Piri-muridi Relationship Desiderio Pinto,1995 The relationship between a spiritual master and his disciple piri muridi becomes important when one witnesses day after day the large numbers of Muslims and non Muslims flocking to spiritual masters pirs stationed at the various dargahs of India This work discovers that piri muridi aims at making the disciple see God in all things while very often allowing him to enjoy worldly success This is achieved through a lengthy socialization process that spans a period of time ranging from twelve years to a lifetime This socialization process is very painful and some disciples murids run away Most however remain bound to their pir by their vow of allegiance to him the pir's friendliness sympathy material magical and psychological assistance and when that is not enough fear of his magical power During this period the murid learns to fall in love with the pir whom he strives to see as the representative of God by observing serving and seeing the pir's hand in everything that befalls him and frequently recalling and concentrating on a mental image of the pir while believing that his actions are prompted by the pir Having thus attained union with the pir he one day suddenly realizes that the pir is just a curtain or veil that hides something else that which he has truly loved all the time in the image of the pir is God himself The book is a mine of empirical information collected in the Nizamuddin dargah showing how a set of beliefs contained in constantly narrated stories and experiences are used to forge structure maintain and further the relationship between the pir and his murid It will be of interest to scholars of Islam Indian history and sociology Sufi thought and the place of religion in the modern world

Bombay Islam Nile Green,2011-03-21 As a thriving port city nineteenth century Bombay attracted migrants from across India and beyond Nile Green's Bombay Islam traces the ties between industrialization imperialism and the production of religion to show how Muslim migration fueled demand for a wide range of religious suppliers as Christian missionaries competed with Muslim religious entrepreneurs for a stake in the new market Enabled by a colonial policy of non intervention in religious affairs and powered by steam travel and vernacular printing Bombay's Islamic productions were exported as far as South Africa and Iran Connecting histories of religion labour and globalization the book examines the role of ordinary people mill hands and merchants in shaping the demand that drove the market By drawing on hagiographies travelogues doctrinal works and poems in Persian Urdu and Arabic Bombay Islam unravels a vernacular modernity that saw people from across the Indian Ocean drawn into Bombay's industrial economy of enchantment

Religion and Orientalism in Asian Studies Kiri Paramore,2016-10-06 Religion and Orientalism in Asian Studies analyses the role of religion in past and present understandings of Asia Religion and the history of its study in the modern academy has exercised massive influence over Asian Studies fields in the past century Asian Studies has in turn affected and is increasingly shaping the study of religion Religion and Orientalism in Asian Studies looks into this symbiotic relationship both in current practice and in the modern histories of both Orientalism and Area Studies Each chapter of the book deals with one regional sub discipline in Asian Studies covering Chinese Studies Japanese Studies Korean Studies South

Asian Studies Southeast Asian Studies and Central Eurasian Studies The chapters are integrated by shared themes that run through the past and present practice of Asian Studies covering the role of state actors in originating Area Studies the role of local scholarship in defining and developing it the interaction between humanities and social science approaches debates over the dominance of Western and or modern categories and frameworks the interaction of past and present and the role of religious actors and religious sensibilities in shaping Asian Studies

South Asian Sufis Clinton Bennett, Charles M. Ramsey, 2012-03-01 Often described as the soul of Islam Sufism is one of the most interesting yet least known facet of this global religion Sufism is the softer more inclusive and mystical form of Islam Although militant Islamists dominate the headlines the Sufi ideal has captured the imagination of many Nowhere in the world is the handprint of Sufism more observable than South Asia which has the largest Muslim population of the world but also the greatest concentration of Sufis This book examines active Sufi communities in Pakistan India and Bangladesh that shed light on the devotion and deviation and destiny of Sufism in South Asia Drawn from extensive work by indigenous and international scholars this ethnographical study explores the impact of Iran on the development of Sufi thought and practice further east and also discusses Sufism in diaspora in such contexts as the UK and North America and Iran's influence on South Asian Sufism

