Rule of Law through Human Rights and International Criminal Justice Charles Riziki Majinge,2015-10-05 This project was undertaken not so much as a farewell to the contribution Adama Dieng has selflessly offered to humanity but mainly as a token of appreciation to his dedication and contribution to the rule of law and human rights especially in his native continent Africa As a high ranking international civil servant diplomat teacher activist and accomplished jurist Adama Dieng has inspired and indeed continues to inspire a generation of men and women both in Africa and beyond with his unqualified commitment to the advancement of the ideals reflected in the United Nations Charter and the Universal Declaration of Human Rights Through his work and commitment to the cause of international justice and conflict prevention he has consistently placed the interests of his fellow men and women and indeed those of his continent before his own interests It is therefore in recognition of his efforts that his fellow jurists friends and colleagues decided to honour his contribution through a collection of essays on a life dedicated to the advancement of international peace and justice through the rule of law The contributions gathered here represent in good measure the values and beliefs in rule of law and human rights that have characterized Adama s commitment to work towards a better Africa and a better world And God Still Stops the Rain Edgar Nazario,2001-04 The conclusion of all man s efforts to describe life are in the words of Solomon vain We can give a description of feeling but the description has no happiness sadness or fear It has no courage no anger and no despair Our description does not feel at all Feeling can only grow and live in the heart of man and God So come with me on a journey that begins in the shadow of my memories and will end in the Son s light The bits and pieces of my life that together form who I am and what God has designed that I am to be You may find yourself in many parts of my story perhaps we have more in common than we know for God is the same God for me that He is for you God touched me and wants to touch you Weekly Compilation of Presidential Documents ,2004

ABSTRACT LOVE Adrian Gabriel Dumitru,2020-12-06 There are lots of books published every year with all kinds of theories but not so many expressing the concept of abstract love I would define this a reflection of our thoughts into the real life We call it abstract cause have nothing to do with the normal dogmatic way of seeing the love stories Real love that perfect scenario with the perfect partner can be seen at any age depending of the luck our karma allows us to have But we want it so much that the Universe allows us this meeting with only one obstacle which in many cases makes the love story imposible Thinking in a positive way we redefine the imposible story as an abstract one Being a reflection of our dreams the story itself is a perfect one except the fact that you cannot enjoy the story into the real word creating the image of an illusion Imposible love stories are present all over the world After posting a long time in social media i received messages from people from all the continents telling me about them The word love being present near the word imposible creates this strange illusory and abstract way of seeing the magic of love The book is a collection of essays my thoughts about the interconnection between the illusion and reality I used a lot the term illusion cause we all look for perfect scenarios especially when it comes to love but the truth is that perfection is far far away of reality We can interconnect illusions with the real world just through imposible love stories In the end the book is a personal development writing that allows us to understand the magic of love but also a method that teaches how to enjoy life even if we dislike the word imposible
