

WHAT IS A HUMAN BEING?

The human being is a species of living being characterized by its ability to reason, feel, create, and relate to other individuals.

It possesses a physical body and a conscious mind that allows it to perceive the world, make decisions, and develop a wide range of emotions and experiences.

Humans have the ability to communicate through language, to form societies and cultures, and to seek purpose and meaning in life.

Additionally, they show a unique capacity for empathy and compassion towards other living beings. The human being is a complex and diverse creature that seeks to understand itself and its place in the universe.

The Oxford Handbook of Phenomenological Psychopathology Giovanni Stanghellini, Matthew Broome, Anthony Vincent Fernandez, René Rosfort, Andrea Raballo, Paolo Fusar-Poli, 2019-07-04 The field of phenomenological psychopathology PP is concerned with exploring and describing the individual experience of those suffering from mental disorders Whilst there is often an understandable emphasis within psychiatry on diagnosis and treatment the subjective experience of the individual is frequently overlooked Yet a patient's own account of how their illness affects their thoughts values consciousness and sense of self can provide important insights into their condition insights that can complement the more empirical findings from studies of brain function or behaviour The Oxford Handbook of Phenomenological Psychopathology is the first ever comprehensive review of the field It considers the history of PP its methodology key concepts and includes a section exploring individual experiences within schizophrenia depression borderline personality disorder OCD and phobia In addition it includes chapters on some of the leading figures throughout the history of this field Bringing together chapters from a global team of leading academics researchers and practitioners the book will be valuable for those within the fields of psychiatry clinical psychology and philosophy

Reason for the Hope Within Michael J. Murray, 1999 During the last two decades there has been a renaissance in the field of Christian philosophy Unfortunately most of this excellent work has not reached general readers Reason for the Hope Within was produced specifically to make available the best of contemporary Christian philosophy in a clear accessible and highly relevant manner Fourteen of America's rising Christian philosophers here cover many of the traditional themes of Christian apologetics arguments for the existence of God the problem of evil the possibility of miracles as well as topics of special relevance to today's world Eastern religions Christianity and science Christianity and ethics the existence of heaven and hell

The Eclipse of Humanity Lawrence Perlman, 2016-01-29 It has been widely assumed that Heschel's writings are poetic inspirations devoid of philosophical analysis and unresponsive to the evil of the Holocaust Who Is Man 1965 contains a detailed phenomenological analysis of man and being which is directed at the main work of Martin Heidegger found primarily in Being and Time 1927 and Letter on Humanism 1946 When the analysis of Who Is Man is unpacked in the light of these associations it is clear that Heschel rejected poetry and metaphor as a means of theological elucidation that he offered a profound examination of the Holocaust and that the major thrust of his thinking eschews Heideggerian deconstruction and the postmodernism that ensued in its phenomenological wake Who Is Man contains direct and indirect criticisms of Heidegger's notions of Dasein thrownness facticity and submission to name a few essential Heideggerian concepts In using his ontological connective method in opposition to Heidegger's ontological difference Heschel makes the argument that the biblical notion of Adam as a being open to transcendence stands in opposition to the philosophical tradition from Parmenides to Heidegger and is the only basis for a redemptive view of humanity

The Radical Choice and Moral Theory Zhenming Zhai, 1994-10-31
 In a crisp original style the author approaches the crucial question of moral theory the is ought problem via communicative argumentation Moving to the end of Habermas's conception of the communicative action he introduces the concept of radical choice as the key to the transition from the descriptive to the normative Phenomenological subjectivity of the intersubjective life world is being vindicated as the arch value of all derivative values or the first principle for all normative precepts With exceptional acumen and mastery of the philosophical argument the author a young native Chinese lately trained in a Western university delineates a fascinating route along which the philosophical question of justification raised in the analytic tradition can be answered on the basis of phenomenology A noteworthy contribution to the interplay between the Anglo American and Continental schools of philosophy

Finding a Replacement for the Soul Brett Bourbon, 2009-06-30 Approaching the study of literature as a unique form of the philosophy of language and mind as a study of how we produce nonsense and imagine it as sense this is a book about our human ways of making and losing meaning Brett Bourbon asserts that our complex and variable relation with language defines a domain of meaning and being that is misconstrued and missed in philosophy in literary studies and in our ordinary understanding of what we are and how things make sense Accordingly his book seeks to demonstrate how the study of literature gives us the means to understand this relationship The book itself is framed by the literary and philosophical challenges presented by Joyce's Finnegan's Wake and Wittgenstein's Philosophical Investigations With reference to these books and the problems of interpretation and meaning that they pose Bourbon makes a case for the fundamental philosophical character of the study of literature and for its dependence on theories of meaning disguised as theories of mind Within this context he provides original accounts of what sentences fictions non fictions and poems are produces a new account of the logical form of fiction and of the limits of interpretation that follow from it and delineates a new and fruitful domain of inquiry in which literature philosophy and science intersect

