New Directions In Theology Today Volume 3:

New Directions in Theology Today William Hordern, 1966 NEW DIRECTIONS IN THEOLOGY TODAY, Volume 3 - God and Secularity John Macquarrie, 1947 New Directions in Theology Today Colin W. Williams, 1975 The Collected Works of Edward Schillebeeckx Volume 3 Edward Schillebeeckx, 2014-09-25 God the Future of Man focuses on religion and secularisation viewed from various vantage points secularisation and God talk secularisation and the church's liturgy secularisation and the church's new self understanding and finally secularisation and the future of humankind on earth in light of the eschaton church and social politics These thought provoking reflections are presented against the backdrop of Schillebeeckx's hermeneutic premises In the concluding chapter his reflections on secularisation culminate in a God concept that can function fruitfully in a modern culture that assigns the future pride of place God as the future of humankind Written in a period pregnant with Cultural Revolution and religious change the book foregrounds the pivotal issue of secularisation in a thought provoking way With feverish urgency he reflects on various forms of religiosity in the modern world His contribution to the debate could just as well have been written today The Idea of a Christian University in Today's World Ben C. Fisher, 1989 20th-Century Theology Stanley J. Grenz, Roger E. Olson, 2010-01-26 Stanley J Grenz and Roger E Olson offer a sympathetic guide and a critical assessment of the significant theologies and theologians of the 20th century They trace the shifts in theology as it has moved back and forth between God's immanence and God's transcendence The Effective Teaching of Religious Education Brenda Watson, Penny Thompson, 2014-04-23 The Effective Teaching of Religious Education provides an accessible yet intellectually rigorous resource for all those involved in the teaching of RE in schools today Written with the needs of specialist and non specialist teachers in mind in both the primary and secondary sectors it successfully integrates theory and practice encouraging debate and reflection on a broad range of issues in what is often regarded as a complex and often controversial subject area The second edition has been written with the collaboration of a new co author Penny Thompson and has been thoroughly updated revised and extended to include A new chapter on the place of Christianity in RE New material on the purpose of RE and on the relationship of RE to other subjects A new Appendix on tackling assessment and syllabus requirements A new companion website at www.pearsoned.co.uk/watsonthompson including an overview of the use of ICT in RE teaching web links and practical resources for use in the classroom

New Directions in Theology Today: Man: the new humanism, by R.L. Shinn William Hordern, 1968 Volume 10, Tome I: Kierkegaard's Influence on Theology Jon Stewart, 2016-12-05 Kierkegaard has always enjoyed a rich reception in the fields of theology and religious studies This reception might seem obvious given that he is one of the most important Christian writers of the nineteenth century but Kierkegaard was by no means a straightforward theologian in any traditional sense He had no enduring interest in some of the main fields of theology such as church history or biblical studies and he was strikingly silent on many key Christian dogmas Moreover he harbored a degree of animosity towards the university theologians and churchmen of his own day Despite this he has been a source of inspiration for numerous religious writers from different denominations and traditions Tome I is dedicated to the reception of Kierkegaard among German Protestant theologians and religious thinkers The writings of some of these figures turned out to be instrumental for Kierkegaard s breakthrough internationally shortly after the turn of the twentieth century Leading figures of the movement of dialectical theology such as Karl Barth Emil Brunner Paul Tillich and Rudolf Bultmann spawned a steadily growing awareness of and interest in Kierkegaard s thought among generations of German theology students Emanuel Hirsch was greatly influenced by Kierkegaard and proved instrumental in disseminating his thought by producing the first complete German edition of Kierkegaard s published works Both Barth and Hirsch established unique ways of reading and appropriating Kierkegaard which to a certain degree determined the direction and course of Kierkegaard studies right up to our own times

Faith-Based Initiatives and Aging Services James W Ellor, F. Ellen Netting, 2012-12-06 Gain an understanding of the increased role religious congregations now play in providing social support to the elderly Religious congregations and faith based organizations FBO from the Jewish Christian and Islamic traditions have worked on behalf of older adults for centuries But the initiation of President Bush s Office of Faith Based Initiatives has raised many questions from both the traditional secular and sectarian services as well as many nontraditional services found in each community Faith Based Initiatives and Aging Services addresses the issues of the separation of church and state the concerns involved in developing social services in religious congregations and the larger public policy implications of this office This unique book offers perspectives from traditional and nontraditional faith based groups as well as experts in volunteerism The enactment by Congress of the Charitable Choice section of the federal welfare reform law combined with the creation of the Center for Faith Based and Community Initiatives in the United States Department of Health and Human Services to signal a high level of interest in supporting faith based organizations Faith Based Initiatives and Aging Services focuses on the specific applications of services provided by religious congregations Editors F Ellen Netting and James W Ellor conducted an in depth interview with Elizabeth Seal Scott then Director of the Center for Faith Based and Community Initiatives an edited transcript of the interview is included in the book to help promote understanding of the development and implementation of faith based grass roots programs Faith Based Initiatives and Aging Services examines the separation of church and state Baptist perspectives on faith based initiatives and religious liberty managing older volunteers faith organizations and ethnically diverse elders the heritage of religion and spirituality in the field of gerontology faith related agencies and their implications for aging services the role of religious congregations in the social service system Faith Based Initiatives and Aging Services is an essential resource for anyone interested in developing programs for older adults in religious congregations for human services staffs seeking to work with faith based initiatives and for government workers in need of a better understanding of faith based services in their community

