crunch Conflict Areas in the Caucasus and Central Asia Arda Özkan, Göktürk Tüysüzoglu, 2022-01-25 The Caucasus region and Central Asia covers a large part of the Eurasian Both regions where Russia and China have a serious influence and visibility also have a location that reflects the hegemonic expectations of both these actors In this context domestic political developments and even internal conflicts in the region can be linked to the policies of Russia and China to a certain extent and have the potential to affect the motives of these two powers Although Central Asia is rich in natural resources it is landlocked and has lagged other nations in terms of agricultural production and industrial development Although the Caucasus is divided into the North the territory of Russia and the South where three independent states are located it is insufficient in terms of production and development The Caucasus stands out especially with energy projects and its feature of being a commercial corridor Russia's Energy Interests in Azerbaijan Fariz Ismailzade, 2006 In 2003 2004 an increased number of senior Russian officials and major energy companies such as Itera Gazprom and RAO UES visited Baku in the hopes of participating in energy projects in Azerbaijan While maintaining diplomatic relations with Moscow Azerbaijan is more hesitant when it comes to close cooperation with Russian energy companies Baku fears that if Russia gains more assets in Azerbaijan control of these assets will be used for political purposes This unique study looks at the confluence of Russian private and public sector interest Azerbaijan's energy sector This series of reports establishes for the first time the confluence of Russian foreign policy with the acquisition of foreign energy assets by Russian entities Nine specific country profiles focus on the oil gas electricity and nuclear power industries Each report written by an author of international standing explains how Russian foreign energy downstream mergers and acquisitions are transpiring to consolidate the new Russian empire Iran-Turkey Relations, 1979-2011 Suleyman Elik, 2013-03 This book explores the diplomatic security and energy relations of Turkey and Iran analysing the impact of religious political and social transformation on their bilateral relationship It examines Turkey and Iran's security relations with the wider Middle East including the Kurdish Turkish War the Kurdish Iranian War and the Kurdish Arab War and their impact on regional politics New States, New Politics Ian Bremmer, Ray Taras, 1996-12-28 Since its publication in 1993 Nations and Politics in the Soviet Successor States edited by Ian Bremmer and Ray Taras has established itself internationally as the genuinely comprehensive systematic and rigorous analysis of the nation and state building processes of the fifteen states that grew out of the 1991 collapse of the Soviet Union New States New Politics Building the Post Soviet Nations was first published in 1997 and succeeds and replaces the editors earlier book with a fresh collection of specially commissioned studies from the world's foremost specialists Far from eradicating tensions among the former Soviet peoples the disintegration of empire saw national minorities rediscovering long suppressed identities The contributors to New States New Politics bring together historical and ethnic backgrounds with penetrating political analysis to offer an intriguing record of the different roads to self assertion and independence being pursued by these young nations Iran in the 21st Century Homa Katouzian, Hossein Shahidi, 2007-10-15 This book examines Iran and its position in the contemporary world It contains chapters on social developments in the country including gender relations contemporary politics international relations relations with the US and Israel nuclear weapons and energy programmes oil and the development of the economy

The Dynamics of Iranian Borders Mansoureh Ebrahimi, Masoumeh Rad Goudarzi, Kamaruzaman Yusoff, 2018-06-15 This book is on Iran's geopolitical importance representing a continuum of international competition for political gains and economic benefit due to the country's unique geographical location that has always been a cause of contention Iran's massive borders and evolving political weakness along with influences from the kings of Qajar that maintained and strengthened Great Britain's hegemony in the region were major factors affecting ongoing regional conflicts Additional roles played by other world powers such as France Russia and the United States are also noted Conflicts unrest and regional wars were all consequences arising from power struggles that led to treaties and international agreements between Iran Britain and Russia that caused the eventual loss of traditional Iranian territories Hence extrinsic impositions on Iran are the subject of this study as authors examine the turbulent climate that altered Iranian borders during the Qajar Dynasty

Geopolitics and Energy Security Policies in the Caspian Region Justyna Misiągiewicz, 2024-05-13 The analysis of geopolitics and energy security policies in the Caspian region is a challenging research task This is because of the specific development of international relations in this region and the evolution of its importance in the context of the functioning of the global energy market Due to its special geopolitical location in central Eurasia and at the junction at the world's largest trading routes the region is gaining in importance both politically and economically in contemporary international relations and becoming a place where actors involved satisfy the need for energy security

Contemporary Russo-Turkish Relations Ali Askerov, 2018-06-20 The Syrian Civil War started in March 2011 and still continues It causes death turmoil humanitarian crisis and mass migration in the region Numerous state and non state actors are involved in this multi sided armed conflict On 24 November 2015 Turkey shoots down a Russian fighter jet on its border and this event becomes the turning point in Russo Turkish relations An economic and psychological war starts between Moscow and Ankara which damages their good relations existed before the crisis Despite the crisis the sides to the conflict understand that they need each other for their own benefits and look for reconciliation Russia a supporter of the Assad government in Syria does not want to lose Turkey as a friend Turkey an energy partner of Russia needs Russia to balance the power relations in the region They are two neighboring countries with strong historical socio economic ties that need to be restored The reconciliation process is not easy and requires some third party role The PYD YPG centered US policy in Syria affects Turkey's strategies
