Placing And Displacing Romanticism:

Placing and Displacing Romanticism Peter J. Kitson, 2001 The essays collected in this volume all address the crucial current issues of place and displacement placing and displacing in Romantic period studies These terms are used with dexterity and imagination explored and interrogated in both their literal and figurative manifestations Overall this volume of essays takes forward these seminal terms in contemporary criticism of Romantic writing in a series of fresh and subtle readings of texts and contexts historical philosophical social political and scientific Familiar texts are revisited with new insight and unfamiliar texts are placed in meaningful contexts Despite the claim that Romantic writing denies and evades history and the social tensions of its time this volume shows how such writing is replete with both explicit and implicit contributions to the essential debates of the time The contributors to this volume all leading scholars in their field combine the virtues of close textual reading with an informed awareness of the historical political and social pressures of the Romantic period encouraging a critical stance of historically engaged formalist critique The Edinburgh Review in the Literary Culture of Romantic Britain William Christie, 2016-06-16 From its first issue published on the 10th October 1802 Francis Jeffrey's Edinburgh Review established a strong reputation and exerted a powerful influence This is a literary study of the Edinburgh Review for over fifty years It contextualizes the periodical within the culture wars of the Romantic era

Romanticism and the Uses of Genre David Duff, 2009-11-12 This wide ranging book explores the generic innovations that drive the Romantic revolution in literature but also the fascination with archaic forms such as the ballad sonnet epic and romance whose revival and transformation make Romanticism a retro as well as a revolutionary movement Women,

Epic, and Transition in British Romanticism Elisa Beshero-Bondar, 2011 Women Epic and Transition in British Romanticism argues that early nineteenth century women poets contributed some of the most daring work in modernizing the epic genre The book examines several long poems to provide perspective on women poets working with and against men in related efforts contributing together to a Romantic movement of large scale genre revision Women poets challenged longstanding categorical approaches to gender and nation in the epic tradition and they raised politically charged questions about women's importance in moments of historical crisis While Romantic epics did not all engage in radical questioning or undermining of authority this study calls attention to some of the more provocative poems in their approach to gender culture and history This study prioritizes long poems written by and about women during the Romantic era and does so in context with influential epics by male contemporaries The book takes its cue from a dramatic increase in the publication of epics in the early nineteenth century At their most innovative Romantic epics provoked questions about the construction of ideological meaning and historical memory and they centralized women's experiences in entirely new ways to reflect on defeat loss and inevitable transition For the first time the epic became an attractive genre for ambitious women poets The book offers a timely response to recent groundbreaking scholarship on nineteenth century epic by Herbert Tucker and Simon

Dentith and should be of interest to Romanticists and scholars of 18th and 19th century literature and history gender and genre and women s studies     The Ecology of British Romantic Conservatism, 1790-1837 Katey Castellano,2013-10-11 Analyzing Romantic conservative critiques of modernity found in literature philosophy natural history and agricultural periodicals this book finds a common theme in the intergenerational imagination This impels an environmental ethic in which obligations to past and future generations shape decisions about inherited culture and land     Class and the Canon K. Blair,M. Gorji,2012-11-13 Examining how labouring class poets constructed themselves and were constructed by critics as part of a canon and how they situated their work in relation to contemporaries and poets from earlier periods this book highlights the complexities of labouring class poetic identities in the period from Burns to mid late century Victorian dialect poets     John Clare and Community John Goodridge,2013 John Clare 1793 1864 is one of the most sensitive poetic observers of the natural world Born into a rural labouring family he felt connected to two communities his native village and the Romantic and earlier poets who inspired him The first part of this study of Clare and community shows how Clare absorbed and responded to his reading of a selection of poets including Chatterton Bloomfield Gray and Keats revealing just how serious the process of self education was to his development The second part shows how he combined this reading with the oral folk culture he was steeped in to create an unrivalled poetic record of a rural culture during the period of enclosure and the painful transition to the modern world In his lifelong engagement with rural and literary life Clare understood the limitations as well as the strengths in communities the pleasures as well as the horrors of isolation     Romantic Diasporas: French Émigrés, British Convicts, and Jews T. Benis,2009-06-22 Romantic Diasporasexamines exile in the Romantic period fromthe different perspectives of French migr s in England British convicts transported to Australia and Jews in their perennial diaspora     Robert Southey: Later Poetical Works, 1811-1838 Vol 3 Tim Fulford,Lynda Pratt,Carol Bolton,Rachel Crawford,Ian Packer,Diego Saglia,Daniel E White,2024-10-28 Central to any reappraisal of Southey s mid to late career is Roderick This best selling epic romance has not been republished since 1838 and is contextualised here within Southey s wider oeuvre The four volume edition also benefits from a general introduction volume introductions textual variants endnotes and a consolidated index     John Clare Society Journal, 30 (2011) Ben Hickman,Marielle Risse,Jason Goldsmith,Mick Schrey,Brian Shields,John Goodridge,M.
