Dancing in the Wild Spaces of Love James H. Olthuis, 2022-06-08. In the twenty-first century, amid globalized violence, rising demagogues, and the climate emergency, contemporary philosophers and theologians have begun to debate a fundamental question: Is our reality the result of the overflowing, ever-present creativity of Love, or the symptom of a traumatic rupture at the heart of all things? Drawing on decades of research in postmodern philosophy and experience as a psychotherapist, James H. Olthuis wades into this discussion to propose a radical ontology of Love without metaphysics. In dialogue with philosophers like John D. Caputo, Slavoj Žižek, Luce Irigaray, and others, Olthuis explores issues from divine sovereignty and the problem of evil to trauma and social ethics. Experience in therapeutic work informs these investigations, rooting them in journeys with individuals on the path to healing. Olthuis makes the bold claim that while trauma, pain, and suffering are significant parts of our human lives, nevertheless, Love is with us to the very end. Creation is a gift that comes with a call to make something of it ourselves; a risky task we must take on with the promise that Love will win. We are all dancing in the wild spaces of Love: ex amore cum amore ad amorem.

Primary Love Randall S. Klein, 2010-06-05. In Primary Love, Dr. Klein describes love and intimacy as they evolve in the context of family relations from birth to maturity in adulthood. Once the original attachment and the loving, intimate bond between a mother and her infant child are established, primary love is founded and secured. Every relationship of love and intimacy formed thereafter has as its foundation, nature, and design the original, pristine loving relationship encountered in the very earliest period of life. When two adults form a mature, intimate relationship, it is the unconscious wish of both partners to recapture and claim the bliss and the ecstasy of primary love, nestled securely in a mother's loving and ministering arms. Dr. Klein's view of love and intimacy is that which is found in the ideal marriage and family, fully acknowledging that the pure and perfect marriage and family does not exist. Yet the perfectly described nature of marriage and the family serves as an ideal toward which to strive for the ideal, provides the ultimate of pleasure and reward in the human encounter of love.
