Rush Hour Face:

The Face James Stanley, 2017-09-28 It was a beautiful late April day in 1968 She had decided to take her baby for a stroll She sat on the park bench checked her watch and looked skyward squinting into the sun trying to make out the dark falling object that appeared as if someone had dropped a sack of sand from the clouds Oh my God! It's a person A person soon to be found dead in the courtyard of the 6 floor Kensington Towers and identified as 25 year old Jane Louise Ladd a lifelong London resident and current fashion model known as The Face during a time that defined a generation Travel back in time to the era known as Swinging Britain and learn what happened Did Jane jump Was it an accident Was it foul play The Man

In True Face Jonna Mendez, 2024-03-05 In this extraordinarily brave and entertaining book Sonia Purnell New York Times bestselling author of A Woman of No Importance the bestselling coauthor of Argo tells her riveting courageous story of being a female spy at the height of the Cold War Jonna Hiestand Mendez began her CIA career as a contract wife performing secretarial duties for the CIA as a convenience to her husband a young officer stationed in Europe She needed his permission to open a bank account or shut off the gas to their apartment Yet Mendez had a talent for espionage too and she soon took on bigger and more significant roles at the Agency She parlayed her interest in photography into an operational role overseas an unlikely area for a woman in the CIA Often underestimated occasionally undermined she lived under cover and served tours of duty all over the globe rising first to become an international spy and ultimately to Chief of Disguise at CIA s Office of Technical Service In True Face recounts not only the drama of Mendez s high stakes work how this savvy operator parlayed her everywoman appeal into incredible subterfuge but also the grit and good fortune it took for her to navigate a misogynistic world This is the story of an incredible spy career and what it took to achieve it Thoughts of You and Other Things Too AJ Banker, Jr.,2016-06-29 In addition to the aforementioned Mr Banker spent 25 years working in the banking industry as a commercial banker making loans to real estate developers and other commercial borrowers His banking experience also included employment as an assistant bank examiner for three bank regulatory agencies This publication is Mr Banker s first It includes his thoughts relating to things he has done wanted to do observations and experiences throughout his travels around the world The people he has met while traveling and the things he has seen have only encouraged him to do more on his great adventure called life The Face-Changers Thomas Perry,1999-03-29 Jane Whitefield legendary half Indian shadow guide who spirits hunted people away from certain death has never had a client like Dr Richard Dahlman A famous plastic surgeon who has dedicated his life to healing the good doctor hasn t a clue why stalkers are out for his blood But he knows Jane Whitefield s name and that she is his only hope Once again Jane performs her magic leading Dahlman in a nightmare flight across America only a heartbeat ahead of pursuers whose leader is a dead ringer for Jane a raven haired beauty who has stolen her name reputation and techniques not to save lives but to destroy them Remembering Heaven's Face John Balaban,2002 The author recounts his years in Vietnam as a conscientious objector serving as a teacher and a rescue worker for an organization that sent children with war injuries to the United States Faces of the Gone Brad Parks,2009-12-08 A rogue reporter investigates a grisly multiple murder in Newark NJ in this Shamus and Nero Award winning mystery series debut Four bodies each with a single bullet wound in the back of the head stacked like cordwood in a weed choked vacant lot That s the front page news facing Carter Ross investigative reporter with the Newark Eagle Examiner Immediately dispatched to the scene Carter learns that the four victims an exotic dancer a drug dealer a hustler and a mama s boy came from different parts of the city and didn t seem to know one another The police eager to calm jittery residents leak a theory that the murders are revenge for a bar stickup and Carter s paper hungry for a scoop hastily prints it Carter doesn t come from the streets but he understands a thing or two about Newark s neighborhoods And he knows there are no quick answers when dealing with a crime like this Determined to uncover the true story he enlists the aide of Tina Thompson the paper s city editor to run interference at the office Tommy Hernandez the paper s intern to help him with legwork on the streets and Tynesha Dales a local stripper to take him to Newark s underside It turns out that the four victims have one connection after all and this knowledge will put Carter on the path of one very ambitious killer

The Dancing Face Mike Phillips,2025-08-12 This book is brutal deep cunning and unbearably beautiful The Independent A blistering original thriller that examines the powerful link between identity sacrifice and possession as a Black university professor plans a burglary to liberate an African sculpture from a London museum University lecturer Gus knows that stealing the priceless Benin mask the Dancing Face from a museum at the heart of the British establishment will gain an avalanche of attention Which is exactly what he wants But such a risky theft will also inevitably capture the attention of characters with more money more power and fewer morals Naively entangling his loved ones in his increasingly dangerous pursuit of righteous reparation is Gus prepared for what it will cost him

