Pinto Lowery:

Pinto Lowery G. Clifton Wisler, 2014-05-05 Pinto Lowery never wanted anything more than the chance to raise a family and find a piece of land he could call his own But after fighting in the Civil War he couldn't settle and instead drifted all over the West breaking mustangs haunted by the ghosts of his fallen comrades All that changed in a flash There didn't seem to be a good reason to leave mustanging to go work on the farm of Mister Tully Oakes while Oakes travels north on a cattle drive The man had a reputation for being stingy ornery and contrary But when Pinto met Elsie Oakes and her young children an old yearning stirs in his heart and Pinto decided to take Tully's offer Time goes by quickly when the work is hard Yet while the corn is being harvested and everyone is around the fire at night Pinto can almost fool himself into believing he's found a loving family and the first secure home he's known since boyhood But the day of Tully's return looms and the Hannigan gang has taken to raiding the local ranches imperiling Pinto Lowery's simple dreams of the future Topsy-turvy 1585 Robin D. division in Europe and imperial rivalry around the world A study of the cross fertilization of historical writing in the sixteenth and early seventeenth centuries The Globe on Paper reconstructs a set of imaginative accounts worked out from Mexico to the Moluccas and Peru and from the shops of Venetian printers to the rival courts of Spain and England The pages of this book teem with humanists librarians missionaries imperial officials as well as forgers and indigenous chroniclers Drawing on information gathered or said to have been gathered from eyewitness reports interviews with local inhabitants ancient codices and material evidence their global narratives testify to an unprecedented broadening of horizons which briefly flourished before succumbing to the forces of imperial and religious reaction

A Companion to Portuguese Literature Thomas Foster Earle, Stephen Parkinson, Cláudia Pazos Alonso, 2013 This companion volume offers an introduction to European Portuguese literature for university level readers It consists of a chronological overview of Portuguese literature from the twelfth century to the present day by some of the most distinguished literary scholars of recent years leading into substantial essays centred on major authors genres or periods and a study of the history of translations It does not attempt an encyclopaedic coverage of Portuguese literature but provides essential chronological and bibliographical information on all major authors and genres with more extensive treatment of key works and literary figures and a particular focus on the modern period It is unashamedly canonical rather than thematic in its examination of central authors and periods without neglecting female writers In this way it provides basic reference materials for students beginning the study of Portuguese literature and for a wider audience looking for general or specific information The editors have made a principled decision to exclude both Brazilian and African literature which demand separate treatment STEPHEN PARKINSON CLAUDIA PAZOS ALONSO and T F EARLE are all members of the Sub Faculty of Portuguese at the University of Oxford CONTRIBUTORS Vanda Anastácio Helena Carvalho Buescu Rip Cohen T F Earle David Frier Lu s Gomes Mariana Gray de Castro Helder Macedo Patricia Odber de Baubeta Hilary Owen Stephen Parkinson Cl udia Pazos Alonso Juliet Perkins Teresa Pinto Coelho Phillip Rothwell Mark Sabine Claire Williams Clive Willis
