Rules for a Dadless Dad Kevin Nordbrock, 2004-12-01 I thought about what a parent is to a child and I came up with this thought Parent Artist Sculpture When children are small they are a lot like clay no form no shape like personality values and ideals not knowing what is right or wrong It is the parent s job as the artist to mold and sculpt that clay into a lifelong beautiful piece of work so that when the clay has been sculpted the artist can stand back and look at the figure before them and admire it with pride and joy as the whole world admires enjoys and appreciates it The clay changes over time as you mold and shape it Sometimes it is difficult and it doesn t hold its shape When you step back and look at the piece of work you start to think what you can do Over time just by working with the clay before you it becomes a masterpiece that is truly priceless

A Parent-Partner Status for American Family Law Merle H. Weiner,2015-09-17 Despite the fact that becoming a parent is a pivotal event the birth or adoption of a child has little significance for parents legal relationship to each other Instead the law relies upon marriage domestic partnerships and contracts to set the parameters of parents legal relationship With over forty percent of American children born to unwed mothers and consistently high rates of divorce this book argues that the law's current approach to regulating parental relationships is outdated A new legal and social structure is needed to guide parents so they act as supportive partners and to deter uncommitted couples from having children This book is the first of its kind to propose a new parent partner status within family law Included are a detailed discussion of the benefits of the status as well as specific recommendations for legal obligations Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress.
