GRIEF SUPPORT CENTER

"WHERE GRIEVING HEARTS GO TO MEND."

CALL 806-371-8998 EXT. 4 FOR DETAILS

"We're sorry that you need us, but we're here for you when you are ready."

Grief Support Groups at The Hope & Healing Place are designed to give bereaved adults, children and families a safe place to express their thoughts and feelings with others on a similar journey. All grief support groups are offered FREE of charge through the generosity of The Hope & Healing Place Supporters, Donations and Fundraising Partnerships. Groups are overseen by our Clinical Advisor and Program Director and led by trained volunteer facilitators.

We host two program cycles annually in the Fall & Spring that meet for 6-8 sessions either weekly or bi-weekly - depending on the program.

Place Of Hope Place Of Healing:

Wealth, Health, and Hope in African Christian Religion Stan Chu Ilo, 2017-11-22 Wealth Health and Hope in African Christian Religion offers a portrait of how contending narratives of modernity in both church and society play out in Africa today through the agency of African Christian religion It explores the identity and features of African Christian religion and the cultural forces driving the momentum of Christian expansion in Africa as well as how these factors are shaping a new African social imagination especially in providing answers to the most challenging questions about poverty wealth health human and cosmic flourishing It offers the academy a good road map for interpreting African Christian religious beliefs and practices today and into the future How Healed Do You Want to Be?: Finding hope and wholeness in a sharp-edged world William T. Faris, 2009 It is a sharp edged world and getting hurt is unavoidable Whether it is physical spiritual or emotional we all experience pain on some level and are left with trying to pick up the pieces What do we do How do we move forward Do we want to merely get bandaged up so we can get back into the game Or do we want something so powerful and miraculous that it leaves us better than when we first experienced pain In How Healed Do You Want to Be author William Faris explores the world of healing from a different perspective defining the true nature of healing and challenging the reader to ask those tough questions that help us discover the deep healing God has for our lives He lays out a biblical road map that helps those on this journey find a healing that leaves them in better shape than when one of the sharp edges from the world first found them Hope in the Hard Places Sarah Beckman, 2019-03-05 Hope in the Hard Places is a practical encouraging guidebook for the weary soul looking for hope in dark circumstances In this life everyone must face trials Cancer chronic illness loss of a loved one divorce depression prodigal children caring for aging parents and other unknown terrains can cause people to feel hopeless and helpless For those who feel like they don't know where to turn Hope in the Hard Places equips readers to walk through their trial with hope rather than desperation Sarah Beckman a speaker and author teaches effective and powerful ways to get through the pain with biblical truths and principles She also includes insight from others who have experienced all manner of trials Packed with practical strategies checklists encouragement wisdom from seasoned travelers and rock solid biblical truth Hope in the Hard Places provides a beacon of hope in the darkness so that readers can walk through the depths of hardship with insight dignity and certainty Hope Is an Imperative David W. Orr, 2011-03-01 For more than three decades David Orr has been one of the leading voices of the environmental movement championing the cause of ecological literacy in higher education helping to establish and shape the field of ecological design and working tirelessly to raise awareness of the threats to future generations posed by humanity's current unsustainable trajectory Hope Is an Imperative brings together in a single volume Professor Orr's most important works These include classics such as What Is Education For one of the most widely reprinted essays in the environmental literature The Campus and the Biosphere which helped launch the green campus movement and Loving Children A Design

Problem which renowned theologian and philosopher Thomas Berry called the most remarkable essay I've read in my whole life. The book features thirty-three essays along with an introductory section that considers the evolution of environmentalism, section introductions that place the essays into a larger context, and a foreword by physicist and author Fritjof Capra. Hope Is an Imperative is a comprehensive collection of works by one of the most important thinkers and writers of our time. It offers a complete introduction to the writings of David Orr for readers new to the field and represents a welcome compendium of key essays for longtime fans. The book is a must-have volume for every environmentalist's bookshelf.