Faces on the Clock Larry Bauer-Scandin,2010-05-28 This guy is tough and so is his message By Ruben Rosario Pioneer Press St Paul MN August 2011 Edited for length Like the U S Postal Service apparently nothing keeps Larry Bauer Scandin foster dad to 125 from his self appointed rounds Not the weather Not the heart ailments or the genetic neurological disorder that robbed him of movement and rendered him legally blind The 64 year old Vadnais Heights resident just gets up and does it My life was normal for the first nine years of my life until 1957 when my foot went to sleep except that my foot never woke up Bauer Scandin told a group of inmates from the 3100 unit at the Dakota County Jail But that s not the main message that Bauer Scandin a retired probation officer and jail counselor wants to deliver on this day Whom do you blame for your problems he asks the group of 34 men who are members of IMC or Inmates Motivated to Change Under the program inmates with chemical dependency or mostly nonviolent offenses sign an agreement to take part in several programs and pledge not to make the same mistakes that keep landing them in lock up What people need to do is stand in front of a mirror and ask How much of the problem is mine and how much is it somebody else I first wrote about Bauer Scandin five years ago It was centered on his life as a foster parent As he told the inmates two of his former foster kids are cops one in St Paul Two are soldiers deployed to Iraq One s a millionaire One s an author Most are raising families or staying out of trouble in spite of hardships But 15 are dead said Bauer Scandin author of Faces on the Clock an engrossing memoir about his life The dead include suicide victims including an 11 year old others from AIDS and my last one they found in three or four pieces as I understand Bauer Scandin s worth writing about again for what he continues to do at great pain and sacrifice without pay or fanfare He didn t sugarcoat or pull punches with his audience What I m afraid is still happening is that the system is trying to figure out how to get tighter he told them The sentences are getting tougher And it s not the police the sheriffs the courts or even the folks in state and county run corrections that are responsible for the race to incarcerate It s the legislature Bauer Scandin said And legislatures have been known to do very stupid things He also faults the media and a gullible public that forms opinions and dehumanizes people strictly on what they watch on TV and not on real life experiences or knowledge What do they see he said They see the Charlie Mansons They see the unusual They see the extreme Most of you aren't that way But that's what makes the news Yet he doesn't divert from his main message It's up to the inmate to take a positive step and choose the right way Get yourself back into a position where you can influence those people to be able to go to a school board or a city council or legislative meeting and have your voice heard You can't fight the system from in here he concluded You have to be out there The inmates applauded and one by one stood in line to shake his hand on his way out the jail complex His progressively debilitating disorder is taking more of a toll these days But he steered the scooter inside the van and deftly wiggled his frail body into the driver's seat He has no complaints he told me He will continue to go out and speak as long as God and his wife allow him I hope something stuck he tells me before he drives off I hope so too Larry Face to Face Marty Folsom, 2014-07-01

The fullness of human relating is not an accident nor is it achieved alone We are created to connect in this shared life as we gain tools and insights to collaborate as companions In this second volume of Face to Face Discovering Relational journey with a relational theologian into the little explored realm of personal relationships Are you ready to discover practical steps to enter into ways of deeper knowing and being known Allow a seasoned adventurer to guide you into moments of discovery through story metaphor and simple penetrating thoughts Written in rich and revealing language this companion volume to Missing Love speaks wisdom toward living in joyful relationships Discover a map to take you there in the pages of this innovative groundbreaking book Where There's Smoke Simon Beckett, 2022-07-05

In this psychological thriller from the author of The Chemistry of Death a woman's journey to motherhood leads her into deadly territory Successful single and fiercely independent Kate Powell has always taken charge of her own life But lately she's felt that something is missing She wants a child and she's determined to have one on her own terms Artificial insemination seems like the best option but Kate doesn't want to go through life not knowing who her child's father is After putting out an ad to find a suitable father Kate finds the perfect candidate Alex Turner seems to be the answer to all of Kate's problems But she's about to learn that appearances can be deceiving Soon Kate's life is out of her hands and dangerously out of control

