Medardo Rosso Medardo Rosso, Dieter Schwarz, 2003 With his figures Italian sculptor Medardo Rosso succeeded in contributing decisively to the development of modern sculpture The artist's points of focus were the moment when the sculpture was perceived and the fusion of the figure with its surroundings He worked almost exclusively on portrait heads wax became a substitute for bronze allowing him to work the surface of the sculpture to its finest perfection and to use different hues adequate expression for the fleetingness of the apparition And they are fleeting one hardly knows if the portrayed faces are receding from the sculpture's surface or pushing up against it In Paris where Rosso spent the greater part of his life he found understanding friends in Edgar Degas and the collector Henri Rouart while friendship with Rodin miscarried because of the rivalry between the two sculptors At around the turn of the century Rosso's sculptures could be seen at many large European exhibitions the Futurists would soon hold him up as a model This publication a scholarly survey of the artist's work makes clear that although Rosso limited himself to very few motifs their many different versions translated into independent works Art Now Gallery Guide ,1988 Bibliographie D'histoire de L'art ,1991 Writing Art Juliet Steyn,John Gange,1995 This is the first volume in a series published in association with the Kent Institute of Art and Design Each volume creates a site between academic scholarship and other forms modes and genres of writing including essays in imaging in photography and other textual forms In this volume art is viewed as a presentation not a re presentation of theory The relationship between them is perceived as symbiotic The interplay across art and theory is understood as contiguous not homogeneous neither are defined in terms of content or form but rather through a series of questions and arguments concerning their identity however contingent or provisional within cultural production and institutions of culture Art criticism is perceived here as a place where art's meanings and definitions are transmitted fixed disputed and changed through interpretation and commentary words and images Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,1992 Artbibliographies Modern ,1990 Abstracts of journal articles books essays exhibition catalogs dissertations and exhibition reviews The scope of ARTbibliographies Modern extends from artists and movements beginning with Impressionism in the late 19th century up to the most recent works and trends in the late 20th century Photography is covered from its invention in 1839 to the present A particular emphasis is placed upon adding new and lesser known artists and on the coverage of foreign language literature Approximately 13 000 new entries are added each year Published with title LOMA from 1969 1971 Parkett ,1988
