

The phrase rush to judgement is a silly one. When it comes to judgement, most of us don't have have to rush. We don't have to even leave the couch. Our judgement is easy to reach for.

Rush To Judgement:

Rush to Judgement Mark Lane, 1967 Rush to Judgment Mark Lane, 1966 A critique of the Warren Commission's Inquiry into the murders of President John F. Kennedy, Officer J. D. Tippit, and Lee Harvey Oswald Rush to Judgment Mark Lane, 1967 New Documentary Stella Bruzzi, 2002-01-04 New Documentary A Critical Introduction provides a comprehensive account of the last two decades of documentary filmmaking in Britain, the US, and Europe. Stella Bruzzi's engaging textbook discusses key genres, filmmakers, and issues for the study of non-fiction film and television, including key texts such as the Zapruder film of Kennedy's assassination, Shoah, Hoop Dreams, and Michael Apted's 7 Up series. It covers documentary genres from current affairs programming to fly on the wall documentaries to reality TV series, the work of documentary filmmakers such as Emile de Antonio, Fred Wiseman, Nick Broomfield, Molly Dineen, and Paul Watson, the work of avant-garde filmmakers such as Chris Marker, Patrick Keiller, Peter Greenaway, and Wim Wenders, whose films challenge conventions of documentary filmmaking. Movies based on historical events such as JFK and Nixon, faux documentaries such as This is Spinal Tap, Bob Roberts, and Man Bites Dog, gender identity, queer theory, performance, race, and spectatorship. Bruzzi shows how theories of documentary filmmaking can be applied to contemporary texts and genres and discusses the relationship between recent innovative examples of the genre and the more established canon of documentary. New Challenges for Documentary Alan Rosenthal, John Corner, 2005-05-13 The first edition of this book provided a major stimulus for teaching about documentary film and television and fresh encouragement for critical thinking about practice. This second edition brings together many new contributions both from academics and filmmakers reflecting shifts both in documentary production itself and in ways of discussing it. Once again, the emphasis has been on clear and provocative writing sympathetic to the practical challenges of documentary filmmaking but making connections with a range of work in media and communications analysis. With its wide range of contributors and the international scope of its agenda, this will be essential reading for general filmmakers and documentary students both of academic and practical inclinations. Rush to Judgment Mark Lane, 1966 Matthew 1-13 Manlio Simonetti, Thomas C. Oden, 2001-09-10 The Gospel of Matthew stands out as a favorite biblical text among patristic commentators, including Origen, Hilary of Poitiers, Jerome, Theodore of Heraclea, Cyril of Alexandria, John Chrysostom, Augustine, and more. In this ACCS volume, the rich abundance of patristic comment provides a feast of ancient interpretation of the First Gospel. An Epistemic Theory of Democracy Robert E. Goodin, Kai Spiekermann, 2018-04-26 Democracy has many attractive features. Among them is its tendency to track the truth at least under certain idealized assumptions. That basic result has been known since 1785 when Condorcet published his famous jury theorem. But that theorem has typically been dismissed as little more than a mathematical curiosity with assumptions too restrictive for it to apply to the real world. In An Epistemic Theory of Democracy, Goodin and Spiekermann propose different ways of interpreting voter independence and competence to make jury theorems more generally applicable. They go on to assess a wide range of familiar political practices and alternative institutional arrangements to determine what constellation of them might most fully exploit the truth tracking potential of majoritarian democracy The book closes with a discussion of how epistemic democracy might be undermined using as case studies the Trump and Brexit campaigns The Fifth World Francis J. Cebulski, Frank Cebulski, 2010 Nearly all of the poems in this collection were written within a period of three months consecutively one a day I deliberately set myself the task of writing a poem a day for as long as I could sustain the effort and keep my creative energy flowing I had before in my writing career brief periods of intense creativity where I wrote poems every day for example when I was finishing my sonnet sequence Mediterranean Sonnets I wrote fourteen sonnets in as many days These are memorable creative episodes because they don't come often and the poems deriving from such an intense focused activity are always unified and consistent in a qualitative manner by form and technique metrics and poetic pulsion The imagination grasps things with unusual clarity These sessions are always pleasurable because as Seamus Heaney once said to me after he himself had experienced such a period of creativity and productivity they bolster a bit the poet's belief in his own genius Not that genius should be measured by the bucketful but there is a certain confirmed value in sustained performance Many poets of course have achieved similar and greater feats of poetic muscularity in the modern era Rilke for one in writing Sonnets to Orpheus February 2-5 1922 at Chateau de Muzot in Switzerland and William Carlos Williams who wrote something every day for a year for Kora in Hell Improvisations 1917 September 1918 published in 1920 and this while he was working every day as a pediatrician and general physician in his other profession Williams vowed not to change a word as written of course this did not happen as his critical faculties prevailed as have mine in this collection I am myself pleased and surprised by how many of these poems stand as first written The Grassy Knoll Witnesses Harry A. Yardum, 2009-02 Compilation of 26 rare interviews with those standing on or near the grassy knoll in Dealey Plaza Dallas Tex November 22 1963 at the assassination of President John F Kennedy Included are interviews from United States Government officials and medical experts who knew to a scientific certainty that JFK was shot from the front at least once possibly twice Pref p v Rush to judgement; critique of the Warren C... M Lane, Madam Foreman Amana Cooley, Carrie Bess, Marsha Rubin-Jackson, Tom Byrnes, 2012-02-27 For better or worse The People vs O J Simpson served as a mirror of modern America It was all there wealth fame celebrity sex race adultery drugs domestic abuse and murder acted out by a cast that cut across all segments of society in a drama that polarized the nation And to witness it all anyone had to do was turn on the television As winter turned to spring and spring to summer opinions formed and then hardened Research polls reported deep divisions along racial lines and the opinion pages filled with commentary that tried to explain how so many could look at the same evidence and reach such starkly different conclusions But what people saw in the trial of the century simply reflected their own backgrounds and beliefs In the end that was the most revealing verdict of all Capturing the experiences of the jurors who decided this trial was not an easy feat Throughout this book the insight and opinions of the

Citizenship, Education and Violence Waghid Yusef,2013-12-30 The focus of this book is to offer a humane rocesponse to dealing with violence An interpretive analysis is presented in order to think differently about violence in schools and about how a citizenship education of becoming can deal with the unpredictable consequences of violence in its own potentiality It seems to the authors that given the confident onslaught of violence there is nothing left to do but to offer insight into the nature of violence itself and by so doing to search for unexplored ways of humane response and being The authors are not pretending to hold a magic wand that will sanctify schools into the safe zones that they ought to be and as which they should serve in any society This would be both presumptuous and misleading What one is looking and hoping for however is a renewed engagement a slight tilting of the perspective so that something other than how we have always responded to violence perhaps will emerge The authors are confident that such a deconstructive approach to violence in schools through the lens of a reconsidered view of citizenship education can assist them and others to wrestle with its potential for destruction that can be changed into options for co belonging of a non violent if not peaceful kind