Shadow Faces Rayce Bannon, 2007-06 Actually I'm a murder aficionado You could even call me a homicide junkie Most people have rather benign run of the mill phobias such as a fear of spiders heights or public speaking But what happens when fear becomes so consuming that it seizes control of a person's life Matt Curtis a senior manager with a consulting company is overwhelmed with self doubt His personal life is falling apart and his job is like quicksand threatening to swallow him at any moment His ultimate fear however is being alone And that fear has come to call on Curtis as a supernatural creature in the shape of a tall slender man wearing an expensive black suit and answering to the name Lazarus Douleur On a mission to terrorize Curtis Douleur removes one woman after another from Curtis's life through a series of bizarre and brutal murders that leave police baffled and Curtis filled with grief stricken with terror and looking suspect Curtis must decide whether he will stand idly by and let Douleur systematically dismantle his life and kill innocent women in the process or muster the courage to wrestle his fear and use it to his advantage Insomniac City Bill Hayes, 2018-01-16 Amazon's Best Biographies and Memoirs of 2017 List This touching memoir of the late neurologist Oliver Sacks by a photographer and writer with whom he fell in love near the end of his life turns a story of death into a celebration The New Yorker A beautifully written once in a lifetime book about love about life soul and the wonderful loving genius Oliver Sacks and New York and laughter and all of creation Anne Lamott Bill Hayes came to New York City in 2009 with a one way ticket and only the vaguest idea of how he would get by But at forty eight years old having spent decades in San Francisco he craved change Grieving over the death of his partner he quickly discovered the profound consolations of the city's incessant rhythms the sight of the Empire State Building against the night sky and New Yorkers themselves kindred souls that Hayes a lifelong insomniac encountered on late night strolls with his camera And he unexpectedly fell in love again with his friend and neighbor the writer and neurologist Oliver Sacks whose exuberance I don't so much fear death as I do wasting life he tells Hayes early on is captured in funny and touching vignettes throughout What emerges is a portrait of Sacks at his most personal and endearing from falling in love for the first time at age seventy five to facing illness and death Sacks died of cancer in August 2015 Insomniac City is both a meditation on grief and a celebration of life Filled with Hayes's distinctive street photos of everyday New Yorkers the book is a love song to the city and to all who have felt the particular magic and solace it offers Sweet Tooth Ian McEwan, 2012-08-28 1 INTERNATIONAL BESTSELLER Espionage and love entwine in this utterly thrilling The Globe and Mail tragic masterpiece from Booker Prize winner Ian McEwan A web of spying subterfuge deceit and betrayal Winningly cunning Sunday Times One of the most original compelling works of McEwan's career Maclean's Serena Frome the beautiful mathematician daughter of an Anglican bishop has a brief affair with an older man during her final year at Cambridge before taking a job with MI5 in London The year is 1972 Britain confronting economic disaster is being torn apart by industrial unrest and terrorism the Cold War has entered a moribund phase but the fight goes on and British Intelligence hesitates at little to influence hearts and minds MI5 sends Serena a compulsive reader of novels on a secret mission that brings her to Tom Healy a promising young writer First she loves his stories then she begins to love the man Can she maintain the fiction of her undercover life What is deception and who is deceiving whom To answer these questions Serena must abandon the first rule of espionage trust no one Ian McEwan's mastery is more dazzling than ever in this superb story of intrigue love and mutual betrayal Cafeteria Management, 1921 Uncommon Sense Gary S. Becker, Richard A. Posner, 2009-11-15 On December 5 2004 the still developing blogosphere took one of its biggest steps toward mainstream credibility as Nobel Prize winning economist Gary S. Becker and renowned jurist and legal scholar Richard A. Posner announced the formation of the Becker Posner Blog In no time the blog had established a wide readership and reputation as a reliable source of lively thought provoking commentary on current events its pithy and profound weekly essays highlighting the value of economic reasoning when applied to unexpected topics Uncommon Sense gathers the most important and innovative entries from the blog arranged by topic along with updates and even reconsiderations when subsequent events have shed new light on a question Whether it s Posner making the economic case for the legalization of gay marriage Becker arguing in favor of the sale of human organs for transplant or even the pair of scholars vigorously disagreeing about the utility of collective punishment the writing is always clear the interplay energetic and the resulting discussion deeply informed and intellectually substantial To have a single thinker of the stature of a Becker or Posner addressing questions of this nature would make for fascinating reading to have both writing and responding to each other is an exceptionally rare treat With Uncommon Sense they invite the adventurous reader to join them on a whirlwind intellectual journey All they ask is that you leave your preconceptions behind

Hong Kong Connections

Meaghan Morris,Siu Leung Li,Stephen Ching-kiu Chan,2005-10-01 Since the 1960s Hong Kong cinema has helped to shape one of the world s most popular cultural genres action cinema Hong Kong action films have proved popular over the decades with audiences worldwide and they have seized the imaginations of filmmakers working in many different cultural traditions and styles How do we account for this appeal which changes as it crosses national borders Hong Kong Connections brings leading film scholars together to explore the uptake of Hong Kong cinema in Japan Korea India Australia France and the US as well as its links with Taiwan Singapore and the Chinese mainland In the process this collective study examines diverse cultural contexts for action cinema s popularity and the problems involved in the transnational study of globally popular forms suggesting that in order to grasp the history of Hong Kong action cinema s influence we need to bring out the differences as well as the links that constitute popularity
