Ludwig Marum Ludwig Marum, Jörg Schadt, Joachim W. Storck, 1984-01 Briefe aus dem Konzentrationslager Kislau
Ludwig Marum, 1988 Before the Holocaust Hermann Beck, 2022 As the Nazis staged their takeover in 1933 instances of antisemitic violence began to soar Hermann Beck examines the types of antisemitic violence experienced in the prelude to the Holocaust as well as the reactions of the German institutions and elites who still had some capacity to protest these Nazi attacks but often chose to remain silent Guide to the Archival Materials of the German-speaking Emigration to the United States after 1933. Volume 3 John M. Spalek, Sandra H. Hawrylchak, 2014-02-21 No detailed description available for GUIDE ARCHIVAL MAT VOL 3 E BOOK Before Auschwitz Kim Wünschmann, 2015-03-16 Nazis began detaining Jews in camps as soon as they came to power in 1933 Kim Wünschmann reveals the origin of these extralegal detention sites the harsh treatment Jews received there and the message the camps sent to Germans that Jews were enemies of the state dangerous to associate with and fair game for acts of intimidation and violence Ludwig Marum Monika Pohl, 2003 Der Ort des Terrors Wolfgang Benz, Barbara Distel, Angelika Königseder, 2005 The introduction to the first part of this volume Flossenbürg Stammlager pp 17 66 by Jörg Skriebeleit describes the construction and functioning of the camp at Flossenbürg Pp 67 288 describe its satellite camps each entry by a different author The introduction to the second part Mauthausen Stammlager pp 293 346 by Florian Freund and Bertrand Perz traces the history of the camp at Mauthausen Pp 347 470 present its satellite camps The introduction to the third part Ravensbrück Stammlager pp 473 520 by Annette Leo discusses the camp for women in Ravensbrück Pp 521 607 describe its satellite camps Throughout the book Jews are mentioned sporadically I Didn't Want to Float, I Wanted to Belong to Something Anthony Grenville, Andrea Ilse Maria Reiter, 2008 This volume fills an important gap in research on the refugees from Nazism who settled in Britain by giving a full and wide ranging account of the organisations that they established The contributions cover these organisations chronologically from those that did not outlast the war to those still active today and in terms of their function as cultural or religious institutions as historical resources for the study of Nazism and the refugees or as all purpose representative refugee associations Any scholar or student working in this field needs to have an understanding of the organisations that were and are so characteristic of the refugee community The United States Holocaust Memorial Museum Encyclopedia of Camps and Ghettos, 1933-1945: Volume I Geoffrey P. Megargee, 2009-05-22 Winner of the National Jewish Book Award This valuable resource covers an aspect of the Holocaust rarely addressed and never in such detail Library Journal This is the first volume in a monumental seven volume encyclopedia reflecting years of work by the Jack Joseph and Morton Mandel Center for Advanced Holocaust Studies at the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum which will describe the universe of camps and ghettos many thousands more than previously known that the Nazis and their allies operated from Norway to North Africa and from France to Russia For the first time a single reference work will provide detailed information on each individual site This first volume covers three groups of camps the early camps that the Nazis established in the first year of Hitler's rule the major SS concentration camps with their constellations of subcamps and the special camps for Polish and German children and adolescents Overview essays provide context for each category while each camp entry provides basic information about the site's purpose prisoners guards working and living conditions and key events in the camp's history Material from personal testimonies helps convey the character of the site while source citations provide a path to additional information

The World of Aufbau Peter Schrag, 2019-03-19 Aufbau a German language weekly published in New York and circulated nationwide was an essential platform for the generation of refugees from Hitler and the displaced people and concentration camp survivors who arrived in the United States after the war The publication served to link thousands of readers looking for friends and loved ones in every part of the world In its pages Aufbau focused on concerns that strongly impacted this community in the aftermath of World War II anti-Semitism in the United States and in Europe the ever-changing immigration and naturalization procedures debates about the designation of Hitler refugees as enemy aliens questions about punishment for the Holocaust and other Nazi crimes the struggle for compensation and restitution and the fight for a Jewish homeland The book examines the columns and advertisements that chronicled the social and cultural life of that generation and maintained a detailed account of German speaking cultures in exile Peter Schrag is the first to present a definitive account of the influential publication that brought postwar refugees together and into the American mainstream

Narrating the Holocaust Andrea Reiter, Patrick Camiller, 2004-12-01 In this literary study of memoirs describing at first hand the horrors of German concentration camps the principal question asked is How did the survivors find the words to talk about experiences hitherto unknown even unimaginable Beyond being a mere analysis of discourse Narrating the Holocaust reflects the situations in camp that triggered these responses and shows how the professional authors adapted certain literary genres e.g. the travel story the Hassidic tale to serve as models for communication while the vast majority who were not trained as writers merely used the form of the report A comparison between these memoirs and the more frequently discussed camp novel identifies the different narrative strategies by which the two are determined Most of the 130 texts discussed here were published in German between 1934 and the present some famous Italian French and Polish texts have also been included for comparison
