Loving Testimony Remembering Loved Ones Lost To Aids:

A Loving Testimony Lesléa Newman, 1995 Seventy seven writers have contributed to this collection of first person essays and poems that speak about the experience of losing a loved one to AIDS AIDS Narratives Steven F. Kruger, 2013-10-28 This is the first book length study of the rich fiction that has emerged from the AIDS crisis Examining first the ways in which scientific discourse on AIDS has reflected ideologies of gender and sexuality such as the construction of AIDS as a disease of gay men part of a battle over masculinity and thus largely excluding women with AIDS from public attention the book considers how such discourses have shaped narrative understandings of AIDS On the one hand AIDS is seen as an invariably fatal weakening of an individual s bodily defenses a depiction often used to reconfirm an identification between disease and a weak and vulnerable gayness On the other hand AIDS is understood in terms of an epidemic attributable to gay immorality or unnaturalness The fiction of AIDS depends upon these two narratives with one major subgenre of AIDS novel presenting narratives of personal illness decline and death and a second focusing on epidemic spread These novels also question the narrative structures upon which they depend intervening particularly against the homophobia of those structures though also sometimes reinforcing it AIDS Literature and Gay Identity Monica B. Pearl, 2013 This book discusses the significance of late twentieth century and early twenty first century American fiction written in response to the AIDS crisis and interrogates how sexual identity is depicted and constructed textually Pearl develops Freudian psychoanalytic theory in a complex account of the ways in which grief is expressed and worked out in literature showing how key texts from the AIDS crisis by authors such as Edmund White Michael Cunningham Eve Sedgwick and also later the archives of The ACT UP Oral History Project lie both within the tradition of gay writing and a postmodernist poetics The book demonstrates how literary texts both expose and construct personal identity how they expose and produce sexual identities and how gay and queer identities were written onto the page but also constructed and consolidated by these very texts Pearl argues that the division between realist and postmodern and gay and queer respectively is determined by whether the experience expressed and accounted is mediated through the psychoanalytic categories of mourning or melancholia and is marked by a kind of coherence or chaos in the texts themselves This study presents an important development in scholarly work in gay literary studies queer theory and AIDS representation Lesbian and Gay Voices Frances A. Day, 2000-06-30 With a foreword by Nancy Garden the highly acclaimed author of Young Adult Fiction this thoughtfully written annotated bibliography reviews picture books young adult fiction short stories nonfiction works and biographies for young readers Entries specify the age level appropriateness of each work as well as literary awards received for the work Each annotation is followed by a list of topics in the work which the user will find cross referenced in the topic index With additional recommendations on books for librarians educators and parents and a set of suggested guidelines for evaluating books this user friendly guide is valuable as both a reader resource and as collection development tool The guide also provides author
