The Hyperlinked Life Barna Group,,Jun Young,David Kinnaman,2014-01-07 It s an age of accelerated information and information overload The rate and way in which we receive information has changed dramatically from newspapers and radio and a few nightly news programs to constant news online We have made our lives available to the world in tweetable moments As much as we try to stop consuming the vast amounts of info coming at us we wrestle against a paranoia of missing out on important information or being out of the loop on something How can we rest from information take a Sabbath for our technology or information use How does this help us to become the right kind of factivist The onus is more and more on us to find the truth and to be aware of our own biases in what we share and don t Join Jun Young an award winning entrepreneur and communications strategist and David Kinnaman the President of Barna Group in this Barna Frame as they wrestle through what our responsibility looks like in how we read and disseminate information Annual Report of the Operations of the United States Life-Saving Service for the Fiscal Year Ending ... United States. Littell,1893 Signals from the Soul Ann Muller,2011-10 Have you ever asked yourself Why is this happening to me We hear that everything happens for a reason But what does that actually mean And why despite even our most diligent efforts is it often impossible to change what we don t want in our lives and attract what we do Our soul knows It uses our mind and our body to send us signals through physical and emotional symptoms alerting us to unresolved moments in our past that are negatively impacting the present The thoughts and beliefs formed in these experiences are blocking the power of our mind to manifest our goals and the ability of our body to heal In this memoir style account Muller invites the reader to share her path of discovery as she learns that by returning to these moments we can change even the most stubborn thoughts and beliefs and the turmoil they have created When the moment is resolved we no longer need the signal and our lives can become what we want them to be Each chapter is a transcript of an altered state regression in which Muller s inner self in infancy childhood or a past life changes its thoughts and beliefs to reclaim her power both then and now The truths revealed in this groundbreaking book are both personal and universal They open our awareness to the power we hold locked within and demonstrate how we can unlock that power when we pay attention to our soul signals and heed their messages