The Healing Power of Hope Kenneth P. Walker Ph. D., 2016-07-21 You've received what feels like the worst news imaginable: CANCER. A dreaded diagnosis, a merciless disease, a relentless foe. Life as you've known it seems irrevocably lost, the future hopeless. But what if all is not lost and the future holds promise? What if you could enlist an ally so powerful that an inevitable diagnosis could be overcome? You can. That ally: The Great Physician, our Lord Jesus Christ. Commend your carebody and spirit to Him. Have faith. Embrace hope. This is a true story about how faith and hope combined with courage, determination, love, and a tenacious will to live can help you fight cancer and find joy in the face of adversity. O LORD, if you heal me, I will be truly healed; if you save me, I will be truly saved. My praises are for you alone. Jeremiah 17:14 NLT

Hope For Healing Church Wounds Dr. Michael Gray, 2019-05-07 Statistics from George Barna Research Group reveal that twenty-five to thirty million adults stay away from the Christian church because of hurtful treatment experienced at the hands of the body of Christ. Having gone through several church hurts, the author has written this book to be a practice guide on how to be restored, renewed, and healed from church-inflicted wounds so that one's relationship to God is joyous and fruitful. From his own experience and documented research through surveys to pastors, church members, and non-churchgoers, the author provides a training manual that churches and church leaders can use to reach and restore church members to a healthy relationship with God and His church. We all want the church to be a place where we can go to worship God with freedom and joy. We all want to be encouraged to grow in our faith and walk with Christ. We all want a place where we find joy in serving others, a place of safety and unconditional love. No one wants to be part of a church that acts like the world, treating people with judgment, condemnation, lack of compassion, and love. Church wounds happen, but God is a restorer of the brokenhearted. God is the great healer of our pain and disappointment. The author believes that if one takes the steps outlined in the book, there will be renewal and restoration. If churches reach out to those who have been wounded in the way outlined in this book, many will come back into fellowship with the Lord and His church.

Hope and Healing in Urban Education Shawn Ginwright, 2015-07-30 Hope and Healing in Urban Education proposes a new movement of healing justice to repair the damage done by the erosion of hope resulting from structural violence in urban communities. Drawing on ethnographic case studies from around the country, this book chronicles how teacher activists employ healing strategies in stressed schools and community organizations and work to reverse negative impacts on academic achievement and civic engagement supporting their students to become powerful civic actors The book argues that healing a community is a form of political action and emphasizes the need to place healing and hope at the center of our educational and political strategies At once a bold revealing and nuanced look at troubled urban communities as well as the teacher activists and community members working to reverse the damage done by generations of oppression Hope and Healing in Urban Education examines how social change can be enacted from within to restore a sense of hope to besieged communities and counteract the effects of poverty violence and hopelessness

Sufism as Lorna Goodison's Alternative Poetic Path to Hope and Healing Brenda Domínguez-Rosado, 2018-10-15 Jamaican Poet Laureate Lorna Goodison searches for answers for herself and other Caribbean based descendants of enslaved Africans by examining and presenting different spiritualities in her poetry in the hope of providing alternatives to the psyche in need of healing after the traumatic events of the infamous transatlantic Middle Passage The inclusion of Sufism in her poetry seems to have a dual purpose in that it offers a new creative angle and a sincere belief in its power to provide relief from personal anguish The fact that Sufism is similar to Jamaican based religions works in its favor Can Jamaicans who are Goodison's primary subject really relate to its message She does not underestimate her audience's capacity for change or their willingness to accept the ideas of Sufism Her role as facilitator is not a secret she is openly promoting her ideas and her belief that healing is possible This book is divided into three chapters In Chapter One a brief history of slavery in the Caribbean region with a focus on Jamaica is presented The second chapter explicitly focuses on Lorna Goodison and her use of the written word to reveal her feelings about her ancestors and her own traumatic past It also defines Sufism includes some examples of Sufi poems and shows what aspects of Sufism resonate with Jamaican Revivalism and Rastafarianism The final chapter first makes reference to how Sufi elements have been used by other writers such as Alfred Lord Tennyson Walt Whitman Thomas Merton and Doris Lessing and then illustrates how contrary to these others Goodison is the only one to apply Sufi ideals to a Caribbean context thus falling into her own creative category that of a new Caribbean literary canon