Sufism in India and Central Asia Nasir Raza Khan, 2022-10-06 Sufism in India and Central Asia is an attempt to put into perspective the relevance of Sufism the concept and teaching and to provide a realistic assessment of its role in India and Central Asia The people of these regions with different ethnic backgrounds cultures and languages have been intermingling for many centuries as seen in the cross current exchanges of religious ideas and belief The word Sufism popularly known as mysticism is most likely derived from the Arabic word suf meaning wool more specifically it means the person wearing ascetic woollen garments Sufism is deeply rooted in Islam and its development began in the late 7th and 8th centuries The present volume is an attempt to look for answers to questions in relation to Sufism in India and Central Asia and to evaluate its relevance in the contemporary period A group of distinguished scholars from India and Central Asia have contributed papers to this volume This volume will be useful to students and researchers working on social and cultural aspects of India and Central Asia

Islam, Sufism and Everyday Politics of Belonging in South Asia Deeptra Dandekar, Torsten Tschacher, 2016-09-13 This book looks at the study of ideas practices and institutions in South Asian Islam commonly identified as Sufism and how they relate to politics in South Asia While the importance of Sufism for the lives of South Asian Muslims has been repeatedly asserted the specific role played by Sufism in contestations over social and political belonging in South Asia has not yet been fully analysed Looking at examples from five countries in South Asia India Pakistan Bangladesh Sri Lanka and Afghanistan the book begins with a detailed introduction to political concerns over belonging in relation to questions concerning Sufism and Islam in South Asia This is followed with sections on Producing and Identifying Sufism Everyday and Public Forms of Belonging Sufi Belonging Local and National and Intellectual History and Narratives of Belonging Bringing together scholars from diverse disciplines the book explores the connection of Islam Sufism and the Politics of Belonging in South Asia It is an important contribution to South Asian Studies Islamic Studies and South Asian Religion Devotion, Religious Authority, and Social Structures in Sindh Michel Boivin,2024-03-18 In a context of rigidification of religious boundaries especially between Hinduism and Islam the book argues that many physical and non physical sites of religious encountering are still at work both in Pakistan and in India In India the Hindu Sindhis worshipped a god Jhulelal who is also venerated in Pakistan as a saint In Sehwan Sharif in the Islamic Republic of Pakistan there are Hindu Sufi masters who initiate Muslims to Sufism This study is the first to involve both Muslim and Hindu communities in a comparative perspective and to underscore that the process of constructing communities in South Asia follow the same social pattern the patrilineal lineage baradari or khandan The study is based on an array of sources collected in three continents such as manuscripts printed and oral sources as well as artefacts from material cultures most of which was never published before With Respect to Sex Gayatri Reddy,2010-05-15 With Respect to Sex is an intimate ethnography that offers a provocative account of sexual and social difference in India The subjects of this study are hijras or the third sex of India individuals who occupy a unique liminal space between male and female sacred and profane Hijras are men who sacrifice their genitalia to a goddess in return for the power to confer fertility on newlyweds and newborn children a ritual role they are respected for at the same time as they are stigmatized for their ambiguous sexuality By focusing on the hijra community Gayatri Reddy sheds new light on Indian society and the intricate negotiations of identity across various domains of everyday life Further by reframing hijra identity through the local economy of respect this ethnography highlights the complex relationships among local and global sexual and moral economies This book will be regarded as the definitive work on hijras one that will be of enormous interest to anthropologists students of South Asian culture and specialists in the study of gender and sexuality Culture, Creation, and Procreation Monika Böck,Aparna Rao,2001-01-01 As reproduction is seen as central to kinship and the biological link as the primary bond between parents and their offspring Western perceptions of kin relations are primarily determined by ideas about consanguinity genealogical relations and genetic connections Advocates of cultural constructivism have taken issue with a concept that puts so much stress on heredity as being severely biased by western ideas of kinship Ethnologists in particular developed alternative systems using indigenous categories This symbolic approach has however been rejected by some scholars as plagued by the problems of the analytical separation of ideology from practice of largely overlooking relations of domination and of ignoring the questions of shared knowledge and choice This volume offers a corrective by discussing the constitution of kinship among different communities in South Asia and addressing the relationship between ideology and practice cultural models and individual strategies Sufism in the West Jamal Malik,John Hinnells,2006-04-18 With the increasing Muslim diaspora in post modern Western societies Sufism intellectually as well as sociologically may eventually become Islam itself due to its versatile potential Although Sufism has always provoked considerable interest in the West no volume has so far been written which discusses this aspect of Islam in terms of how it is practised in Western societies Bringing together leading international authorities to survey the history of Islamic mysticism in North America and Europe this book elaborates the ideas and institutions which organize Sufism and folk religious practices The chapters cover the orders and movements their social base organization and institutionalization recruitment patterns in new environments channels of disseminating ideas such as ritual charisma and organization reasons for their popularity among certain social groups the nature of their affiliation with the countries of their origin Providing a fascinating insight into how Sufism operates within different spheres of society Sufism in the West is essential reading for students and academics with research interests in Islam Islamic history and social anthropology The Shaping Shaikh Dejan Aždajić, 2020-01-20 Islam is more than a system of rigid doctrines and normative principles It is a diverse mosaic of subjective often contradictory interpretations and discrepant applications that prohibit a narrow one dimensional approach This book argues that to uncover this complex reality and achieve a more accurate understanding of Islam as a lived religion it is imperative to consider Islam from the point of view of human beings who practice their faith Consequently this book provides an important contribution through a detailed ethnographic study of two contemporary Sufi communities Although both groups shared much in common there was a fundamental almost perplexing range of theological convictions and ritual implementations This book explores the mechanism that accounts for such diversity arguing for a direct correlation between Sufi multiformity and the agency of the spiritual leader the Shaikh Empirical research regarding the authority by which Shaikhs subjectively generate legitimate adaptations that shape the contours of religious belief are lacking This study is significant because it focuses on how leadership operates in Sufism highlighting the primacy of the Shaikh in the selection and appropriation of inherited norms Journey Among Dervishes Between Past and Present AA: VV., 2024-03-08T00:00:00+01:00 The present book intends to invite readers on a multi dimensional and multifaceted journey meeting dervishes in different places and environments of the Muslim world its peculiarity is to bring together a classical orientalist approach based on texts and written documents with the approach typical of Anthropology Ethnography and Ethnomusicology based on research in the field and oral sources the ethnographic study of the present sheds new light on practices methods and theories exposed in treatises of the Past while at the same time practices of the present may be clarified and illuminated by the study of ancient Sufi texts and authors These different approaches want to draw attention to the multiple dimensions embraced by tasawwuf Sufism both in its historical and social context and in its nontemporal aspect concerning spirituality and the ways the latter is conveyed and transmitted both in the past and present Islamic Sufism Unbound R. Rozeňnal, 2016-04-30 Robert Rozeňnal traces the ritual practices and identity politics of a contemporary Sufi order in Pakistan the Chishti Sabris He takes multiple perspectives from the rich Urdu writings of Twentieth Century Sufi masters to the complex spiritual life of contemporary disciples and the order's growing transnational networks Sharing the Sacred Anna Bigelow, 2010-02-04 The author looks at a place where the conditions for religious conflict are present but active conflict is absent focusing on a Muslim majority Punjab town Malkerkotla where both during the Partition and subsequently there has been no inter religious violence

