Meaning Truth And God Boston University Studies In Philosophy And Religion V 3:

Charles Hartshorne and the Existence of God Donald Wayne Viney, 1985-06-30 In a lucid and comprehensive study Professor Viney presents an excellent critical analysis of Hartshorne's thought about God Demonstrating his thesis from many points of view ontological cosmological teleological moral aesthetic etc Viney deftly illustrates Hartshorne's belief that any one argument for God is inconclusive but that many woven together make up a convincing interpretative expression of the world

Meaning, Truth, and God Leroy S. Rouner, 1982

Gabriel Marcel and American Philosophy David W. Rodick, 2017-04-12 Gabriel Marcel and American Philosophy The Religious Dimension of Experience examines the philosophy of Gabriel Marcel and its relationship to key figures in classical American Philosophy in particular Josiah Royce William Ernest Hocking and Henry Bugbee Few scholars have taken sufficient note of the fact that Gabriel Marcel's thought is vitally informed by classical American philosophy Marcel's essays on Royce offer a window into the soul of Marcel's recent philosophical development The idealism of early Marcel stemmed from an omnipresent sense of a broken world an experience of rent or tear within the tissue of experience similar to what John Dewey referred to as an inward laceration of the spirit Furthermore Marcel's intuition concerning the primacy of intersubjective experience can help us understand W E Hocking's thought Finally Marcel's notion of l'existence ontologique clarifies his relationship to Henry Bugbee Marcel and Bugbee explore the contour of experience the indigenous circuit of associations pertaining to the self as coesence Through a reflexive act Marcel refers to as ingathering the self undergoes increasing degrees of unification by experiencing an act of faith made explicit only in a dialectical act of participation David W Rodick shows that Marcel's relationship to these American philosophers is not coincidental but rather the philosophical expression of his Christian faith Marcel's most important legacy is his commitment to unity of Christian philosophizing a unity derived from both reason and revelation Its diversity stems from the objective plurality of what is pursued as well as the subjective plurality of those who pursue it Christian philosophizing seeks a truth that every Christian believes can never be untrue to itself

God and the Meanings of Life T. J. Mawson, 2016-10-20 Some philosophers have thought that life could only be meaningful if there is no God For Sartre and Nagel for example a God of the traditional classical theistic sort would constrain our powers of self creative autonomy in ways that would severely detract from the meaning of our lives possibly even evacuate our lives of all meaning Some philosophers by contrast have thought that life could only be meaningful if there is a God God and the Meanings of Life is interested in exploring the truth in both these schools of thought seeking to discover what God could and couldn't do to make life meaningful as well as what he would and wouldn't do Mawson espouses a version of the amalgam or pluralism thesis about the issue of life's meaning in essence that there are a number of different legitimate meanings of meaning and indeed life in the question of life's meaning According to Mawson God were he to exist would help make life meaningful in some of these senses and hinder in some others He argues that whilst there could be meaning in a Godless universe there could be other sorts of meaning in a Godly one and that these would be deeper America's Philosophical Vision John E. Smith, 1992-06-15 In these previously uncollected essays Smith argues that American philosophers like Peirce James Royce and Dewey have forged a unique philosophical tradition one that is rich and complex enough to represent a genuine alternative to the analytic phenomenological and hermeneutical traditions which have originated in Britain or Europe In my judgment John Smith has no equal today in combining two scholarly qualities the analysis of philosophical texts with penetration and rigor and the discernment of what it is in these texts that matters These qualities are in evidence throughout the essays in America's Philosophical Vision Whether he is evaluating Rorty's view of Dewey the pragmatic theory of experience and truth theories of freedom creativity and the self Royce's conception of community or synoptic philosophic visions Smith always succeeds in uniting a comprehensive understanding of philosophic writings with a sure grasp of their import for human culture and aspiration It is a great benefit to students of American thought that these papers have now been collected into one volume James Gouinlock Emory University Ninian Smart on World Religions: Traditions and the challenges of modernity. I. Individual traditions. Buddhism. 'Mysticism and scripture in Theravāda Buddhism' Ninian Smart, 2009 Ninian Smart came to public prominence as the founding Professor of the first British university Department of Religious Studies in the late 1960s His pioneering views on education in religion proved hugely influential at all levels from primary schools to academic teaching and research An unending string of publications many of them accessible to the general public sustained a reputation that became worldwide Here for the first time a selection of Ninian Smart's wide ranging writings is organised systematically under a set of categories which both comprehend and also illuminate his varied output over a career spanning half a century The editor John Shepherd was Principal Lecturer in Religion and Philosophy at the University of Cumbria He first met Smart as a postgraduate student and recently helped establish the Ninian Smart Archive at the University of Lancaster Ninian Smart on World Religions John J. Shepherd, 2017-11-30 Ninian Smart came to public prominence as the founding Professor of the first British university Department of Religious Studies in the late 1960s His pioneering views on education in religion proved hugely influential at all levels from primary schools to academic teaching and research An unending string of publications many of them accessible to the general public sustained a reputation that became worldwide Here for the first time a selection of Ninian Smart's wide ranging writings is organised systematically under a set of categories which both comprehend and also illuminate his varied output over a career spanning half a century The editor John Shepherd was Principal Lecturer in Religion and Philosophy at the University of Cumbria He first met Smart as a postgraduate student and recently helped establish the Ninian Smart Archive at the University of Lancaster Time and Narrative, Volume 3 Paul Ricoeur, 2014-02-08 In the first two volumes of this work Paul Ricoeur examined the relations between time and narrative in historical writing fiction and theories of literature This final volume a comprehensive reexamination and synthesis of the ideas developed in volumes 1 and 2 stands as Ricoeur's most complete and satisfying presentation of his own philosophy Ricoeur's aim here is to explicate as fully as possible the hypothesis that has governed his inquiry namely that the effort of thinking at work in every narrative configuration is completed in a refiguration of temporal experience To this end he sets himself the central task of determining how far a poetics of narrative can be said to resolve the aporias the doubtful or problematic elements of time Chief among these aporias are the conflicts between the phenomenological sense of time that experienced or lived by the individual and the cosmological sense that described by history and physics on the one hand and the oneness or unitary nature of time on the other In conclusion Ricoeur reflects upon the inscrutability of time itself and attempts to discern the limits of his own examination of narrative discourse As in his previous works Ricoeur labors as an incomparable mediator of often estranged philosophical approaches always in a manner that compromises neither rigor nor creativity Mark Kline Taylor Christian Century In the midst of two opposing contemporary options either to flee into ever more precious readings or to retreat into ever more safe readings Ricoeur's work offers an alternative option that is critical wide ranging and conducive to new applications Mary Gerhart Journal of Religion