Table of Contents Preface Note on Abbreviations Introduction What Are We When We Are Not Part I The Surface of Language and the Absence of Meaning 1 From Soul Making to Person Making 2 The Logical Form of Fiction 3 The Emptiness of Literary Interpretation 4 To Be But Not To Mean 5 How Do Oracles Mean Part II Senses and Nonsenses Joyce s Finnegans Wake and Wittgenstein s Philosophical Investigations 6 A Twitterlitter of Nonsense Askesis at Finnegans Wake 7 The Analogy between Persons and Words 8 The Human Body Is the Best Picture of the Human Soul 9 The Senses of Time 10 Being Something and Meaning Something Bibliography Acknowledgments Index

This is an adventurous and unusual book Bourbon moves back and forth between literary and philosophical contexts with ease showing in multifarious ways how the one can often in unexpected ways illuminate the other Throughout these wide ranging explorations Bourbon uncovers a good deal about both the nature of literary meaning and our distinctive if tellingly irreducible relations to literary texts

The Digitalised Image of God Ximian Xu, 2024-10-08 This book focuses on the idea of the imago Dei to engaging theologically with artificial intelligence AI It reflects on how enormous progress in the development of AI has raised some challenges to Christian theology Questions explored include is AI created in the imago Dei If so does AI challenge the uniqueness of the human being as the imago Dei If not could AI be incorporated into human communities as a human companion in the same way as a natural human person Would AI eventually develop to have human level consciousness and be capable of performing liturgies and ethical actions Bringing to light the radical distinction between the imago Dei and the imago hominis the book constructs a theo ontological foundation for AI and draws on the Reformed theology of archetype ectype as a metaphysical tool to deploy a holistic account of the imago Dei in theology AI dialogues The author argues that the imago Dei is the signifier of the beginning both of God human stories and stories of human ethical performances towards others From the perspective of the image of the imago Dei it can be argued that AI can somehow participate into the narration of these religious and ethical stories This book will be of particular interest to scholars of theology and those working in the field of religion and science technology

Heidegger and Development in the Global South Siby K. George, 2015-03-05 Taking the Heideggerian critical ontology of technology as its base this volume looks at postcolonial modernization and development in the global south as the worldwide expansion of the western metaphysical understanding of reality We live today in an increasingly globalizing technological society that Martin Heidegger described in the middle of the last century as the planetary imperialism of technologically organized man Consequent upon this cultural intellectual globalization the ahistorical violent individualistic calculative and capitalistic logic of the metaphysics of technology is permeating the life world even of the world s poorest peoples in ways they could neither choose nor control This volume questions the political ethics and justice of post war development discourse in the light of the egalitarian aims of modern societies cultural freedom of communities and nations and the ecological limits of the planet The final chapters discuss the alternative proposal of development as various conceptions of good life and equitable human flourishing amidst equally flourishing non human life and non living beings This unique volume is the first book length treatment of the ontology of modernization and development in the global south from a Heideggerian stance Historical Dictionary of Heidegger's Philosophy Frank Schalow,2019-11-29 Martin Heidegger s thinking is a complex and his terminology is as nuanced as any thinker in the history of philosophy As the historian of philosophy par excellence he also exhibits both a greater appreciation and mastery of previous thinkers than any almost any other philosopher before or since The Historical Dictionary of Heidegger s Philosophy Third Edition addresses this dual challenge of reading understanding and interpreting Heidegger s vast writings The book provides a comprehensive and detailed account of the key terms shaping Heidegger s philosophy as well as outlining the development of his thought spanning the entirety of his career spanning almost sixty years The Dictionary also includes a discussion of Heidegger s seminal writings the spanning his entire Gesamtausgabe Complete Edition up through volume 99 of the projected 102 volumes This third edition of Historical Dictionary of Heidegger s Philosophy Third Edition contains a chronology an introduction appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 800 cross referenced entries that provides a clear and comprehensive exposition of the key developments in his life and his thought This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Martin Heidegger Point of Origin Br Ericjon Thomas,2012-02 The Point of Origin investigates the evolution of religious consciousness as an integral reality in the human person The evolution of religious consciousness is an experience found throughout human history beginning with the earliest known human species the Cro Magnon In this work Br Thomas identifies empirical data that lends itself to his theory that spirituality is not a bi product of the human phenomena but an essential characteristic of being human The author delves into conscious acknowledgement of the natural law as a universal norm guiding human activity in the wake of the plurality of religious expressions Atheism Buddhism Christianity Islam etc In a crescendo effect of his work Br Thomas illustrates how mysticism becomes the ultimate expression of religious consciousness in the human experience The Map of Meaning Marjolein Lips-Wiersma,Lani Morris,2017-09-08 This book introduces a Map of Meaning called the Holistic Development Model which provides a clear simple and profound framework of the dimensions and process of living and working meaningfully Epistemology Mr. Rohit Manglik,2023-08-23 In this book we will study about the theory of knowledge its sources limits and the distinction between belief and truth Alone in the World? Van Huyssteen,2006-04-12 In Alone in the World first given as the 2004 Gifford Lectures at the University of Edinburgh J Wentzel van Huyssteen develops the interdisciplinary dialogue that he set out in The Shaping of Rationality 1999 applying this methodology to the uncharted waters between theological anthropology and paleoanthropology Among other things van Huyssteen argues that scientific notions of human uniqueness help us to ground theological notions of human distinctiveness in flesh and blood embodied experiences and protect us from overly complex theological abstractions regarding the image of God Focusing on the interdisciplinary problem of human origins and distinctiveness van Huyssteen accesses the origins of the embodied human mind through the spectacular prehistoric cave paintings of western Europe fifteen of which are reproduced in color in this volume Boldly connecting the widely separated fields of Christian theology and paleoanthropology through careful interdisciplinary reflection Alone in the World will encourage sustained investigation into the question of human uniqueness Black Theology--Essays on Global Perspectives Dwight N. Hopkins, 2017-06-15 Since its start in 1966 black liberation theology in the United States has continually engaged international developments with Africa and the entire world But after Nelson Mandela was released from prison in February 1990 there has been an almost twenty year break in books on black theology and international affairs Black Theology Essays on Global Perspectives bridges that post 1990 gap and makes a vital contact with Africa again This book conceptualizes black theology to take on the global reconfigurations and opportunities brought about by the rapidly shrinking earth of fast paced worldwide contacts In other words in the specificity of the genealogy of black theology we need to reforge ties with Africa This claim is based on tradition And in the generality of the larger worldwide intertwining of technologies and economics we need a new type of black theological leadership for the twenty first century This claim is based on today s international challenges The essays in this book draw on tradition and point forward in the midst of today s worldwide challenges and favorable possibilities given the closeness of all nations and the varieties of cultures Democracy George F. McLean, Robert R. Magliola, William Fox, 2004

