Rugs & Wall Hangings: Period Designs and Contemporary Techniques Joan Scobey,1974 This book is intended to help you examine the rugmaking styles and methods of some other cultures and apply them to the most contemporary techniques needlepoint latch hooking rya and punch hooking You will find a wide diversity of period and contemporary designs ranging from bold geometrics of nomadic mideastern tribes and the graceful court arabesques of Persia to the equally striking rya rugs and hangings of Scandinavia and the bold and imaginative styles of the contemporary art market You will see many photographs of historic and antique rugs and carpets and find pages of design adaptations ready for you to work You will learn how rugs and hangings were made in their own cultures and by what contemporary technique they can most faithfully be translated Because loom weaving is a complicated and technical craft requiring its own set of design blueprints the rugmaking methods in this book are arbitrarily limited to needlepoint latch hooking rya and punch hooking The design adaptations throughout will suggest typical or characteristic color schemes and rugmaking methods most closely related to the original product

Amazon Design and National Identity Javier Gimeno-Martínez, 2016-09-22 This important study introduces the key theories of national identity and relates them to the broad fields of product graphic and fashion design Javier Gimeno Martinez approaches the inter relationship between national identity and cultural production from two perspectives the distinctive characteristics of a nation's output and the consumption of design products within a country as a means of generating a national design landscape Using case studies ranging from stamps in nineteenth century Russian occupied Finland to Coca Cola as an American drink in modern Trinidad and Tobago he addresses concepts of essentialism constructivism geography and multiculturalism and considers the works of key theorists including Benedict Anderson Eric Hobsbawm and Doreen Massey This illuminating book offers the first comprehensive account of how national identity and cultural policy have shaped design while suggesting that traditional formations of the national are increasingly unsustainable in an age of globalisation migration and cultural diversity Javier Gimeno Martinez is Lecturer in Design Cultures at the VU University Amsterdam The Netherlands

Rag Rugs Juju Vail, 2016-12-01 Rag rug making is a traditional craft In Britain and North America the techniques that were most commonly used were hooking prodding braiding and weaving These methods are now enjoying a revival inspired partly by the desire to transform recycled materials into unique hand crafted pieces for the home
