Fernández Olmos, Harold Augenbraum, 2000-09-30 In the past ten years literature by U S Latinos has gained an extraordinary public currency and has engendered a great deal of interest among educators Because of the increase in numbers of Latinos in their classrooms teachers have recognized the benefits of including works by such important writers as Sandra Cisneros Julia Alvarez and Rudolfo Anaya in the curriculum Without a guide introducing courses on U S Latino literature or integrating individual works into the general courses on American Literature can be difficult for the uninitiated While some critical sources for students and teachers are available none are dedicated exclusively to this important body of writing To fill the gap the editors of this volume commissioned prominent scholars in the field to write 18 essays that focus on using U S Latino literature in the classroom The selection of the subject texts was developed in conjunction with secondary school teachers who took part in the editors course This resultant volume focuses on major works that are appropriate for high school and undergraduate study including Judith Ortiz Cofer's The Latin Deli Piri Thomas Down These Mean Streets and Cisneros The House on Mango Street Each chapter in this Critical Guide provides pertinent biographical background on the author as well as contextual information that aids in understanding the literary and cultural significance of the work The most valuable component of the critical essays the Analysis of Themes and Forms helps the reader understand the thematic concerns raised by the work particularly the recurring issues of language expression and cultural identity assimilation and intergenerational conflicts Each essay is followed by specific suggestions for teaching the work with topics for classroom discussion Further enhancing the value of this work as a teaching tool are the selected bibliographies of criticism further reading and other related sources that complete each chapter Teachers will also find a Sample Course Outline of U S Latino Literature which serves as guide for developing a course on this important subject Robo Sacer David S. Dalton,2023-05-15 Robo Sacer engages the digital humanities critical race theory border studies biopolitical theory and necropolitical theory to interrogate how technology has been used to oppress people of Mexican descent both within Mexico and in the United States since the advent of the North American Free Trade Agreement NAFTA in 1994 As the book argues robo sacer identity emerges as transnational flows of bodies capital and technology become an institutionalized state of exception that relegates people from marginalized communities to the periphery And yet the same technology can be utilized by the oppressed in the service of resistance The texts studied here represent speculative stories about this technological empowerment These texts theorize different means of techno resistance to key realities that have emerged within Mexican and Chicano a x communities under the rise and reign of neoliberalism The first three chapters deal with dehumanization the trafficking of death and unbalanced access to technology The final two chapters deal with the major forms of violence feminicide and drug related violence that have grown exponentially in Mexico with the rise of neoliberalism These stories theorize the role of technology both in oppressing and in providing the subaltern with necessary tools for resistance Robo Sacer builds on the previous studies of Sayak Valencia Irmgard Emmelhainz Guy Emerson Achille Mbembe and of course Giorgio Agamben but it differentiates itself from them through its theorization on how technology and particularly cyborg subjectivity can amend the reigning biopolitical and necropolitical structures of power in potentially liberatory ways Robo Sacer shows how the cyborg can denaturalize constructs of zo by providing an outlet through which the oppressed can tell their stories thus imbuing the oppressed with the power to combat imperialist forces The Chicano Movement Sara E.
