Pioneer America Its First Three Centuries:

The Frontier World of Doc Holliday Patricia Jahns,1998-01-01 Doc Holliday was a paradox respectable citizen and notorious gambler gentleman and murderer married to a prostitute but devoted only to the memory of his mother The Americans: The Colonial Experience Daniel J. Boorstin,2010-06-30 Winner of the Bancroft Prize In this brilliantly original book written for the general reader the American past becomes richly meaningful to the present Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1978 Under a Wild Sky William Souder,2014-07-21 In this Pulitzer Prize finalist biography the author of Mad at the World examines the little known life of the man behind the well known bird survey John James Audubon is renowned for his masterpiece of natural history and art The Birds of America the first nearly comprehensive survey of the continent's birdlife And yet few people understand and many assume incorrectly what sort of man he was How did the illegitimate son of a French sea captain living in Haiti who lied both about his parentage and his training rise to become one of the greatest natural historians ever and the greatest name in ornithology In Under a Wild Sky this Pulitzer Prize finalist William Souder reveals that Audubon did not only compose the most famous depictions of birds the world has ever seen but he also composed a brilliant mythology of self In this dazzling work of biography Souder charts the life of a driven man who despite all odds became the historical figure we know today A meticulous biography and a fascinating portrait of a young nation San Francisco Chronicle As richly endowed and densely packed as the forests of Audubon's day Minneapolis Star Tribune Deftly weaves together the story of the self taught artist and naturalist with the development of scientific inquiry in the early years of the republic and the lives of ordinary Americans as the new nation spilled westward over the mountains from the Eastern seaboard Los Angeles Times A Guide to American Trade Catalogs, 1744-1900 Lawrence B. Romaine,1990-01-01 Invaluable listing of rare catalogs selling cars beekeeper's equipment clocks firearms livestock clothes toys more Cites catalog's location size more The Seasons Sewn Ann Whitford Paul,2000-02 Shows how the patterns and pattern names in patchwork reflect life on the frontier in the nineteenth century Sowing Modernity Peter D. McClelland,2018-09-05 Contrary to those who regard the economic transformation of the West as a gradual process spanning centuries Peter D McClelland claims the initial transformation of American agriculture was an unmistakable revolution He asks when a single crucial question was first directed persistently pervasively and systematically to farming practices Is there a better way McClelland surveys practices from crop rotation to livestock breeding with a particular focus on the change in implements used to produce small grains With wit and verve and an abundance of detail he demonstrates that the first great surge in inventive activity in agronomy in the United States took place following the War of 1812 much of it in a fifteen year period ending in 1830 Once questioning the status quo became the norm for producers on and off the farm according to McClelland the march to modernization was virtually assured With the aid of more than 270 illustrations many of them taken from contemporary sources McClelland describes this stunning transformation in a manner rarely found in the agricultural literature How primitive farming implements worked what their defects were and how they were initially redesigned are explained in a manner intelligible to the novice and yet offering analysis and information of special interest to the expert
