Rules Procedures For Character Education:

Handbook of Moral and Character Education Larry Nucci, Darcia Narvaez, 2014-04-24 There is widespread agreement that schools should contribute to the moral development and character formation of their students. In fact, 80% of US states currently have mandates regarding character education. However, the pervasiveness of the support for moral and character education masks a high degree of controversy surrounding its meaning and methods. The purpose of this handbook is to supplant the prevalent ideological rhetoric of the field with a comprehensive research-oriented volume that both describes the extensive changes that have occurred over the last fifteen years and points forward to the future. Now in its second edition, this book includes the latest applications of developmental and cognitive psychology to moral and character education from preschool to college settings and much more.

Rules & Procedures for Character Education Philip Fitch Vincent, 1999-06-01 Education with Character James Arthur, 2003 Education with character is the latest buzzphrase, but until now there has been no real consensus on some of the key issues. This book addresses the gap by adopting a cross-disciplinary approach to the matters in hand.

Rules and Procedures Philip F. Vincent, 1998-04 Character Builders Liz Knowles, Martha Smith, 2006-07-30 This book by well-known authors Liz Knowles and Martha Smith, Boys and Literacy Reading Rules etc., fills the need for a K-12 resource for teachers and librarians searching for materials and activity ideas for character education at all grade levels. It consists of 12 chapters, one on each virtue: empathy, respect, courage, humor, responsibility, perseverance, loyalty, honesty, cooperation, tolerance, citizenship, and forgiveness. Each chapter has a listing of related virtues, a definition, several useful famous quotes, listings of people and organizations who have demonstrated the virtue, related topics for further curricular exploration and discussion, questions. There is also a complete listing of annotated titles divided into five sections: picture books, primary (gr 1-3), intermediate (gr 3-5), middle school (gr 5-8), and young adult (gr 8-12). A unique feature of this book is a section in each chapter called In Action, in which the authors offer ideas to share with students such as: Empathy in action: Be polite in the cafeteria. Be kind and helpful to those with mental and physical challenges. Share your supplies with those who have none. Grades K-12.
