The Palgrave Handbook of Agricultural and Rural Development in Africa Evans S. Osabuohien, 2020-07-06 This handbook examines agricultural and rural development in Africa from theoretical empirical and policy stand points It discusses the challenges of the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals SDGs and assesses how poverty and other development concerns can be addressed in rural communities through agricultural transformation Additionally the handbook extends the Post 2015 Development Agenda and it emphasizes the importance of the agricultural sector as it is closely related to the issues of food sustainability poverty reduction and employment creation The contributors suggest multiple evidence based policies to develop the rural areas through the transformation of the agricultural sector which can significantly benefit the African continent

Priorities and Strategies in Rural Poverty Reduction Diana Alarcón González, 2004

Poverty Alleviation Pathways for Achieving Sustainable Development Goals in Africa Thokozani Simelane, 2020-10-28 The inability to eradicate poverty among societies demands a synergistic approach This calls for the development of multi pronged pathways for transitioning towards sustainable development goals Many of these have been developed and tested across the world Some have proved to be effective in illuminating the underlying cause of the world s inability to eradicate poverty This is being driven by the fact that sustainable development as a global development concept represents a multidimensional phenomenon that includes many different indicators of human development This volume which derives from the papers presented at the seventh Africa Unity for Renaissance Conference that was held at Freedom Park Pretoria South Africa seeks to supplement existing pathways by highlighting Africa s approach to poverty alleviation which can possibly be attained through enhanced nutrition food security energy and gender equity Evidence presented reflects strengths weaknesses and opportunities on how Africa can transition towards sustainable development goals The information provided is useful to countries interested in assisting Africa to develop pathways for achieving sustainable development goals within the scope of Agenda 2063 The book is a good reference for policy makers academics government authorities and students interested in research and developmental studies

