The Aristocracy in England and Tuscany, 1000-1250 Peter R. Coss, 2020 This volume examines the aristocracy in Tuscany and in England in the years 1000 1250 offering a new way of studying English aristocracy in this period by tracing Italian aristocratic history and then employing the same historiographic tools within English history

The Silk Industry of Renaissance Venice Luca Molà, 2003-04-01 How 16th century Venetian silk manufacturers met the challenge of demand for lighter and cheaper fabric The manufacture of luxury textiles such as silk was central to an Italian Renaissance economy based on status and conspicuous consumption From the rapidly changing fashions that drove demand to the jobs created for craftsmen weavers and merchants the wealth and prestige associated with silk throughout Europe made it Italy's leading export industry In this important book Luca Mol examines the silk industry in Renaissance Venice amid changing markets suppliers producers and government regulations Drawing on archival research and a vast amount of European scholarship Mol documents the innovations Venetians made in manufacturing and marketing to spur the silk industry He uncovers the alliance between manufacturers and government to promote the industry in a changing international economic environment Through flexible laws quality was regulated to meet the varying requirements of an increasing range of customers Mol also analyzes state policy that favored the development and organization of silk producers throughout the Terraferma His findings contribute in an important way to the ongoing scholarly assessment of Venice's place in the economy of the Renaissance and the Mediterranean world

The Free Port of Livorno and the Transformation of the Mediterranean World Corey Tazzara, 2017-10-13 In the twilight of the Renaissance the grand duke of Tuscany a scion of the fabled Medici family of bankers invited foreign merchants artisans and ship captains to settle in his port city of Livorno The town quickly became one of the most bustling port cities in the Mediterranean presenting a rich tableau of officials merchants mariners and slaves Nobody could have predicted in 1600 that their activities would contribute a chapter in the history of free trade Yet by the late seventeenth century the grand duke's invitation had evolved into a general program of hospitality towards foreign visitors the liberal treatment of goods and a model for the elimination of customs duties Livorno was the earliest and most successful example of a free port in Europe

The story of Livorno shows the seeds of liberalism emerging not from the studies of philosophers such as Adam Smith but out of the nexus between commerce politics and identity in the early modern Mediterranean Comparing Greek Colonies Camilla Colombi, Valeria Parisi, Ortwin Dally, Martin Guggisberg, Giorgio Piras, 2022-08-22 The need for a new book on Greek colonization arose to analyse this phenomenon as a long term process in a wide geographic area The events related to individual cities and regions although geographically very distant from each other are linked through an articulated network of material and immaterial relations and have to be considered as part of a broader mobility process in a Mediterranean perspective The intention of Comparing Greek Colonies is to bring geographically and culturally distant regions such as Southern Italy Sicily and the Black Sea closer together not merely to find similarities and differences but to broaden the scholars perspective and overcome existing generalizing and biased models that are often rooted in local scientific traditions The proceedings of the international conference Comparing Greek Colonies Mobility and Settlement Consolidation from Southern Italy to the Black Sea 8th 6th century BC 7 9 11 2018 in Rome are structured around three core topics economic system relationships with the indigenous populations social and territorial systems that constitute the cornerstones of the political formation of the polis in the Archaic period and for its development during the Classical and Hellenistic Ages

ArcheoLogica Data, 2, 2022 Francesca Anichini, Gabriele Gattiglia, Maria Letizia Gualandi, 2022-03-06 ArcheoLogica Data wants to reach an Italian and international audience of scholars professionals students and more generally early career archaeologists and it accepts contributions written both in Italian and English ArcheoLogica Data proposes to indissolubly associate data and interpretation It embraces that global idea of archaeological data that integrates all the discipline declinations without any thematic or chronological constraints Data is at the centre and around lies everything that can stem from it interpretations hypotheses reconstructions applications theoretical and methodological reflections critical ideas constructive discussions

1 Simon Stoddart, 2020-10-08 This volume fills a gap in the study of an important yet neglected case of state formation by taking a landscape perspective to Etruria Simon Stoddart examines the infrastructure hierarchy heterarchy and spatial patterns of the Etruscans over time to investigate their political development from a new perspective The analysis both crosses the divide from prehistory to history and applies a scaled analysis to the whole region between the Tyrrhenian Sea and the Arno and Tiber rivers with special focus on the neglected region between Populonia on the coast and Perugia and the north Umbrian region adjoining the Apennines Stoddart uncovers the powerful places that were in dynamic tension not only between themselves but also with the internal structure constituted by the descent groups that peopled them He unravels the dynamically changing landscape of changing boundaries and buffer zones which contained robust urbanism as well as less centralized polyfocal nucleations

