Sacred Matters Associate Professor of American Religious History and Culture Gary Laderman,Gary Laderman,2011-02 Widely praised in hardcover as a fascinating and important addition to religious and cultural studies Sacred Matters reveals the remarkable ways that religious practices permeate American cultural life In a country where references to God are as normal as proclaiming love of country support for the military or security for the nation s children religion scholar Gary Laderman casts his eye over our deeply hidden spiritual landscape questioning whether our conventional views even begin to capture the rich and strange diversity of religious life in America A compelling read Sacred Matters shows that genuinely religious practices and experiences can be found in the unlikelyst of places in science laboratories and movie theaters at the Super Bowl and Star Trek conventions and in Americans obsession with prescription drugs and pornography When devoted fans make a pilgrimage to Graceland because of their love for Elvis Laderman argues their behavior doesn t just seem religious it is religious enacting a well known ritual pattern toward saints in the history of Christianity In a dramatic reframing of what is holy and secular Sacred Matters makes a powerful and illuminating case that religion is everywhere and that we have barely begun to reckon with its hold on our cultural life Catholic Literature and Film Nancy

Enright,2016-11-21 Catholic Literature and Film Incarnational Love and Suffering is meant to be considered as a work of literary criticism not film adaptation studies In it the author explores six literary works dealing with Catholic themes and the film versions of these works The discussion of the films is at the service of analyzing the texts Underlying all the discussions is an incarnational sacramental view of the texts which links to my interpretation of the film versions of them Catholic and actually any Christian interpretation of literature or film or any other art form is rooted in an iconic and sacramental understanding of imagery as a means of conveying the sacred Catholic spirituality lends itself to this sort of approach as it is deeply rooted in the ability to see sacred things through physical means A key sub theme is romantic love in connection with salvation which Charles Williams one of the Inklings the group of British writers including J R R Tolkien and C S Lewis who met and discussed literature and theology calls the theology of romantic love as well as the sub themes of redemptive suffering and grace My interest in the book is not an analysis of cinematography per se but on the films as vehicles for religious ideas What makes this approach unique is that it doesn t deal with only faith and film as Peter Frazer does very well in his book Images of the Passion The Sacramental Mode in Film for example it also goes beyond the realm of strict literary criticism in its tackling of how religiously oriented works of literature are affected by the transformation into film

The Introspective Realist Crime Film Luis M. García-Mainar,2016-06-10 This book explores the formal and thematic conventions of crime film the contexts in which these have flourished and their links with the social issues of a globalized world The crime film has traditionally been identified with suspense a heterogeneous aesthetic and a tacit social mind However a good number of the crime films produced since the early 2000s have shifted their focus from action or suspense and towards melodrama in narratives that highlight the social dimension of crime intensify their realist aesthetics and dwell on subjectivity With the 1940s wave of Hollywood semi documentary crime films and 1970s generic revisionism as antecedents these crime films find inspiration in Hollywood cinema and constitute a transnational trend With a close look at Steven Soderbergh s Traffic 2000 David Fincher s Zodiac 2007 Jacques Audiard s Un prophète 2009 and Tomas Alfredson s Tinker Tailor Soldier Spy 2011 this book sets out the stylistic and thematic conventions contexts and cultural significance of a new transnational trend in crime film memoirs and short stories are all discussed with an emphasis on detailing what is common and expected with returning veterans and what is unique for each postwar era Integrating Literature in the Content Areas Sharon Kane, 2017-05-12 This practical accessible resource will help future and practicing teachers integrate literature into their middle school or high school classrooms while also addressing content area standards and improving the literacy skills of their students Two introductory chapters are followed by five chapters that each cover a different genre Chapter 3 Informational Books Chapter 4 Fiction Chapter 5 Biography Autobiography and Memoir Chapter 6 Poetry and Chapter 7 How to and Hands on Books Each genre chapter consists of four parts Part 1 Discusses the genre and how content area teachers can use books within that genre to further content learning and enhance literacy skills Part 2 Offers hands on instructional strategies and activities using literature with activities for use in a variety of disciplines Part 3 Presents individual author studies three or four per chapter with bibliographies and guidelines for using the authors books in content area courses Part 4 Features an annotated bibliography of specially selected children and young adult literature for that genre organized by content area The annotations provide information about the book which can be used to prepare booktalks and teaching ideas for using in a specific content area Altogether these sections contain more than 600 annotated entries tabbed by subject area including art English language arts languages and culture math and technology music PE health science and social studies history