Productivity Growth in Agriculture Keith Owen Fuglie, Sun Ling Wang, V. Eldon Ball, 2012 This volume is written primarily for agricultural economists doing research on productivity It includes discussions of the theoretical underpinnings of productivity measurement as well as the many practical considerations that go into translating this theory into actual measures of aggregated outputs and inputs The unifying concept of agricultural productivity used across the chapters of this volume is aggregate total factor productivity TFP of the sector The volume also contains detailed analysis of the underlying causes of agricultural productivity growth Part I chapters 2 6 examines agricultural productivity in high income and transition countries Part II chapters 7 11 examines agricultural productivity growth and its driving forces in five important agricultural producers in Asia and Latin America Part III chapters 12 14 focuses on measuring and identifying constraints to agricultural productivity growth in sub Saharan Africa Part IV chapters 15 16 gives a global perspective on agricultural productivity      Transforming Food Systems for a Rising India Prabhu Pingali, Anaka Aiyar, Mathew Abraham, Andaleeb Rahman, 2019-05-14 This open access book examines the interactions between India's economic development agricultural production and nutrition through the lens of a Food Systems Approach FSA The Indian growth story is a paradoxical one Despite economic progress over the past two decades regional inequality food insecurity and malnutrition problems persist Simultaneously recent trends in obesity along with micro nutrient deficiency portend to a future public health crisis This book explores various challenges and opportunities to achieve a nutrition secure future through diversified production systems improved health and hygiene environment and greater individual capability to access a balanced diet contributing to an increase in overall productivity The authors bring together the latest data and scientific evidence from the country to map out the current state of food systems and nutrition outcomes They place India within the context of other developing country experiences and highlight India's status as an outlier in terms of the persistence of high levels of stunting while following global trends in obesity This book discusses the policy and institutional interventions needed for promoting a nutrition sensitive food system and the multi sectoral strategies needed for simultaneously addressing the triple burden of malnutrition in India      Agro-industries for Development ,2009-01-01 The development of competitive agro industries is crucial for creating employment and income opportunities as well as enhancing the quality of and demand for farm products This book addresses strategies required for improving agro industrial competitiveness in ways that can generate employment and fight poverty in the developing world      Agro-industries for Development Carlos A. Da Silva, 2009 The development of competitive agro industries is crucial for creating employment and income opportunities as well as enhancing the quality of and demand for farm products Agro industries can have a real effect on international development by increasing economic growth and reducing poverty in both rural and urban areas of developing countries However in order to avoid adverse effects to vulnerable countries and people sound policies and strategies for fostering agro industries are needed Agro Industries for Development highlights the current status and future course for agro industries and brings attention to the contributions this sector can make to international development The book includes contributions from agro industry specialists academic experts and UN technical agencies chapters address the strategies and actions required for improving agro industrial competitiveness in ways that can create income generate employment and fight poverty in the developing world This book is a co publication with FAO and UNIDO      International Journal of Human Development and Sustainability Vol.4, No.1 ,2011-09-28      Inequality and Poverty in China in the Age of Globalization Azizur Rahman Khan, Carl Riskin, 2001-01-25 China's explosive economic growth since 1988 has not resulted in an equal increase of income among all Chinese citizens The authors explore a range of reasons for the disparity and base their conclusions on strong empirical evidence especially the 1996 survey conducted by the State Statistical Bureau      Handbook of Agricultural Economics Robert E. Evenson, Prabhu Pingali, 2009-10-20 Advances in agriculture offer many countries the best and only chance of reducing poverty Yet economic growth and population increases are driving higher demand for food and rising real prices What solutions have successfully promoted agriculture This volume examines national and international food agriculture policies and how they enhance agricultural productivity growth It provides unique historical reviews on policies and their effects and it clearly articulates both positive and negative lessons for promoting agriculture lead growth With chapters written by international authorities this book recognizes that agriculture is not just about providing food for today but about growing it in an environmentally sustainable way that can help people work their ways out of poverty Chapters cover international macro economic policies and trade farm structure in developing countries regional experiences in agriculture and regional studies on agricultural productivity policies     Undernutrition, Agriculture and Public Provisioning Swarna Sadasivam Vepa, Brinda Viswanathan, 2020-04-21 Using quantitative techniques this volume provides empirical evidence on the crucial role of public provisioning of food water sanitation and health care in reducing undernutrition among women and children in India The linkages are cogently explored and connected to the sustainable development goals Key data comes from recent large secondary sources at district household and individual levels and the econometric methodologies are clearly explained Taken as a whole it highlights the effects of public provisioning on malnutrition and identifies the relative importance of agricultural growth in resolving the nutrition problems in rural and semi urban areas of India This edited volume will be valuable reading for advanced graduate students researchers and practitioners in development economics development studies and nutrition and public health     Structural Transformation and Rural Change Revisited Bruno Losch, Sandrine Freguin-Gresh, Eric Thomas White, 2012-06-18 Based on new evidence from in depth field surveys this book addresses the unique situation of countries that remain deeply engaged in agriculture and proposes a set of policy orientations which could facilitate the process of rural change     Community and Climate Resilience in the Semi-Arid Tropics S. P. Wani, K. V. Raju, 2020-01-22 This book focuses on developing an integrated holistic approach for harnessing the potential of rain fed agriculture In this approach rainwater management through harvesting and recharging the groundwater is used as an entry point activity for increasing the productivity for farmers through enhanced water use efficiency To provide the holistic and integrated solutions the approach of consortium through building partnerships with different stakeholders eg different research institutions State National and International development departments eg Department of Agriculture Department of Animal Husbandry etc Non Government Organizations NGOs Farmers Organizations Community based Organizations CBOs along with market linkages through private companies     Well Begun but Not Yet Done Valerie Kozel, 2014-09-09 This book presents the key findings from a new poverty assessment for Vietnam led jointly by the World Bank and the Vietnam Academy of Social Sciences VASS It takes a fresh look at the lives of poor men women and children and explores the constraints and opportunities they face today in rising out of poverty The book aims to do three things First it proposes revisions to Vietnam s poverty monitoring system via better data updated welfare aggregates and new poverty lines to bring these more in line with economic and social conditions in present day Vietnam Second it revisits the stylized facts about deprivation and poverty in Vietnam and develops an updated profile and diagnostic of poverty using data from the most recent Vietnam Household Living Standards Survey VHLSS 2010 complemented by new qualitative field studies Third it aims to forge a consensus around some of the key challenges for reducing extreme poverty and promoting shared prosperity over the next decade including changing regional patterns of poverty and wealth high and persistent poverty among ethnic minorities substantial and increasing vulnerability and rising inequality in outcomes and opportunities Rice is Life Scientific Perspectives for the 21st Century, 2005
