Lehman himself a native of Manhattan's Upper West Side and the Five Towns of Long Island devoted to his wife of 50 years His relentless perfectionism hypochondria and all night writing sessions fueled by tequila and grilled cheese sandwiches were some of the quirks that made Lehman a legend in the Hollywood community In Ernest Lehman The Sweet Smell of Success author Jon Krampner lays bare the life of this lauded yet elusive character Moving seamlessly from post production meetings to sound stages and onto the locations of Lehman s greatest films Krampner's extensive biography brings to life the genius and singularity of the revered screenwriter's personality and the contributions he made to the world of cinema Find out more at ernestlehmanbio com Stephen Sondheim Sandor Goodhart, 2013-10-28 Stephen Sondheim is arguably the most important writer for the American musical stage today the equivalent in his field of Miller Albee O Neill and Williams Yet he has rarely been treated seriously within the academy Reading Stephen Sondheim A Collection of Critical Essays is an attempt to remedy that situation Bringing together scholars and critics from a wide variety of literary and theoretical perspectives this book undertakes to examine all of Sondheim's major productions and themes Reading Enid Blyton Philip Gillett, 2020-10-19 Enid Blyton has been disparaged by her critics since the 1950s and her stock is still low though this has not deterred readers New editions of her work have been published regularly since her death in 1968 Recently there have also been stage and television adaptations of her Malory Towers books while other authors have continued to write stories based on her characters There are also Famous Five parodies which rely on readers familiarity with the series A continuing affection for her work is apparent though it is not always clear whether this comes from parents or their children Reading Enid Blyton places the author's work in its cultural and historical context. The book examines a sample of her vast output looking at five recurring themes a sense of place a sense of period a sense of childhood a sense of class and a sense of fantasy A survey of changing attitudes towards Blyton reveals contrasting ways of looking at her work and raises the question whether she was as reactionary a writer as she appeared The Gifts of Reading Robert Macfarlane, William Boyd, Candice Carty-Williams, Chigozie Obioma, Philip Pullman, Imtiaz Dharker, Roddy Doyle, Pico Iyer, Andy Miller, Jackie Morris, Jan Morris, Sisonke Msimang, Dina Nayeri, Michael Ondaatje, David Pilling, Max Porter, Alice Pung, Jancis Robinson, S.F.
