Rural Transformation in Hungary and Poland Györgyi Barta, 1979 The Modernization of Agriculture: Rural Transformation in Hungary, 1848-1945, 1980 Tazlar, a village in Hungary C.M. Hann, 1980 The Transition to Democracy in Hungary Dae Soon Kim, 2013-07-18 Unlike in other countries of Eastern Europe where the opposition to communism came in the form of single mass movements led by charismatic leaders such as Václav Havel and Lech Wałęsa in Hungary the opposition was very fragmented brought together and made effective only by the authoritative significant but relatively unknown Róbert Góncz who subsequently became Hungary's first post communist president This book charts the political career of Róbert Góncz outlining the outstanding contribution he made to Hungary's transition to democracy Drawing on a wide range of sources including archives and interviews with Góncz himself and others it shows how Góncz unlike Havel who was a playwright and whose political role was largely symbolic was a campaigning politician all his life consistently advocating social democratic but not communist values Imprisoned from 1956 for his participation in the 1956 uprising Góncz was a highly effective political operator in the transition period around 1989 and as president wielded real power effectively As politics in Hungary are again marred by deep division and fragmentation Góncz's success in bringing rival groups together is even more pronounced The Process of Rural Transformation in Hungary and Poland 1944 to 1978 Wilma Grace Ennenga, 1979 Agriculture and Economic Development in Europe Since 1870 Pedro Lains, Vicente Pinilla, 2008-09-11 Whilst many books on the European economy have focused on the analysis of its industrial sectors this book draws attention to the often ignored contribution made by the development of European agriculture over the past two centuries In doing so the authors adopt a revisionist perspective on the subject addressing the lack of coherent study of the agricultural sector and reassessing old theories about the links between agricultural and economic development In focusing on those countries which by 1870 still had a large agricultural sector namely France Germany Italy Denmark The Netherlands Sweden Spain Portugal Poland Hungary Greece and Turkey this book determines the role of the agricultural sector in the economic development of Europe These chapters demonstrate how the rate of development in the agricultural sector depended on specific industrial political and market conditions the diversity of ways and timings through which transformation was achieved is also considered Studies in Geography in Hungary, 1967 The Evolution of Agrarian Institutions Mieke Meurs, 2001 An examination of why private farming in the transition economies of East Central Europe has not grown as quickly as expected Many Shades of Red Mieke Meurs, 1999-02-18 This volume provides a radical and timely corrective to received wisdom about the seemingly inevitable transition from communism to democratic capitalism Arguing against popular misconceptions that portray collectivized agriculture as an unqualified failure that followed a monolithic Soviet model the contributors draw upon newly available local sources to illuminate the costs benefits successes and failures of cooperative agriculture They highlight the wide variety of state policies local responses and economic outcomes as well as the influence of local geography political structures and economic institutions in each region Meurs provides an institutionalist analysis of both the causes and impacts of policy differences drawing lessons of continuing relevance to the many countries in which agrarian reform remains a controversial issue Contributions by Victor Danilov Carmen Diana Deere Stanka Dobрева Veska Kouzouharova Imre Kovach Justin Lin Mieke Meurs and Niurka Perez East Central Europe Lawrence D. Orton,1989 Progress in Agricultural Geography (Routledge Revivals) Michael Pacione,2014-06-03 In the second half of the twentieth century significant changes were occurring within the agricultural industry including an increase in efficiency and government intervention as well as expanded and more complicated patterns of trade This comprehensive volume first published in 1986 reflects how these developments challenged the field of agricultural geography Considering agricultural innovations farming systems government policy and land ownership this title provides an essential background to students with an interest in agricultural methods distribution and reform Peasant Violence and Antisemitism in Early Twentieth-Century Eastern Europe Irina Marin,2018-07-11 This book is a transnational study of rural and anti Semitic violence around the triple frontier between Austria Hungary Romania and Tsarist Russia at the beginning of the twentieth century It focuses on the devastating Romanian peasant uprising in 1907 and traces the reverberations of the crisis across the triple frontier analysing the fears spectres and knee jerk reactions it triggered in the borderlands of Austria Hungary and Tsarist Russia The uprising came close on the heels of the 1905 1907 social turmoil in Tsarist Russia and brought into play the major issues that characterized social and political life in the region at the time rural poverty the Jewish Question state modernization and social upheavals The book comparatively explores the causes and mechanisms of violence propagation the function of rumour in the spread of the uprising land reforms and their legal underpinnings the policing capabilities of the borderlands around the triple frontier as well as newspaper coverage and diplomatic reactions Problems of Communism ,1976 Imre Nagy János M. Rainer,2009-08-30 After nearly three decades of dutiful service to the Communist Party Imre Nagy led the popular uprising against the Soviet authorities during the 1956 Hungarian Revolution Two years later he was disgraced and executed How did the formerly loyal Party servant become one of its most ardent critics How did he reconcile his own beliefs with the demands of the Party for so long and what finally drove him to take a stand And how should we understand his legacy for the modern democracy of Hungary This definitive biography of the Communist leader traces his life from his conventional petty bourgeois childhood in south west Hungary through his tremendous political achievements and ultimate dramatic failure The first complete portrait of this complex and contradictory figure Imre Nagy is vividly brought to life as an enigmatic figure whose actions shaped Hungary's destiny in 1956 and ever since Agrarian Policies in Communist Europe K.-E.
