Rules of the Road for the Information Superhighway Legal Research Network, Yochai Benkler, 1996 Copyright Law and Computer Programs Jisuk Woo, 2000 First Published in 2000 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Law & the Information Superhighway Henry H. Perritt, 2004-10 Research Handbook on Electronic Commerce Law John A. Rothchild, 2016-09-30 The steady growth of internet commerce over the past twenty years has given rise to a host of new legal issues in a broad range of fields This authoritative Research Handbook comprises chapters by leading scholars which will provide a solid foundation for newcomers to the subject and also offer exciting new insights that will further the understanding of e commerce experts Key topics covered include contracting payments intellectual property extraterritorial enforcement alternative dispute resolution social media consumer protection network neutrality online gambling domain name governance and privacy Legal Research and Law Library Management Julius J. Marke, Richard Sloane, Linda M. Ryan, 2006 This revised edition of Legal Research and Law Library Management retains the best elements of the previous edition while covering the latest in law library management Competition, Regulation and the New Economy Cosmo Graham, Fiona Smith, 2004-10-11 In addition to being the principal medium for communication education and entertainment the new economy is now a leading provider of goods and services through electronic channels The new economy rides on the crest of new technological developments in computers telecommunications and satellites creating new interactive mediums and from the deregulation and privatization of state owned enterprises in the telecommunications and broadcasting sectors Whilst the economic viability of the dotcoms is questioned the existence of a new economy with novel methods of production distribution and exchange is here to stay Evidence of this is the fact that there are 300 million active computers in the world with 350 million people who use the world wide web expected to grow to one billion in four years and the speed of microprocessors continuously increases facilitating the use of IT The question which is pursued in the series of essays in this book is whether the conceptual underpinnings of competition law and international regulatory mechanisms are adequate or appropriate to deal with the developments raised by the new economy Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress, 2013

Dispute Resolution in Electronic Commerce Yun Zhao, 2005-06-01 Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress. Cataloging Policy and Support Office, 2006 Library of Congress Subject Headings , 2005 Print and Electronic Text Convergence Bill Cope, Diana Kalantzis, 2001 With the progressive digitisation of the book production processes we see the emergence of a potentially potent mix of new technologies Not potent because these technologies are capable of driving change alones but potent for the commercial and cultural drivers which may work in concert with new technologies to transform the world of books and reading Central to these technological developments is the convergence of the technologies of etext and digital print This book examines recent technological changes in book production Our focus is in part on technological actuality centred mostly on the digitisation of text and its consequences Our focus is also on the realm of possibility Where might these technological shifts lead us What are the commercial and cultural conditions under which technological possibility might bear fruits Within this volume we look specifically at the changing definition of a book A book is no longer a tangible thing a book is what a book does It is information architecture We examine the various manifestations of electronic book readers and imminent technologies such as electronic ink including case study on the use of ebook reading devices by a lending library and speculate about other uses of such devices We see the convergence of print and etext manifestations of the same thing electronically stored text with the difference demonstrated only in the shift in mindset necessary to accommodate emergent forms of digital text as information services within a product service system the changing shape of digital design and changes in printing technologies from letterpress to the rise of digital printing