Legacy Of A Divided Nation Mushirul Hasan, 2019-03-13 This book is regarded as a personal manifesto a statement through the history of partition and its aftermath of the values which India's Muslims should cherish and of the national priorities they should promote It provides the reference point for understanding India's Partition and its legacy

Women Mystics and Sufi Shrines in India Kelly Pemberton, 2013-02-19 Insightful field research into the complexity of women's roles in a subset of Islamic culture Women Mystics and Sufi Shrines in India combines historical data with years of ethnographic fieldwork to investigate women's participation in the culture of Sufi shrines in India and the manner in which this participation both complicates and sustains traditional conceptions of Islamic womanhood Kelly Pemberton grounds her firsthand research into India's Sufi shrines and saints by setting her observations against the historical backdrop of colonial era discourses by British civil servants Orientalist scholars and Muslim reformists and the assumptive portrayals of women's activities in the milieu of Sufi orders and shrines inherent in these accounts These early narratives Pemberton holds are driven by social economic intellectual and political undercurrents of self interest that shaped Western understanding of Indian Muslims and in particular of women's participation in the institutions of Sufism Pemberton's research offers a corrective by assessing the contemporary circumstances under which a woman may be recognized as a spiritual authority or guide despite official denial of such status and by examining the discrepancies between the commonly held belief that women cannot perform in the public setting of shrines and her own observations of women doing precisely that She demonstrates that the existence of multiple models of master and disciple relationships have opened avenues for women to be recognized as spiritual authorities in their own right Specifically Pemberton explores the work of performance recitation and ritual mediation carried out by women connected with Sufi orders through kinship and spiritual ties and she maps shifting ideas about women's involvement in public ritual events in a variety of contexts circumstances and genres of performance She also highlights the private petitioning of saints the Prophet and God performed by poor women of low social standing in Bihar Sharif These women are often perceived as being exceptionally close to God yet are compelled to operate outside the public sphere of major shrines Throughout this groundbreaking study Pemberton sets observed practices of lived religious experiences against the boundaries established by prescriptive behavioral models of Islam to illustrate how the varied reasons given for why women cannot become spiritual masters conflict with the need in Sufi circles for them to do exactly that Thus this work also invites further inquiry into the ambiguities to be found in Islam's foundational framework for belief and practice

