Bowker Company,1985 Agents and Structures in Cross-Border Governance Bruno Dupeyron,Andrea Noferini,Tony Payan,2023-11-01 In North America and Europe cross border governance arrangements have provided formal and informal frameworks to support cross border cooperation Analysing how these frameworks have emerged the ways in which they have become institutionalized and the processes by which they change is fundamental Moreover these frameworks are increasingly challenged by border securitization thus limiting or jeopardizing decades of cross border cooperative governance and coordinated public policies Agents and Structures in Cross Border Governance offers a series of case studies that explore these complex dynamics To understand a range of cross border governance frameworks this collection addresses such topics as infrastructure development and management resource sharing regional politics economics security human rights the environment culture and community The book explains how cross border governance schemes have sought to mitigate some of the negative consequences of border security policies allowing readers to discern how concrete national power struggles between federal national and subnational governments unfold in border areas In a world increasingly impacted by climate change and more recently the COVID 19 pandemic Agents and Structures in Cross Border Governance sheds light on the ongoing complexity of cross border governance and offers lessons to help mitigate these challenges

Border Crossings Ian Marshall, 2012 The International Appalachian Trail runs north from Mount Katahdin seven hundred miles to the end of the Gasp Peninsula Inspired by Basho Ian Marshall hiked it for six summers probing the poetics of haiku while exploring a vast and beautiful wilderness little known in the US Marshall is an engaging trail companion and a superb story teller with a self deprecating wit and sharp intellect that spice up his observations and ideas Like Basho he finds the miraculous in the common and elevates the humble walk into a spiritual practice sprinkling his narrative with lovely original haiku that seem to have condensed in the moment like droplets of dew Backpackers will appreciate his pungent descriptions of life on the trail and ecocritics will savor his abundant insights on poetry nature and culture This lively book serves up a classic blend of high adventure literary pilgrimage and self discovery It tastes as tart and fresh as wild raspberries John Tallmadge past president of the Association for the Study of Literature and Environment and author of The Cincinnati Arch Learning from Nature in the City

Romantic Border Crossings Larry Peer, 2016-04-08 Romantic Border Crossings participates in the important movement towards otherness in Romanticism by uncovering the intellectual and disciplinary anxieties that surround comparative studies of British American and European literature and culture As this diverse group of essays demonstrates we can now speak of a global Romanticism that encompasses emerging critical categories such as Romantic pedagogy transatlantic studies and transnationalism with the result that new works by writers marginalized by class gender race or geography are invited into the canon at the same time that fresh readings of traditional texts emerge Exemplifying these developments the authors and topics examined include Elizabeth Inchbald Lord Byron G rard de Nerval English Jacobinism Goethe the Gothic Orientalism Emily Dickinson Walt Whitman Anglo American conflicts manifest destiny and teaching romanticism The collection constitutes a powerful rethinking of the divisions that continue to haunt Romantic studies
