Commemorating Gallipoli through Music John Morgan O'Connell,2017-12-01 This monograph examines the relationship between music and memory as it relates to the Gallipoli Campaign 1915 6 Drawing upon a wide variety of sources in many languages it explores the multiple ways in which music is employed to remember and to forget to celebrate and to commemorate a victory on the part of the Central Powers and a defeat on the part of the Allied forces in the Dardanelles during the First World War 1914 8 Further it argues that commemoration itself can be viewed as an instrument of war In particular it investigates the complex positionality of individual actors during the centennial commemorations of the Gallipoli landings 24 April 2015 where the Australians and the Turks most notably have employed music to reimagine the past both nationalities invoking the Gallipoli spirit tr anakkale ruhu to advance a nationalist agenda and a resurgent militarism through the selective memorialization of an imperial past The book interrogates through music the ambivalent position of minorities With specific reference to the Irish amongst the British and the Armenians amongst the Ottomans it shows how song might serve both to articulate a nationalist defiance and an imperialist consensus during a tumultuous period of irredentism By uncovering the complex pathways of musical transmission it demonstrates through musical analysis how the colonized could become the colonizer in the case of the Irish or a minority might conform to a majority in the case of the Armenians Further the publication looks at the uneasy alliance between the Turks and the Germans It focuses on a German musician as an imperial bandmaster and Germanic entrepreneurs in the recording industry who entertained or who served the German Mission in Istanbul Here it considers by way of musical composition the shared wish on the part of the Germans and the Turks to create a Lebensraum in Asia Title 7 Agriculture Parts 700 to 899 (Revised as of January 1, 2014) Office of The Federal Register, Enhanced by IntraWEB, LLC,2014-01-01 The Code of Federal Regulations Title 7
