The Israel Museum Journal Muze'on Yiśra'el (Jerusalem),2004      World Arts, Local Lives Fowler Museum at UCLA.,Marla Berns,Roy W. Hamilton,Patrick Arthur Polk,Wendy Teeter,2014 This lavishly illustrated volume demonstrating the scope and depth of the vast and remarkable global collections of the Fowler Museum at ucla has been produced as part of the ongoing celebration of the institution s fiftieth anniversary year It recalls many of the highlights of the Museum s formation focusing not only on collections development but also on a long history of programmatic innovation The book begins with an essay by the Museum s director Marla C Berns which sketches the Fowler s history and this is followed by a section reproducing in color and large format 250 stunning works from the collection Berns s lengthy history of involvement with the Fowler which began when she worked for the Museum as a graduate intern while pursuing her doctorate at UCLA and the innovative strategies she has introduced have uniquely situated her to author this book      The Magazine Antiques ,1985      Humanities ,1982      Annual Report of the Trustees Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.). Board of Trustees,1991      A World History of Art Hugh Honour,John Fleming,2005 Over two decades this art historical tour de force has consistently proved the classic introduction to humanity s artistic heritage From our paleolithic past to our digitised present every continent and culture is covered in an articulate and well balanced discussion In this Seventh Edition the text has been revised to embrace developments in archaeology and art historical research while the renowned contemporary art historian Michael Archer has greatly expanded the discussion of the past twenty years providing a new perspective on the latest developments The insight elegance and fluency that the authors bring to their text are complemented by 1458 superb illustrations half of which are now in colour These images together with the numerous maps and architectural plans have been chosen to represent the most significant chronological regional and individual styles of artistic expression      Love for Sale Colleen Lucey,2021-09-15 Love for Sale is the first study to examine the ubiquity of commercial sex in Russian literary and artistic production from the nineteenth century through the fin de si cle Colleen Lucey offers a compelling account of how the figure of the sex worker captivated the public s imagination through depictions in fiction and fine art bringing to light how imperial Russians grappled with the issue of sexual commerce Studying a wide range of media from little known engravings that circulated in newspapers to works of canonical fiction Lucey shows how writers and artists used the topic of prostitution both to comment on women s shifting social roles at the end of tsarist rule and to express anxieties about the incursion of capitalist transactions in relations of the heart Each of the book s chapters focus on a type of commercial sex looking at how the street walker brothel worker demimondaine kept woman impoverished bride and madam traded in sex as a means to acquire capital Lucey argues that prostitution became a focal point for imperial Russians because it signaled both the promises of modernity and the anxieties associated with Westernization Love for Sale integrates historical analysis literary criticism and feminist theory and conveys how nineteenth century beliefs about the fallen woman drew from medical judicial and religious discourse on female sexuality Lucey invites readers to draw a connection between rhetoric of the nineteenth century and today's debate on sex workers rights highlighting recent controversies concerning Russian sex workers to show how imperial discourse is recycled in the twenty first century
