Running Out of Time (Color Interior) Robert Prah, Jr., 2022-04-22 Running Out of Time Chasing Red White and Blue Color Interior By Robert Prah Jr Originally created for his daughter to detail his run for public office Running Out of Time Chasing Red White and Blue chronicles this pursuit by Robert Prah Jr during a very challenging time in a district that has been historically blue forever It details his personal story of running for the Pennsylvania state legislature and all of the challenges that he faced especially from previous relationships and social media It talks about being the underdog running against a lifelong Democrat turned Republican where according to many polls Prah was favored to win the special election The author also highlights how several committee members past candidates and elected officials have changed their political affiliation in recent years This story is interesting in the sense that Prah ran in three elections Special Election in March 2020 Primary in June 2020 General in November 2020 all during a global pandemic It shares the ups and downs of running for office and how the pandemic and social media impacted the outcome of many races in November 2020 The author hopes that readers take away that social media has had an impact on our lives both positive and negative and especially in politics and elections We tend to not look at candidates individually but rather as a D or an R We need to do a better job of evaluating candidates and asking questions rather than what we see on social media high school history teacher Harte Canaday is going through a divorce in his small mountain town in north Georgia. No longer living at home, he is camping in the wilderness that had been his former riding grounds as a young horseman. Because of his fascination with the Old West and his innate skill with period firearms, Harte stumbles into a shootout with drug traffickers and bests three violent men in a matter of seconds. With his best friend, the sheriff killed in this affray, the county leaders ask Harte to take over the vacant job. When he pins on the badge, he finds that he was born for the work, but the challenges fall in avalanches as he learns about his county's entanglement in drug addiction, sexual coercion with minors, and murder. These puzzle parts lead him to investigate people he has known all his life, and the secrets he uncovers take him not only into more violent face-offs but also into an unexpected hard look at what appears to be his own affinity for violence. Praise for Mark Warren: Woven with clarity and colorful prose, Warren leads readers on an odyssey. True West Magazine on Promised Land: A good book offers the ultimate escape, armchair travel to those wild places of the imagination.
