each one highlighting a separate region the Northeast the South and Southern Highlands the Midwest the Southwest the West the Northwest Alaska and Hawaii Each regional section contains a useful overview essay written by an expert on the folklore of that particular region followed by a selective annotated bibliography of books and a directory of related resources

Writing the Family Narrative Lawrence P. Gouldrup, 1987 At last Here is a clear concise and highly readable explanation of how to write your family history This book was written for the genealogist who has compiled scores of pedigree charts and family group sheets has spent years poring over forgotten manuscripts and staring into dimly lit microfilm readers and who now wants to bring it all together into a final narrative form In a timely and interesting manner the author shows how you can compose a controlled and focused rendition of your family s story