Aging, Spirituality and Palliative Care Elizabeth MacKinlay, 2006 The period of time when a person approaches death is always difficult both for the patient and the caregiver Aging Spirituality and Palliative Care discusses best practices in aged and palliative care while addressing patients diverse spiritual needs Leading authorities presentations from the Third International Conference on Ageing and Spirituality in Adelaide Australia in 2004 explore practical sensitive spiritual approaches to help older patients deal with aging illness and approaching death Each chapter is carefully referenced and many include tables and figures that enhance understanding of research data God, Revelation and Authority: God Who Speaks and Shows (Vol. 2) Carl F. H. Henry, 1999-01-25 Part 2 in a monumental six volume set that presents an undeniable case for the revealed authority of God to a generation that has forgotten who he is and what he has done Ministering to Older Adults Donald Koepke, 2013-10-18 Learn how to focus your ministry's programs and services on the elderly By 2030 20% of the people living in the United States will be age 65 or older with unique spiritual needs that can affect their physical and mental well being Ministering to Older Adults answers the critical need for a ministry that doesn't center primarily on youth and families in its outreach instead presenting a step by step guide to developing a ministry for the aged that is focused on the needs and resources of each congregation This program has been used effectively with nearly 50 congregations both large and small to create a focused older adult ministry No two congregations are alike The resources perspectives and skills of each congregation are different as are the needs of its members Ministering to Older Adults provides a framework for use by planning groups within communities of any religious tradition The book presents a process that includes essential questions that allow planning groups to develop answers that fit the needs cultural history and structure of their individual congregations Ministering to Older Adults is divided into three sections The Fundamentals defining your audience your mission and the skills and existing programs that can be brought to the planning process Programming Possibilities spiritual needs based on the aging process continued learning for older adults opportunities to serve and be served providing quality pastoral care and community building Putting it All Together deciding on a direction using desired outcomes for evaluation establishing target dates and ongoing evaluation Ministering to Older Adults also includes forms and charts to help in the planning process The book is an invaluable resource for clergy ministry committees and planning groups and staff persons responsible for older adult ministries The Doctrine of God Christopher B. Kaiser, 2001-01-11 The key to the doctrine of the Trinity is the combination of transcendence and personality in the biblical portrayal of God This idea is traced through Old Testament New Testament the Church Fathers medieval scholasticism the Reformation and early modern theology and three 20th century theologians Barth Pannenberg and Macquarrie The People of God Paul Basden, David S. Dockery, 2009-08-01 The term Believers Church refers to those who regard the church as the fellowship of regenerate followers of Jesus Christ Membership in these churches is founded on a voluntary confession of Jesus as Lord Each member has access to God in worship and prayer and accepts responsibility for carrying the gospel to the world The Word of God serves as the final authority in all matters of faith and practice Written by capable thinkers in the Believers Church tradition The People of God addresses key issues in the area of ecclesiology The contributions represent a wide variety of mature theological reflection Exploring these ecclesiological concerns from a theological biblical historical and contemporary perspective these essays reflect the unity and diversity of the Believers Church heritage

God, Revelation and Authority: God Who Speaks and Shows (Vol. 4) Carl F. H. Henry, 1999-01-25 Part 4 in a monumental six volume set that presents an undeniable case for the revealed authority of God to a generation that has forgotten who he is and what he has done Did it Really Happen? Jonathan A. Wood, 2019-09-04 The Bible makes remarkable claims about people and events in world history Creation Adam and Eve Israel s escape from Egypt the rise and fall of Israel s kingdom the birth of the Messiah Jesus Christ s life death and resurrection the growth of the church all points of interest by scholars for the historical veracity of the Scriptures Yet the Bible does not appear to present the acts of God in history for the purpose of vindicating historical accuracy of the text The Bible is a story that reveals the living God through inspired writings that communicate the meaning of historical events In light of the Bible as the revelation of God and the high stakes of historical veracity for the claims of the Bible how should Christians approach the interpretation of the Scriptures in a faithful way Carl F H Henry offers guidance as a foremost theologian regarding God revelation and the Scriptures In Did it Really Happen Jonathan Wood engages the thought of Carl Henry in dialogue with the major alternatives to revelation history and the biblical text The value of Carl Henry s approach is shown to provide a path forward for affirming the historicity of the Bible while interpreting the text well Aging, Spirituality, and Pastoral Care James W Ellor, 2013-05-13 How can you foster spiritual growth in older people This multidisciplinary work re examines issues of aging with dignity and spiritual meaning Aging Spirituality and Pastoral Care A Multi National Perspective brings together chaplains pastors counselors and health care practitioners in all walks of gerontology from around the world to present a fully rounded picture of the spiritual needs and potentialities of this fast growing population It also includes a study of the spiritual awareness of nurses working in six different nursing homes as well as a model for a parish nursing practice that focuses on the aged Aging Spirituality and Pastoral Care addresses urgent issues for older people including social and spiritual isolation the wisdom of the aging the need for intimacy sexuality among older people living with dementia the spiritual dimensions of caregiving Cross Covenant R. Larry Shelton, 2006-10-01 Seeking a fresh missionally relevant account of Christ s work Larry Shelton analyzes the biblical notion of sacrifice as a gift alongside other theories of atonement He attempts to show a historical movement away from penal substitutionary theologies toward a Trinitarian relational model
