The Spectator ,1907 Our Social World Jeanne H. Ballantine,Keith A. Roberts,2011-10-26 In this brief text two leaders of the Teaching Sociology movement encourage students development of their sociological imaginations through role taking Assuming the role of a child living in poverty in India or of a member of an African tribe students learn to re envision their global society An innovative integrated framework provides core sociological concepts while features such as Contributing to Our Social World enable students to do public sociology Our Social World Condensed Version presents the perspective of students living in the larger global world

Connection, Compromise, and Control Nancy Mandell,Ann Duffy,Susannah Jane Wilson,2008 This text provides discussion of the female life cycle based on in depth interviews with 150 diverse women at various stages in their lives including women from visible minorities lesbians women with disabilities and women living in poverty In this text particular attention will be paid to issues of baby boomers the women s movement work and economic security caregiving health and well being family and intimacy and structure culture and agency All the chapters underline the need for a new perspective that incorporates the historical and generational shifts in women s lives and their experience of aging

Chambers's Journal ,1908 Building a Heaven on Earth Albert L. Park,2014-12-31 Why and how did Korean religious groups respond to growing rural poverty social dislocation and the corrosion of culture caused by forces of modernization under strict Japanese colonial rule 1910 1945 Questions about religion s relationship and response to capitalism industrialization urbanization and secularization lie at the heart of understanding the intersection between colonialism religion and modernity in Korea Yet getting answers to these questions has been a challenge because of narrow historical investigations that fail to study religious processes in relation to political economic social and cultural developments In Building a Heaven on Earth Albert L Park studies the progressive drives by religious groups to contest standard conceptions of modernity and forge a heavenly kingdom on the Korean peninsula to relieve people from fierce ruptures in their everyday lives The results of his study will reconfigure the debates on colonial modernity the origins of faith based social activism in Korea and the role of religion in a modern world Building a Heaven on Earth in particular presents a compelling story about the determination of the Young Men s Christian Association YMCA the Presbyterian Church and the Ch ndogyo to carry out large scale rural movements to form a paradise on earth anchored in religion agriculture and a pastoral life It is a transnational story of leaders from these three groups leaning on ideas and systems from countries such as Denmark France Japan and the United States to help them reform political economic social and cultural structures in colonial Korea This book shows that these religious institutions provided discursive and material frameworks that allowed for an alternative form of modernity that featured new forms of agency social organization and the nation In so doing Building a Heaven on Earth repositions our understandings of modern Korean history