Between Jerusalem and Athens Alvin Dueck, 2013-12-01 What does it mean to be both a Christian and a therapist Between Jerusalem and Athens offers a compelling answer to this question It shows students and practitioners who struggle with this issue how they can authentically integrate faith and practice by considering the central life shaping theme of biblical Christian ethics the Reign of God Part 1 proposes that a distinct cultural ethic based on the central theme of the Reign of God be the context of therapy Part 2 explores how the church can be a community of ethical reflection and healing Part 3 discusses the therapist s character and a model for developing character that reflects the Reign of God

Hermeneutics John D. Caputo, 2018-01-25 Is anything ever not an interpretation Does interpretation go all the way down Is there such a thing as a pure fact that is interpretation free If not how are we supposed to know what to think and do These tantalizing questions are tackled by renowned American thinker John D Caputo in this wide reaching exploration of what the traditional term hermeneutics can mean in a postmodern twenty first century world As a contemporary of Derrida s and longstanding champion of rethinking the disciplines of theology and philosophy for decades Caputo has been forming alliances across disciplines and drawing in readers with his compelling approach to what he calls radical hermeneutics In this new introduction drawing upon a range of thinkers from Heidegger to the Parisian 1968ers and beyond he raises a series of probing questions about the challenges of life in the postmodern and maybe soon to be post human world      Reframing Catholic Theological Ethics Joseph A. Selling, 2016-03-24 Traditionally Catholic moral theology has been based upon an approach that over emphasized the role of normative ethics and subsequently associated moral responsibility with following or disobeying moral rules Reframing Catholic Theological Ethics offers an alternative ethical method which without destroying any of the valuable insights of normative ethics reorients the discipline to consider human motivation and intention before investigating behavioural options for realizing one's end Evidence from the New Testament warrants the formation of a teleological method for theological ethics which is further elaborated in the approach taken by Thomas Aquinas Unfortunately the insights of the latter were misinterpreted at the time of the counter reformation Joseph A Selling's analysis of moral theological textbooks demonstrates the entrenchment of a normative method aimed at identifying sins in service to the practice of sacramental confession With a firm basis in the teaching of Vatican II the human person integrally and adequately considered provides the fundamental criterion for approaching ethical issues in the contemporary world The perspective then turns to the crucial question of describing the ends or goals of ethical living by providing a fresh approach to the concept of virtue Selling concludes with suggestions about how to combine normative ethics with this alternative method in theological ethics that begins with the actual ethical orientation of the human person toward virtuous living
