Social Welfare in East Asia and the Pacific Sharlene Furuto, 2013-02-26

In this singular collection indigenous experts describe the social welfare systems of fifteen East Asian and Pacific Island nations and locales Vastly understudied these lands offer key insight into the successes and failures of Western and native approaches to social work suggesting new directions for practice and research in both local and global contexts Combining international experiences and professional knowledge contributors illuminate the role of history and culture in shaping the social welfare systems of Cambodia China Hong Kong SAR China Indonesia Malaysia the Micronesian region including the Federated States of Micronesia Guam Unincorporated Territory U S A Marshall Islands Northern Mariana Islands Commonwealth U S A and Palau Samoa and American Samoa Unincorporated Territory U S A South Korea Taiwan and Thailand The contributors link the values and issues that concern populaces most to the development of social work practice policy and research Sharlene B C L Furuto then conducts a comparative analysis of the essays including their data and social service programs highlighting the similarities and differences between the evolution of social welfare in these nations and locales She contrasts their indigenous approaches the responses of governments and NGOs to social issues the availability of social work education as well as API models paradigms and templates and the overall status of the social work profession Furuto also adds a chapter comparing the distinct social welfare systems of Samoa and American Samoa The only volume to focus exclusively on social welfare in East Asia and the Pacific this anthology holds immense value for practitioners and researchers eager for global perspectives

Social Policy and Poverty in East Asia James Midgley, Kwong Leung Tang, 2009-09-11

This book looks at the role of social policy and particularly social security in addressing the ongoing challenge of poverty in East Asia despite the region's spectacular experience of economic growth in recent decades The East Asian miracle resulted over the last four decades in a transformation of the region's traditional agrarian economies and significant increases in standards of living for many ordinary people Even though it was given little attention poverty has remained an ongoing problem The problem became particularly evident however with the Asian financial crisis of 1997 when many low income and middle class workers became unemployed As a result of this crisis the need for effective social policies and social security programs were recognized The idea that economic growth would solve the problem of poverty was increasingly challenged Even in China today where rapid growth has created new employment opportunities and the promise of prosperity for many the government has recognized that the problem of poverty cannot be addressed only through economic growth but that comprehensive social policies must be formulated and this includes the development of an effective security system Development and Social Policy

Christian Aspalter, Kenny Teguh Pribadi, 2016-12-19 In recent years government and policymakers around the world have shifted their attention away from money oriented supply side economics to institutional economics and people oriented social and economic development Issues such as poverty reduction win win solutions and strategies in social policy and their implementation universalization and a variety of new large scale conditional cash transfers programs have become ever present in the global discussion about development and social policy This book provides win win strategies for social policies on the ground as developed and put forward by the normative theoretical paradigm of Developmental Social Policy DSP Taking the state of the art general development theory as a starting point of reference and discussion it goes on to discuss in detail the key win win strategies that form the basis and core of the DSP paradigm It examines key related issues such as the performance of provident fund systems the performance of conditional cash transfer systems especially their elements that are based on asset and means testing universalism and extension in social security provision in the context of especially developing countries and non economically targeted social welfare benefits and services Providing fully fledged theoretical guidance paired with key social policy strategies and solutions it will be highly valuable for students and scholars of social policy development studies and Asia Pacific studies
