Measuring What Counts:

Measuring What Counts Joseph E. Stiglitz, 2019-11-19 A bold agenda for a better way to assess societal well being by three of the world's leading economists and statisticians If we want to put people first we have to know what matters to them what improves their well being and how we can supply more of whatever that is Joseph E Stiglitz In 2009 a group of economists led by Nobel laureate Joseph E Stiglitz French economist Jean Paul Fitoussi and Nobel laureate Amartya Sen issued a report challenging gross domestic product GDP as a measure of progress and well being Published as Mismeasuring Our Lives by The New Press the book sparked a global conversation about GDP and a major movement among scholars policy makers and activists to change the way we measure our economies Now in Measuring What Counts Stiglitz Fitoussi and Martine Durand summarizing the deliberations of a panel of experts on the measurement of economic performance and social progress hosted at the OECD the international organization incorporating the most economically advanced countries propose a new beyond GDP agenda This book provides an accessible overview of the last decade's global movement sparked by the original critique of GDP and proposes a new dashboard of metrics to assess a society's health including measures of inequality and economic vulnerability whether growth is environmentally sustainable and how people feel about their lives Essential reading for our time it also serves as a guide for policy makers and others on how to use these new tools to fundamentally change the way we measure our lives and to plot a radically new path forward Measuring What Counts