The English Translation of Cāndāyan Naseem A. Hines, 2023-06-16 This book is the first English translation of Cāndāyan the pioneer work in a long tradition of Indian Sufi love narratives The story was adapted from an oral epic Chanaini popular in the Awadhi speaking region of north India in the fourteenth century The early manuscripts of C nd yan though composed in the Awadhi dialect were recorded in the Persian script Each stanza like unit is introduced by a phrase or sentences in the Persian language style making it necessary for a reader to know the Persian script and language as well as the Awadhi dialect This somewhat limits the access to fully explore C nd yan In addition to this the esoteric interpretation which is the distinguishing feature that gives the Indian Sufi masnav literature its unique identity was also not yet realized C nd yan deserves to be celebrated and recognized because it marks the beginning of the indigenizing process of the masnav in India and served as a model for this literary genre for the next 540 years A serious study of Maulana Daud s C nd yan composed in 1379 in the reign of Firoz Shah Tughlaq did not begin until well into the twentieth century because only a few pages of its manuscript folios were discovered at a time in various academic institutions and museums around the world C nd yan is a fascinating study of the blending of the features of the Persian masnav with the features of the Hindi prem khy n narratives and the features of the medieval Jain literature Even today annually in the Mahakoshala region C nd yan is presented in the form of drama and in the folk song and play forms Print edition not for sale in South Asia India Sri Lanka Nepal Bangladesh Pakistan and Bhutan

Religious Studies Gregory D. Alles,2010-03 Drawing on recent developments in the comparative study of religion this book explores the trends of the past sixty years from a global perspective Each of the ten chapters covers the study of religion in a different region of the world from Europe and the Americas to Asia and the Far East Topics covered include local background to the study of religions formation of religious studies in the region important thinkers and writings institutions interregional diversity and interregional connections emerging issues This book is a major contribution to the field of religious studies and a valuable reference for scholars researchers and graduate students

Regional Sufi Centres in India Nasir Raza Khan,2023-06-09 Regional Sufi Centres in India Significance and Contribution sets out to explore and understand the hundreds of years old multi religious sect of India Sufism which advocates humane and global outlook for entire mankind and regards humanity as a brotherhood Sufism came to India from its Arabic Turkic and Persian homes instead of remaining confined to palaces and mosques It spread out to all over India establishing regional Centres and Dargahs often known by the surnames of the families which sustained it like Khanqah e Niazia in Bareilly UP Khanqah Gesu Daraz in Gulbarga and Firdausi in Bihar The authors of this volume discuss some of the regional Sufi Centres in India and their contribution in the social emancipation of the society Print edition not for sale in South Asia India Sri Lanka Nepal Bangladesh Pakistan and Bhutan

Rituals of Islamic Monarchy Andrew Marsham,2009-05-31 This fascinating history explores the ceremony of the oath of allegiance to the caliph from the time of the Prophet Muhammad until the fragmentation of the caliphate in the late ninth and tenth centuries The study of royal rituals of accession and succession in Christian Rome Byzantium and the early Medieval West has generated an extensive literature This has however remained unexplored in scholarship on the Islamic world This book redresses that by examining the ceremonial of accession to the caliphate in early Islam covering the following aspects of the subject The place of ritual in political practice Changes and continuities in that practice The problem of how best to understand accounts of ritual It also offers a contribution to major current debates in Islamic history the development of Arab Muslim identity and the formation of the Islamic state It presents an accessible discussion of royal ritual in early Islam which situates developments in the Islamic world in a late antique and early medieval context adding an important comparative context to the book