Urbanism and Empire in Roman Sicily Laura Pfuntner, 2019-01-07 Sicily has been the fulcrum of the Mediterranean throughout history The island's central geographical position and its status as ancient Rome's first overseas province make it key to understanding the development of the Roman Empire Yet Sicily's crucial role in the empire has been largely overlooked by scholars of classical antiquity apart from a small number of specialists in its archaeology and material culture Urbanism and Empire in Roman Sicily offers the first comprehensive English language overview of the history and archaeology of Roman Sicily since R J A Wilson's Sicily under the Roman Empire 1990 Laura Pfuntner traces the development of cities and settlement networks in Sicily in order to understand the island's political economic social and cultural role in Rome's evolving Mediterranean hegemony She identifies and examines three main processes traceable in the archaeological record of settlement in Roman Sicily urban disintegration urban adaptation and the development of alternatives to urban settlement By expanding the scope of research on Roman Sicily beyond the bounds of the island itself through comparative analysis of the settlement landscapes of Greece and southern Italy and by utilizing exciting evidence from recent excavations and surveys Pfuntner establishes a new empirical foundation for research on Roman Sicily and demonstrates the necessity of including Sicily in broader historical and archaeological studies of the Roman Empire

Honores inauditi Rebecca J. Henzel, 2022-03-16 Honores inauditi bietet erstmals eine systematische Untersuchung der Ehrenstatuen Siziliens Vor dem Hintergrund der wechsellvollen Geschichte der Insel werden die Ehrenstatuen von den ersten arch ologischen Zeugnissen f r K nige in der Mitte des 3 Jhs v Chr ber die Kaiserzeit bis zum Ende der Praxis in der Sp tantike in den Blick genommen Das arch ologische und epigraphische Material weist auf eine deutliche Kontinuit t hin zeigt aber auch Ver nderungen der Monumente der Beteiligten bei der Sprache der Inschriften und bei ihrer r umlichen Anordnung Dieser Wandel wird in einen Kontext mit bergreifenden Entwicklungen aber auch mit lokalen Faktoren wie Stadtgeschichte und berregionalen

Handelsrouten gestellt Honores inauditum offers the first comprehensive study of honorary statues and their spatial and social context in Sicily Based on a catalogue of mostly unpublished material the book traces honorary statues throughout their historical development starting from the first archaeologically known honorary statues erected for kings in the mid 3rd c BC until the practice's decline in Late antiquity Although continuously used various changes are detected throughout time the monuments material and size their display the language of the inscriptions and the actors involved These changes are contextualized by overarching developments such as trade routes as well as local urban factors Etruscology Alessandro Naso, 2017-09-25 This handbook has two purposes it is intended 1 as a handbook of Etruscology or Etruscan Studies offering a state of the art and comprehensive overview of the history of the discipline and its development and 2 it serves as an authoritative reference work representing the current state of knowledge on Etruscan civilization The organization of the volume reflects this dual purpose The first part of the volume is dedicated to methodology and leading themes in current research organized thematically whereas the second part offers a diachronic account of Etruscan history culture religion art archaeology and social and political relations and structures as well as a systematic treatment of the topography of the Etruscan civilization and sphere of influence History of Universities Mordechai Feingold, 2014-10-09 Volume XXVII 2 of History of Universities contains the customary mix of learned articles and book reviews which makes this publication such an indispensable tool for the historian of higher education The volume is as always a lively combination of original research and invaluable reference material The Crisis of the 14th Century Martin Bauch, Gerrit Jasper Schenk, 2019-12-16 Pre modern critical interactions of nature and society can best be studied during the so called Crisis of the 14th Century While historiography has long ignored the environmental framing of historical processes and scientists have over emphasized nature's impact on the course of human history this volume tries to describe the at times complex modes of the late medieval relationship of man and nature The idea of teleconnection borrowed from the geosciences describes the influence of atmospheric circulation patterns often over long distances It seems that there were teleconnections in society too So this volume aims to examine man environment interactions mainly in the 14th century from all over Europe and beyond It integrates contributions from different disciplines on impact perception and reaction of environmental change and natural extreme events on late Medieval societies For humanists from all historical disciplines it offers an approach how to integrate written and even scientific evidence on environmental change in established and new fields of historical research For scientists it demonstrates the contributions scholars from the humanities can provide for discussion on past environmental changes