Tolerance Discourse and Young Adult Holocaust Literature Rachel Dean-Ruzicka, 2016-11-25 What exactly does one mean when idealizing tolerance as a solution to cultural conflict This book examines a wide range of young adult texts both fiction and memoir representing the experiences of young adults during WWII and the Holocaust Author Rachel Dean Ruzicka argues for a progressive reading of this literature Tolerance Discourse and Young Adult Holocaust Literature contests the modern discourse of tolerance encouraging educators and readers to more deeply engage with difference and identity when studying Holocaust texts Young adult Holocaust literature is an important nexus for examining issues of identity and difference because it directly confronts systems of power privilege and personhood The text delves into the wealth of material available and examines over forty books written for young readers on the Holocaust and in the last chapter neo Nazism The book also looks at representations of non Jewish victims such as the Romani the disabled and homosexuals In addition to critical analysis of the texts each chapter reads the discourses of tolerance and cosmopolitanism against present day cultural contexts ongoing debates regarding multicultural education gay and lesbian rights and neo Nazi activities The book addresses essential questions of tolerance and toleration that have not been otherwise considered in Holocaust studies or cultural studies of children s literature Life Writing as World Literature Helga Lenart-Cheng, Ioana Luca, 2025-05-01 A global array of contributors explore the interplay between translation and circulation mediums and materialities and aesthetics and politics in how life writing is shaped by and becomes world literature We live in the age of popular self representation in that most people around the globe either produce or consume autobiographical material memoirs selfies blogs etc The current volume investigates this global phenomenon and examines how life writing and world literature converge Why do some personal stories get picked up translated circulated and taught in classrooms while others remain moored in local waters Do autobiographical stories that travel widely have something in common about them Or is it the other way around is it our notion of world literature that imposes uniform expectations on these diverse texts And what can we gain from studying these two fields in conjunction Life Writing as World Literature brings together experts who map regional and local autobiographical traditions from six continents These scholars explore the dynamic interplay between local and global aesthetics and sociopolitical concerns presenting case studies that include prison narratives from communist regimes Japanese diaries multilingual Caribbean memoirs Indian auto biographical comics and stories by Taiwanese domestic workers To understand how and why some personal stories enter global dissemination contributors inquire into translation market mechanisms and circulation patterns while also exploring the affordances of new media and materialities when recording contemporary lives Life Writing as World Literature brings a fresh perspective to both fields world literature and life writing opening up exciting avenues of research

Hooked in Film John Markert,2013-05-23 Though drug use was widespread in the nineteenth century the negative influence of narcotics was mostly unknown Cinema of the early twentieth century was instrumental in making viewers aware of the harmful effects of drugs Throughout the decades images of drugs such as marijuana LSD and heroin in films impacted both negatively and positively the national perception of their use In fact the use popularity and opinion of certain drugs often follow their status on the big screen In Hooked in Film John Markert takes a close look at the correlation between social policies and the public view of drugs and their portrayals in film In this volume Markert examines the changing social attitudes toward illegal drugs and their cinematic depictions from as early as the 1894 film Chinese Opium Den to the present The first section of this book focuses on the demonization of drugs between 1900 and 1959 followed by an assessment of marijuana on the big screen after 1960 when the drug was shown as part of everyday life with no serious consequences Post 1960 depictions of heroin use which have remained consistently negative are also analyzed Markert then takes a close look at the portrayals of powdered cocaine after the 1960s and the emergence of crack in the mid 1980s Finally Markert discusses hallucinogens Ecstasy and methamphetamines and their roles on the big screen Tracking hundreds of films spanning more than a century Hooked in Film looks at camp classics like Reefer Madness comedies such as Cheech and Chong's Up in Smoke Dazed and Confused and Pineapple Express and dramas including Panic in Needle Park and Requiem for a Dream Scholars and students of cinema popular culture media studies and sociology will find this book a valuable examination of how cinematic portrayals of drugs have changed over time and how those images have influenced public perception of drugs and even public policy