The Anti-Romantic Jeffrey Reid, 2014-07-31 Hegel's critique of Early German Romanticism and its theory of irony resonates to the core of his own philosophy in the same way that Plato's polemics with the Sophists have repercussions that go to the centre of his thought The Anti Romantic examines Hegel's critique of Fr Schlegel Novalis and Schleiermacher Hegel rarely mentions these thinkers by name and the texts dealing with them often exist on the periphery of his oeuvre Nonetheless individually they represent embodiments of specific forms of irony Schlegel a form of critical individuality Novalis a form of sentimental nihilism Schleiermacher a monstrous hybrid of the other two The strength of Hegel's polemical approach to these authors shows how irony itself represents for him a persistent threat to his own idea of systematic Science This is so we discover because Romantic irony is more than a rival ideology it is an actual form of discourse one whose performative objectivity interferes with the objectivity of Hegel's own logos Thus Hegel's critique of irony allows us to reciprocally uncover a Hegelian theory of scientific discourse Far from seeing irony as a form of consciousness overcome by Spirit Hegel sees it as having become a pressing feature of his own contemporary world as witnessed in the popularity of his Berlin rival Schleiermacher Finally to the extent that ironic discourse seems for Hegel to imply a certain world beyond his own notion of modernity we are left with the hypothesis that Hegel's critique of irony may be viewed as a critique of post modernity

Godsends William Desmond, 2021-11-15 Godsends is William Desmond's newest addition to his masterwork on the borderlines between philosophy and theology For many years William Desmond has been patiently constructing a philosophical project replete with its own terminology idiom grammar dialectic and its metaxological transformation in an attempt to reopen certain boundaries between metaphysics and phenomenology between philosophy of religion and philosophical theology between the apocalyptic and the speculative and between religious passion and systematic reasoning In Godsends Desmond's newest addition to his ambitious masterwork he presents an original reflection on what he calls the companioning of philosophy and religion Throughout the book he follows an itinerary that has something of an Augustinian likeness from the exterior to the interior from the inferior to the superior The stations along the way include a grappling with the default atheism prevalent in contemporary intellectual culture an exploration of the middle space the metaxu between the finite and the infinite a dwelling with solitudes as thresholds between selving and the sacred a meditation on idiot wisdom and transcendence in an East West perspective an exploration of the different stresses in the mysticisms of Aurobindo and the Arnhem Mystical Sermons a dream monologue of autonomy a suite of Kantian and post Kantian variations on the story of the prodigal son a meditation on the beatitudes as exceeding virtue in light of Aquinas s understanding and culminating in an exploration of Godsend s as telling us something significant about the surprise of revelation in word idea and story Godsend s is written for thoughtful persons and scholars perplexed about the place of religion in our time and hopeful for some illuminating companionship from relevant philosophers It will also interest students of philosophy and religion especially philosophical theology and philosophical metaphysics
